THE TRIBUNE.

Crimes, Casualties, &c.

☞ At Columbia Pa. on Sunday last Michael Sloat was killed by falling from the second story of a warehouse through the hatchway. He fell upon an iron rod which passed through his lungs—he lingered six hours in dreadful tortures.

At Roxbury, Mass. on Wednesday, Mr. Tucker, engineer of the steam bakery, had both of his arms terribly crushed by having them caught in the machine for rolling dough.

☞ The Ohio Statesman says it has made inquiries in the proper quarter, and learned that the Executive is taking such steps in relation to the captured Ohioans, now imprisoned in Virginia, as will lead to a settlement of the matter likely to satisfy the public.

☞ At Norfolk, Va. on the 7th, the store of E. P. Goodrich was destroyed by fire.

RAIN.—Since Saturday we have had the most tremendous outpouring of the clouds that has taken place in a twelvemonth or more. If the rain extended into the interior, as we have no doubt it did, the rivers and creeks will be full to overflowing. The wind was high yesterday, which makes us fear for the cotton crop. Such a tremendous rain, followed by a blow, at this season of the year, cannot fail to have an injurious effect upon the cotton plant. [Savannah Repub. 5th.

FIRE IN SYRACUSE.—At 9 o'clock on Thursday evening the alarm of fire was given, which was found to proceed from a barn on the premises owned by William H. Alexander, Esq. and occupied by a Mr. Gillet. The barn was consumed, as was also an out-house, and the rear part of the dwelling, owned by John Newell, Esq. and occupied by Widow Kingsbury as a boarding-house. The damage to the buildings and furniture will amount to from $300 to $500. The facts of the case leave no doubt that the fire was the work of an incendiary. [Syracuse Star Extra.

☞ The steamboat Consul at Brownville, Pa. was robbed on Sunday night of about $200.
