THE TRIBUNE.

☞ The COURIER & ENQUIRER of Saturday last contains a paragraph, speaking of the illness of "BABE, the pirate," in which there is very great injustice done to him as well as to the character of the Keeper of the City Prison, under whose custody Babe is confined. I believe this is only a new ruse, of an old piece, which was published some time since, mentioning the same charge—(Babe keeping bad company, addicted to frolicking, playing cards, drinking, &c. in his cell, and in all which he was joined by the Keepers) and which were afterwards entirely confuted by affidavits. Knowing his habits to be entirely different from those represented (at least at this time and for the last two months.) I request you to contradict, in the broadest terms, the insinuation.—Were his inclination in unison with habits of such dissipations they could not be indulged under M. FALLON, the present Keeper. No prisoner is allowed to have a visitor enter his cell, except with a written permit from the clerk at the desk in the front office; and none at any other time except between the hours of 9 A. M. and 6 P. M.

There are five to six different individuals who would have to be privy to the transaction, to have any frolic in a prison cell; and it is not very likely five or six men would, for the amusement of one individual run the risk of being discharged from their office, for the "Rules of the Prison" are hanging up in the office, that stipulates as the penalty, a discharge of any deputy who infringes; and any person knowing Malachi Fallon will vouch that he would, without hesitation, say "go" to any who put his authority at defiance. No, Sir, poor Babe is sick, and is now a recipient of Executive clemency, and evil-disposed must be the man who will so erroneously misrepresent his conduct and habits, as to injure him in the estimation of the President, whose mercy is still craved for a full Pardon. None could wish to have him live a more exemplary, temperate life than Babe now does. His food and diet is that of the Prison, plain and coarse, yet healthy, such as the law directs. His sickness has been brought on by bathing too often in cold Croton water and leaving off his flannel, which the truth is, had worn out and he had none to put on. Beyond this is malice.

A DAILY VISITER OF THE TOMBS.

ACCIDENT AT ROME.—The carriage of Mr. Elijah Brush, containing himself, wife and four children, was precipitated 12 feet down a steep bank, to the tow path of the canal, on Sunday afternoon, as they were returning from church, owing to the horse taking fright at the rail road cars. Mrs. Brush and two of the children were seriously injured.

☞ The great supply of Gas and Salt Water at the Kanawha, Va. Salt springs has failed. Some of the proprietors have abandoned their furnaces. It is stated however that several springs still hold good, and that three millions of bushels will probably be shipped from that district this season.

☞ The Lexington, Ky. Gazette says that Col R. M. JOHNSON has tendered his fighting services to the President.

SEGARS.—A vessel arrived at Philadelphia yesterday, the Norman, from Havana, bringing, among other things 1,941,300 segars.

☞ The Wheeling Times (Whig) has received the Post-Office Printing.

PROSPECTUS.

IN the city of New-York, about the 1st of October, 1845, will be commenced then publication of a Saturday paper, entitled "THE EXAMINER," a weekly review of the World's progress in Science, Philosophy, Politics, Arts, Literature, Manners and Morals. By Thomas L. Nichols.

In size and form, the Examiner will be a medium-and-a-half quarto; in paper and typography, elegant as the finest book-work; and in matter, the most original and unique. Holding to perfect toleration in matters of opinion, it will impartially examine all creeds, theories, systems and speculations, especially those affecting the great social problems, which now agitate the world. Every discovery in science, every phenomenon in nature, every achievement in art or literature, will be carefully noticed. The manners, the morals, the aversions, and amusements of society, will receive the attention they merit. The Examiner shall be, as far as possible, liberal, candid, impartial, bold and truthful.

Mailed, for any period, at the rate of Three Dollars a year. Letters, inclosing subscriptions, should be addressed (at his cost if enclosing one dollar or more) to
