IMPROVED READINGS OF THE POETS.

KENALY.

There is a beauteous, little dame,
Take care! take care!
She has beard of GOURAUD'S name,
Ah! sir, beware!
She has tripped to Walker-st.
Of her silver-shining feet,
And the use of Gouraud's Soap
Giveth now her charms full scope;
Ah! take care!

She has little snowy hands,
Take care! take care!
Like white lillies twined in bands,
Ah! sir, beware!
Her lips like parted cherries are;
Her cheeks than roses ruddier far,
Touch them, too, like roses soft—
Kiss them if she'll let you! oh!
Ah! take care!

The success of Gouraud's Italian Medicated Soap in the removal of Erysipelas, Scrofula, Ringworm, Pustules, Blotches, Spots, Tan, Freckles, Sallowness, Sunburn, or any other like cutaneous disfigurements, is unparalleled in the history of Chemistry. In addition to its great usefulness as a clarifier and whitener of the skin, it is the most delicious Shaving Compound known—and can be used with either hard or salt water. Gouraud's Poudres Subtiles will positively extirpate every vestige or superfluous human hair; and that, too, without injuring the most delicate skin. Gouraud's Oriental Hair Dye is the best and only reliable article for coloring red, light, or grey hair a rich brown or black.

The world renowned Toilet Preparations of Dr. Felix Gouraud, can only be obtained genuine at his well known depot, 67 Walker-st, first store from Broadway.

JONES'S ORIGINAL POEMS—No. 7.

There are some tears, some bitter tears, that will not ease the heart,
Such painful tears as few can feel, and fewer still impart;
They are the essence of the heart, the sense, the mind, the soul,
And happy is the one who ne'er has had such tears to control.
There are some other kinds of tears, the tears of airs and graces,
Which ladies often who are cured with blotch'd or sunburnt faces;
They cost a great nought will cure the tan or morphew;—thus they hope,
To such we say—go try at once a cake of Jones's Soap.
And should they shed some tears, because their hair is bald or grey,
To make it grow dark, soft and fine, they've but Three Shillings to pay.

Cure the scurf, to dress the hair, and make and keep it clean,
Jones's Hair Restorative will do more good than aught else made or seen.
Man and woman, youth and child,
Try these 'fore your charms grow wild.

The effect is sublime and glorious, the Soap on the face, and the other on the hair. Jones's Soap (as all know who have used it) will cure any disease of the skin, and make it clear, healthy, lovely and beautiful, removing sunburn, tan, &c. Jones's Coral Hair Restorative (only three shillings for a trial bottle,) will force the hair to grow, stop it falling off, cure scurf or dandruff, and make light, red or grey hair grow dark and fine. It is the cheapest and best article ever made for the toilet, and for dressing the hair. Mind, ask for Jones's articles and take no other. Sold only in New-York, at the sign of the American Eagle, 82 Chatham-st, and 321 Broadway, or 139 Fulton-st, Brooklyn. s20 2teod
