Whither we are Tending.

We have always regarded the easy success of the Texas Iniquity as more baleful and perilous than any possible disaster in the attempt. Many a man has incurred and endured the penalties of burglary, highway robbery, and even murder, which he would have escaped but for the impunity with which in early life he committed some petty theft or other rascality. After the failure of our Country to rebuke and put down the spirit which has robbed Mexico of her most Easterly province and annexed it to our territory, we are not surprised to meet with such avowals as are contained in a letter from St. Louis to Bennett's Herald, dated Oct. 15th. The writer says:

"Preparations are now making in the West to invade Mexico, and the feeling is so strong that the General Government will have small influence in attempting to stop any expedition that may be got up for that purpose. Forty thousand men can be had from the valleys of the Ohio and Mississippi, independent of the floating population of the Atlantic cities, who would willingly share in the produce of the 26 Mexican mines, producing twenty millions of dollars, and the two hundred millions of gold and silver in the bosom of the Church and coffers of the Priests. The territory of New Mexico, between the Gaudaloupe Mountains and Cordilleras of Mexico, 750 by 150 miles, is one of the finest countries on earth, and will shortly, by the consent of the inhabitants, be in the hands of the Anglo-Saxon race, which is destined to cover the whole country as far South as the Isthmus of Panama. Send all your floating population, Illinois and Missouri, every man with his musket or rifle on his shoulder, and his fortune will be made in both money and land. All grades of officers will be appointed from active, brave, intelligent young men. The time is now arrived to convert that country to its proper use, by giving it to an efficient and stable government. Ho! to the West."

Ridiculous Maneuver of the Germanic Diet—(Bundestag)

It is highly amusing to see with what childish fear the petty German Rulers that have leagued together under the appellation of Bundestag or Diet, look upon the Democratic tendency of our Government and its powerful influence on the intelligent inhabitants of Germany. The United States are dreaded for their Revolutionary Press, as it is called there, but more particularly the most despotic measures are enacted against the German newspapers published in this country.

We find in late numbers of the "Staats Zeitung" and the Schnellpost, two German papers in this city, a prohibition from which we extract the following, which embodies the whole of the document:

"HESSEN-KASSEL, 25th September, 1845.

"I have been officially instructed by the General Post Department of Thurn and Taxis, that all German newspapers published in the United States of America are prohibited in all the States of the German Confederation by ordinance of the 'Bundestag' (Diet.) The reason for such violent measures against the German Press in the United States are not known to me.

I remain, &c. CHARLES GRAEBE, Consul."

As our worthy Consul at Kassel, Mr Charles Graebe, seems not to know the reasons for such Russian measures against our press, we will endeavor to set him right on the subject, as we are not afraid to tell the truth even to the 'Bundestag.'

The large number of immigrants daily landing on our shores from Germany keep constantly a lively intercourse with their friends at home; they portray the beneficial effects of Liberty in their adopted country to the oppressed in the Vaterland, thus engaging thousands of wealthy Germans to leave the knout of the petty tyrants to seek a shelter under the wings of the American Eagle.

The Governments of Germany look with suspicion on this exchange of ideas from America by which the scholastic and metaphysical notions of paid philosophers like Schelling at Berlin and others, have to give way to simple truth of freedom as it is practically exercised in this country. The modern writers and journalists of Germany have abandoned the old system of confusing the mind with transcendental phrases, turning their attention to the definition of the word Liberty, illustrating it with the growth and prosperity of these United States. The King of Prussia calls his minions around the throne, but the people are sick of them, they want better food, they crowd around those speakers and writers that preach common sense and free institutions. Every letter that goes out by our packet ships to Germany is a 'revolutionary paper'—the German newspapers are by far less dangerous to the feudal systems of the Bundestag than the thousands of sealed epistles that daily overflood the old Vaterland. As long as the 'Bundestag' will not stop emigration, as long as it will tolerate the transmission of revolutionary ideas by letters, or by personal intercourse of travelers, so long the Germanic Diet will be in danger either of losing their inhabitants; or what is more likely and probably more dreaded, the crowns from the heads of the crowned, if not the heads themselves!

The ridiculous hope to stop freedom at home by stopping the circulation of the newspapers from the United States, is the reason of such foolish anger of the 'Bundestag.' As well might they attempt to order the Niagara to stand still, as to stop the onward course of Liberty in Germany. What Luther could not accomplish, his follower Runge will finish—and soon the time will dawn, when Kings by the grace of God will only be known as a historical reminiscence, and the PEOPLE will assume its legitimate power and sovereignty, in spite of the ridiculous ordinances of the Bundestag.

☞ THE AMERICAN ANTIQUARIAN SOCIETY held its annual meeting at Worcester, Mass. on Thursday, 23d inst. Hon. John Davis in the chair. The Ægis says:

"The funds now exceed the sum of twenty eight thousand dollars. Within a period, extending a little beyond the limits of the year, upwards of eighteen hundred volumes have been added to the library. It was announced that arrangements were in progress for the publication of a new volume of Archæologia, to be made up in part of the earliest records of the Colony of Massachusetts Bay, containing matters of great interest which have never yet been printed. These begin with the formation of the Company in England, and embrace every variety of public transactions, including many that would now be deemed private, to about the year 1640. The perilous condition of these records existing only in a manuscript state, and exposed to injury and loss, has long been a subject of anxiety to antiquaries."

A lawyer at Louisville says that, by his professional exertions, he has, within the last few years procured the freedom of at least forty slaves, and that, so far as he has been enabled to observe, the condition of all of them was made worse by their being set at liberty—that they subsequently became poor, thieving, drunken and abandoned wretches. [Herald.

☞ What a horrible system must that be which renders human beings utterly unable to take care of themselves! It will cost something to abolish it, but the work should be commenced immediately.

PENNSYLVANIA.—The following are the official aggregates for Canal Commissioner at the last election:—

Karns, (Whig.) 85,961; Burns, (Locos.) 115,042; Morton, (Native.) 22,924; Latimer, (Abolition.) 2,626. Burns' majority over Karns, 29,081; Burns over all, 3,531.

THANKSGIVING.—This festival of the Pilgrims will be observed as follows:

Pennsylvania	Nov. 27th.	Massachusetts	Nov. 27th.
Kentucky	Nov. 20th.	Charleston, S. C.	Nov. 6th.
Connecticut	Nov. 27th.	New Hampshire	Nov. 27th.
Vermont	Dec. 4th.	Ohio	Nov. 20th.
Maine	Dec. 4th.	Maryland	Nov. 21st.

☞ Hon. U. F. DOUBLEDAY of Auburn, for many years publisher of the Cayuga Patriot, and formerly a Representative in Congress from Cayuga County, has issued proposals to publish a few weekly religious journal at Auburn, to be called "The Christian Visitor." It will be devoted to the interests of the Baptist denomination, and edited by a committee of four ministers of that sect. Price $1 a year.

New Publications.

☞ GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK for November is embellished with two finished engravings, 'The Indian Captive' and 'The Dancing Dolls.' Among the contributors we notice Mrs. Hale, (the Editor,) Mrs. Hentz, Miss Leslie, Fanny Forester, Dr. Bell, J. F. Otis, Prof. Waterman and Prof. Frost. For sale by Wm. Taylor, 2 Astor House; Burgess, Stringer & Co. 222 Broadway; W. H. Graham, Tribune Buildings.

☞ THE MOTHER'S MAGAZINE for November contains several very good articles, but its attempts to bolster up the practice of flogging children and its abounding sneers at 'Moral Suasion' strike us as wholly unworthy of a work which aspires to guide the Mothers of our land in their efforts to train their sons and daughters in 'the way they should go.' 'Praying and Whipping' is a phrase which sounds in our ears not much better than 'Praying and Fighting' or 'Praying and Swearing'—Published by Darius Mead, 141 Nassau-st.

☞ "MEMOIRS OF AN AMERICAN LADY, with Sketches of Manners and Scenery in America, as they existed previous to the Revolution, by Mrs. GRANT," forms No. 4. of Appleton's series of "Books for Popular Reading." No work could have received a heartier welcome, and it will add greatly to the popularity of the Literary 'Miscellany. An introductory epistle from that quaint genius Grant Thorburn affirms the authenticity of the facts, and exhibits the amiable historian in a very attractive light. Sold at 200 Broadway.

☞ "LECTURES TO YOUNG MEN on various Important Subjects, by HENRY WARD BEECHER of Indianapolis. Ia. Second Edition," is for sale by M. W. Dodd, Brick Church Chapel. These Lectures are remarkable for the vigor and earnestness of their style, and, aside from the peculiar theological notions of the author which are of course quite conspicuous, contain much sound advice to Young Men on a variety of important subjects.—Would that his counsels were heeded by those to whom they are addressed, for then would the devotees of vice spread their snares in vain.

☞ "THE CRIES OF NEW-YORK, with Fifteen Illustrations, drawn from Life by a distinguished Artist—the Poetry by FRANCES S. OSGOOD"—has just been published by John Doggett, Jr. 156 Broadway, in a neat pamphlet of 32 pages. Mrs. Osgood has done up in verse the cries of

The Rag Man,	Scissors Grinder,
Chimney Sweep,	Oyster Man,
Baker's Man,	Strawberry Girl,
The Radish Girl,	The Milkman,
Omnibus Man,	Match Boy,
Ice Cream Man,	Fisherman.

The engravings are well done for the sort, and the work will serve to amuse children. Beside the pictures and poetry, there is a 'Description of the City of New-York,' in which are briefly noticed the principal objects which will be likely to attract the attention of a stranger.

☞ "THE GREAT METROPOLIS, or Guide to New-York, for 1846," has been published thus early by John Doggett, Jr. 156 Broadway. It embodies in a small space an immense amount of valuable information which will render it almost indispensable alike to residents and strangers. We may notice it more particularly hereafter.

☞ PARLEY'S MAGAZINE and ROBERT MERRY'S MUSEUM (Vol. X. No. 4.) for October, has been issued by D. Mead, 141 Nassau-st.

☞ Prof. Wilson's "Lights and Shadows of Scottish Life," cheap edition, has been sent us by W. Taylor, 2 Astor House.

☞ A PORTRAIT OF HENRY CLAY has just been taken by Mr. Bush of Louisville, which the Journal pronounces 'incomparably the best' that has ever been taken of him.

New-Hampshire—Prices—Railroads—Politics.

Correspondence of The Tribune.

CONCORD, Oct. 28, 1845.

We are now enjoying the morning visits of Jack Frost in real earnest. People begin to look anxious about the coming Winter, and politicians about the next election. The products of the season are now in, and farmers are calculating their gains. Prices are advancing, and are greatly beyond the three or four last year. The potato crop of the East having failed, that article which usually brings from 20 to 25 cents are up to 35 and 40, butter at 20 cents a pound, and other things in proportion, make our people who have to buy shrug their shoulders.

The Railroad fever has raged in this State the last year. It has been the great hobby of the season. The Northern Railroad from this place to Lebanon, on Connecticut river, which is designed to be extended through Vermont and the Northern part of your State to the Lakes, is under contract. The Montreal and Boston Company met at this place on the 22d and chose their Board of Directors, and intend to have their road under contract immediately. The Portsmouth and Concord Railroad Company hold their meeting for the choice of officers on the fourth of November next. They also mean to have their road in operation as soon as the others. This road unites the only seaport of the State with the centre—is some 30 miles nearer this place than Boston, and will eventually be the place where the whole interior will be supplied with the heavy articles of consumption. Portsmouth has an excellent harbor, is always open, and is said to be seven hours nearer Canada than Boston, which makes the friends of the road and of Portsmouth hope they may secure the business which the British Steamers now give Boston.

The Governor having ordered a special Election for the choice of a Member of Congress the Saturday after Thanksgiving, it is thought there will be a heavy vote at the next Election. I have no doubt the vote will be very much increased, and that too, to the great chagrin and mortification of the slave-wing of the Loco-Foco party. The Election was appointed for Saturday after Thanksgiving with the idea that the young men who go to the cities to hire out during the summer months would be at home and swell the Woodbury vote. But they will count in vain, for it is the young men of the Loco-Foco party, mainly who support Hale. You may rest assured that Polk and Slavery will receive a mighty condemnation at the next trial, and I tell you why I think so. It is this:

The Texas Slave Loco-Focos made every effort within their power at the other trial, and were defeated by 521 votes. At that trial, the Whigs were never more deficient in organization, or dead in action, as their vote plainly shows. The friends of Mr. Hale were unorganized, and fought at hap-hazard, but with a good deal of energy. Now the Whigs are organizing, thoroughly, and have called Conventions in almost every county in the State. The friends of Mr. Hale also hold a Convention to organize at Dover, on Tuesday next, and they will go into the contest with renewed vigor, feeling confident that Mr. Hale will eventually be elected. Mr. Hale will again canvass the State, and appointments are now out for that purpose. The Slave Democracy are disheartened at their late defeat, when they were confident of victory, and go into the conflict unwillingly; and besides a quarrel has broken out between the old Conservative and Radical portions of it, which promises any thing but harmony and unity of action.

Here is the ground of my opinion that the Slave-wing of the Loco-Foco party in New-Hampshire who go for Texas will be defeated at the November trial by from 2,500 to 3,000 votes. I tell you New-Hampshire will never bow again at the footstool of Slavery.

The knowing ones here think Carroll, the Editor of the Patriot, will be appointed Senator for the remainder of Woodbury's term. There are a dozen expecting it as the reward of services to be rendered in the coming contest. Wilcox, who served out the remnant of Col. Pierce's term, is spoken of as among the most prominent of the expectants. PENACOOK.

☞ JESSE KERSEY, long known as a Minister of the Friend's Society, has passed from this stage of action, at an advanced age. He died on the night of the 25th instant. For many years he has been physically very infirm, and rarely has appeared in public; but in the prime of life he was one of the most powerful and eloquent speakers of the day. His fame extended to both sides of the Atlantic—and in England as elsewhere, he was followed by crowds who were charmed by the eloquence of his tongue and the simplicity of his manners. [Westchester, (Pa.) Register.

☞ A Railroad Meeting was held at Newburyport, Mass. on the 27th inst. by a number of individuals favorably disposed towards the measure of a junction between that place and Lowell. We are glad to see that this enterprising spirit is extending.

☞ The Session of the Presbyterian Church in Goshen, Orange county, have suspended several members of that Church for taking milk to the Railroad Depot on Sunday. This decision excites considerable controversy through the columns of the papers in that village.

☞ ABNER H. BROWN, M. D. of Lowell, has been recently elected to the Professorship of Chemistry, &c. in Willoughby Medical University, Ohio.

☞ The machine and blacksmith shop of C. W. Cummings, Boston, was destroyed by fire on Saturday. Loss $500—no insurance.

☞ A special election is to be held in the third Congressional District of Georgia, on the 5th of January next, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Hon. Washington Poe.

☞ There are fifty-one candidates among the Loco-Focos for the office of Governor of Illinois. So says the Independent Democrat of the 3d inst.

☞ Fifty or sixty barrels of flour were found afloat on Lake Erie lately—probably swept from the deck of some vessel in a storm.

☞ Dr. John B. McFarland, Member elect of the House of Representatives of the present General Assembly of Tennessee from Henry County, died at his residence on the 17th inst. He had been detained at home by illness, and did not take his seat at all.

REFORM STATE CONVENTION.

VOICE OF THE WHIG PARTY.

Cortland County Whig Convention.

At a Convention of Delegates from the several towns in this County, convened at the Cortland House in Cortland village on the 29th instant, for the purpose of nominating candidates to be supported at the ensuing election, Hon. JABEZ B. PHELPS, of Preble, was called to the chair, and H. P. Eels and H. W. Burlingame appointed secretaries.

On motion of Wm. Andrews, Resolved, That the Chair appoint a committee of five to report resolutions to the Convention. The chair announced the following individuals as such committee:—Wm. Andrews, of Homer; Oren Stimpson, of Cortlandville; Joseph Atwater, of Scott; Abraham Woodard, of Preble; and George Isaacs, of Marathon.

On motion, the Convention proceeded to ballot for members of Assembly; whereupon, JOHN MILLER and TIMOTHY GREEN were unanimously nominated for members of Assembly, and JABEZ B. PHELPS and HAMMOND SHORT for Coroners.

The committee appointed to draft resolutions, through Wm. Andrews, their chairman, then reported the following:

Resolved, That we again meet under the Whig banner with unchanged devotion for the principles of the Whig party, undismayed by the reverses which befel us in the last campaign, and with a firm determination to stand fast by our principles until success crowns our efforts.

Resolved, That as Whigs we hold the same principles, and abide by the same faith upon which we fought in the last Fall campaign, to wit: One term for the Presidency, a Protective Tariff, a distribution of the avails of the public lands, a strict accountability of public officers, and no Sub-Treasury.

Resolved, That in behalf of the Whigs of the county of Cortland, we do most cordially and unqualifiedly approve of the vote in the Legislature of Hon. GEORGE J. BARKER, the Whig Representative from this county in favor of a Convention to revise the Constitution of this State; convinced that many of its provisions are defective and ill adapted to the wants of the people, and truly confiding in the virtue and intelligence of the people, we have perfect confidence that the Whigs of this county will will give a united vote in favor of the call for said Convention.

Resolved, That we are opposed to a property qualification for voters, because it is unequal, unjust and anti-republican.

Resolved, That we are admonished that the time is not far distant when the great questions which are to agitate the minds of the statesman, the patriot, and which we, as the friends of liberty will soon be called on to decide, are whether liberty and slavery can longer coëxist, and whether, if we would preserve and transmit the one as a sacred legacy to posterity, we shall not find it necessary to blot out and extinguish the other.

Resolved, That we regard the annexation of Texas to the American Union, whether accomplished at the expense and dishonor of a war with Mexico, or perfected without a resort to arms, with increased and still increasing disfavor and alarm—that we see in it the daring villany of secret theft and open robbery,—that, at the sacrifice of the honor and plighted faith of our nation, has despoiled a neighboring Republic of a portion of her domain, and increased our own for the avowed purpose of extending and perpetuating Human Slavery—that it has aroused a restless spirit of conquest, and given license for the uncontrolled plunder of other territory for objects equally disastrous to Peace and Liberty, and with results equally prolific in national disgrace and infamy.

Resolved, That we have undiminished confidence in HENRY CLAY—that in defeat or victory he is the same noble champion of the country and the constitution; unswerving in principle, frank and honest in avowal, he scorns to attain place or power except through well-known measures of public policy. Though defeated, he occupied a place in the hearts of the American people immeasurably higher and more lofty than the station of him who by fraud and corruption now occupies the Executive Chair. If not in his success, yet in the elevation of another will his principles triumph.

Resolved, That the destruction of Cassius M. Clay's printing press at Lexington, in an attempt to suppress the publication of his paper, by the personal and political enemies of Mr. Clay, was the work of a lawless mob, in no respect or degree elevated above desperadoes and midnight assassins—that Mr. Clay, for the noble stand he has taken in his native State against Slavery, has deserved the gratitude of every lover of freedom, and we hereby offer him our heart-felt sympathies and thanks.

Resolved, That in defeat or victory we make no compromise with Loco-Focoism; and that we hereby pledge our Whig brethren throughout the State and Union, that the same principles and measures for which we contended in 1840, and again in 1844, are the principles which we will stand by and defend to the death.

Resolved, That the Whigs of Georgia, by their recent triumph in their State election, have deserved well of their country. If they were the first to falter and give way in the disastrous campaign of last year, they are the first to return—the first to cast off the stigma of defeat—the first to recover their wonted and high position.

Resolved, That the course of Gov. Seward during the last campaign was most honorable, and the allegation in the N. Y. Express that he played falsely towards Henry Clay, is a foul calumny upon one of the purest patriots of the age.

Resolved, That the moral worth and legislative experience of John M. Holley, the nominee for Senator in this Senatorial District, eminently qualify him to fill the important station of Senator, and we earnestly commend him to the suffrages of the people.

Resolved, That we have full confidence in the integrity, worth and capacity of the nominees for the Assembly of this Convention, and earnestly recommend them to the unanimous support of the electors of this county.

On motion,

Geo. J. J. Barber, Hammond Short, Oren Stimpson, Harry McGraw and H. S. Conger were appointed a Whig Central Committee for this county.

It was then

Resolved, That the proceedings of the Convention be published in the Cortland County Whig, Albany Evening Journal, New-York Tribune, and Western State Journal.

J. B. PHELPS, Chairman.

H. P. EELS, H. W. BURLINGAME, } Secretaries.

Yates County Whig Convention.

At a meeting of the Whig Delegates of the several towns in the county of Yates, convened pursuant to notice at the American Hotel, in the village of Penn Yan, on the 14th day of October, 1845—the Convention was called to order by the Chairman, LODOWICK DISBROW of Barrington; when on motion, J. B. Bryant of Potter was chosen an addition al Secretary, to assist A. Sawyer of Starkey, chosen at the last meeting of the Convention.

The Convention, on motion, proceeded to an informal ballot for a candidate for member of Assembly; when on counting the votes it appeared that Ezekiel Casner had received all but one cast for Samuel J. Hopkins.

Whereupon EZEKIEL CASNER of Penn Yan, was unanimously nominated as the Whig candidate for member of Assembly and DANIEL HOWARD of Italy as the Whig candidate for Coroner.

On motion of J. S. Glover, a Committee of one from each town was appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of this Convention.

The following persons were appointed such Committee:

A. B. Miller, R. L. Adams, H. N. Dox, H. A. Newcomb, Orrin G. Loomis, Truman Reed, Robert Green, H. N. Wegener; to which Committee J. S. Glover was afterwards added on motion.

The Committee, after retiring for a short time, by their Chairman, J. S. Glover, reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That this Convention has full confidence in the intelligence and patriotism of the people of this State, and therefore approve of a Convention, with unlimited powers, to Revise the Constitution.

Resolved, That as the Whigs of the Empire State, we glory in the principles of the great Whig party of the Union, and are determined to sustain them with unabated ardor and zeal, until they should be universally recognized as the only true touchstone of democracy.

Resolved, That while as Whigs we abhor Slavery as the foulest stain upon our national character, and will therefore always avail ourselves of all Constitutional means to abolish it, yet we cannot withhold our indignation and contempt of the leaders of the so-called Liberty party, who, while professing to be the only true friends of emancipation, by their efforts at the last annual election in this State, have brought TEXAS into the Union, and thereby extended the dominion of Slavery.

Resolved, That the devotion to the cause of Liberty manifested by CASSIUS M. CLAY entitles him to that estimation in the hearts of his countrymen and of mankind, which is awarded to none but the benefactors of their race; that we deeply sympathize with him in the wrongs he has suffered, and denounce the cowardly mob violence which sought by his ruin to perpetuate a system of oppression debasing in its influences, repugnant to every feeling of humanity, and subversive of our Republican Institutions.

Resolved, That we earnestly invite all our fellow citizens who have hitherto been fighting under the banners of the destructives, to unite with us in electing the Whig candidates, who, if elected, will be found asserting and maintaining the best interests of the people.

Resolved, That we cordially concur in the nomination of the Whig Senatorial Convention of this District, and pledge ourselves to give to JOHN M. HOLLEY, of Wayne, the Whig candidate for Senator, that hearty and vigorous support, to which his acknowledged patriotism and talents so justly entitle him.

Resolved, That we commend to the citizens of this County a determined effort to reflect to the Assembly Hon. EZEKIEL CASNER, our present faithful and efficient representative, who, by his untiring industry and devotion to the best interest of his constituents at the last session, justly won the approbation even of our political opponents.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this Convention be signed by the officers and published in the Yates County Whig, Albany Evening Journal and New-York Tribune.

The Convention then adjourned.

LODOWICK DISBROW, Chairman.

A. SAWYER, J. D. BRYANT, } Secretaries.

☞ The arguments of counsel in the case of Potter were commenced on Monday; Gen. Kimberly making the opening plea for the prosecution, and Mr. Chapman that for the defence.

HORRIBLE AFFAIR.—A melancholy occurrence took place on the plantation of A. Coffumbar, of this county, on Monday evening about 5 o'clock. Mr. John Lindsey, who had charge of the plantation, while standing near the gin, saw a strange negro attempting to break into one of the negro houses, and proceeded to arrest him. Stationing two negroes outside, he entered the house which the strange negro had previously entered, and not finding him below went up a ladder and opening a door leading into a small garret room, saw the negro and commanded him to remain where he was.—Instead of which he rushed upon Mr. Lindsey, who cocked his pistol, but his arm seems to have been immediately knocked up, [the shot of his pistol were found in the roof immediately over the place where he stood,] and a deadly thrust from a knife given him.

Mr. L. walked out of the house and directed the servants who came to his assistance to pursue the runaway, and then falling down, died even before his wife could reach him from the distance of a few rods. Mr. L. was one of our most respectable and worthy citizens. He has left a young wife and child.

The negroes on the plantation could with difficulty be restrained from burning the murderer on the spot. This shows in what estimation they held Mr. Lindsey. The murderer has been remanded for trial. [Wood. Repub.

MELANCHOLY AFFAIR.—We regret to learn that Mr. Alexander Somerville, of Calvert County, Md. was shot on Thursday night last, and very dangerously, if not fatally wounded. Mr. S. was sitting in his own room at the time reading a newspaper. The gun was fired through the window, and a large number of shot lodged in his face, neck and shoulder. Physicians were immediately called in and the wounds dressed; but slight hopes were entertained of his recovery on the following day.—One of Mr. Somerville's servants has been arrested on suspicion of having perpetrated the bloody act. [Baltimore Patriot.

A MYSTERIOUS DEATH.—A man, attired as a laborer, was found in a dying condition in the streets of Boston on Saturday evening, and taken to the watch-house, whence he was removed on the following morning to the House of Industry at South Boston, where he expired on Monday, without having uttered a syllable from the hour of his discovery to that in which his life was terminated. From a fracture which appeared upon his skull, it is feared foul play has been practiced towards him—though it is possible he may have fallen down in a swoon, and thus inflicted the injury.

THE POTATO ROT IN NEW-JERSEY.—We learn by the Burlington Gazette that Nathan Stowell, of that place, has been directing his attention for four years past to the subject of rot in the potato, in hopes of discovering the cause of a disease which begins to threaten very serious consequences. Mr. Stowell thinks the rot is owing to the sound seed having all run out, and that too little new seed has been produced. He has himself produced a fine crop of new potatoes from the tubers of the Foxite variety, and out of nearly fifty bushels, not a single potato is diseased. The vines are free from blight. A patch of Mercers, close by, were grievously afflicted with the rot. Of his Foxite seedling Mr. Stowell will have a few bushels to sell for seed. [Trenton Gazette.

☞ John A. Inness, who was arrested on Saturday last and committed to jail on suspicion of having decoyed off a slave, was yesterday discharged, there being no evidence to warrant his farther detention. The negro man who was with him is still held in custody; he states that he is free. [Balt. Amer.

☞ Hydropathic Institution.—George T. Dexter, M. D. has established an Hydropathic Institution for the treatment of disease upon the cold water system, at the central and pleasant village of Morristown, N. J. The efficacy of cold water in the prevention and cure of disease is now generally admitted and in many parts of Europe and our own country it has suspended the use of drugs and medicines. In both acute and chronic diseases, such as fevers, rheumatism, gout, paralysis, scrofula, spinal diseases, (including curvatures and distortions,) dyspepsia, and a host of ills which man is heir to, the action of cold water is rapid and permanent. At once searing upon the cause of disease, it reduces greatly the amount of human misery and suffering and produces a radical cure of disease, when other means and treatments have failed. In the graphic language of Bulwer, "under the cold water treatment nature leaves the body in a new instructive tendency, which is always towards recovery. A new series of re-action commences and the constitution is not only amended, it undergoes a change." Dr. Dexter has recently returned from Europe and has made his extensive arrangements of baths &c. after the plan of Priessnitz himself. It will be the aim of the proprietor while he offers to invalids the means of relief from disease, to give them also the comforts and convenieces of a home. Morristown is delightfully situated, surrounded on all sides with the aids and appliances which will give effect in carrying out the cold water treatment. The Morris and Essex Railroad terminates a short distance from the Institution and carriages are ready at all times to convey patients to and from the establishment. o15tf
