Dry Goods.

DRY GOODS,
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL, at No. 215 Greenwich-st. (two doors below Barclay, New-York.) Only One Price. The subscriber wishes to inform the citizens of New-York and vicinity, (for their own interest as well as his) and especially Families who are visiting the city, and who always purchase more or less Dry Goods when they do come, that he now has on hand a very large and complete assortment of Seasonable DRY GOODS, of almost every variety and description. He is well aware that nearly every body is prejudiced against advertising, and that it is almost impossible for any one correctly to make up their minds where to call for the purpose of purchasing, judging from advertisements alone; but all the subscriber asks is that they would take the trouble to call and examine his stock before purchasing, believing that by so doing they will promote their own interest.

If Ladies, Country Merchants, and all who visit the city and purchase Goods for Cash would only first make a memorandum of the name and number and be sure to call and examine for themselves, the subscriber flatters himself that they would then be convinced of the truth of what he asserts. He would state that he allows no deception whatever to be practiced in his establishment, such as warranting goods for fast colors, all wool, &c., as they do in may stores when such is not the case. Goods freely shown, whether a customer wishes to purchase at the time or not, and every information given respecting them, and invariably warranted equal to recommendation.

Some of the most prominent articles which the subscriber is daily receiving and offering at prices unusually low, may be found enumerated as follows:

FIRE-PROOF Salamander Safes.—It is a well-known fact that no Safe previous to the great fire of December, 1835, had been invented capable of resisting the heat usually produced in the burning of a single storehouse—but since which, however, the great and valuable discovery of the Salamander Safe was made, and has been patented by Wilder, and the right to manufacture and sell in this State, purchased by the subscriber.

The recent triumphant results in the burning of the Tribune Buildings, and in the great conflagration of July, 1845, in this city, and others equally satisfactory, has induced others to make and offer for sale an article called Improved Salamander Safes, in violation of the patent law, and for which suits have been commenced against the manufactors and agents, and should they fail to respond to the injury done to the Patentee, suits will be extended to the purchasers and those having them in use, they being equally liable. (See Phillips on Patents.) A word to the wise is sufficient.

S. C. HERRING, 189 Water-st.

N. B.—Gaylon's Delano's, Scott's, and other second-hand Chests for sale at one-third of the original cost.

A few Salamander Safes, made in imitation of the genuine, can be seen and compared with the real article, and will be sold low. o17 1mdkW
