Smart Costumes

THE costume on the left is in gray tweed. The skirt is quite plain with wide panel effect front and back.

The coat is semi-fitting, fastening invisibly by hooks and eyes quite up to the throat.

The deep collar and cuffs are faced with satin, with a border of striped black and white silk on the cross. Buttons and braid tabs form trimming.

Hat of clipped beaver with large bow at the side.

Materials required for costume: 5½ yards 48 inches wide, 5 yards lining satin for coat, 8 buttons, with tabs, ½ yard satin 22 inches wide, ⅝ yard silk 22 inches wide on the cross.

The other design shown is in navy blue serge. The skirt has a wide panel front extending at lower part, where it is trimmed with buttons; the wide sides meet in a seam up center back.

The same lines are carried out on the coat, in which the double-breasted front is fastened by two buttons. The revers should be faced with tan cloth, and the wide collar treated with black satin.

Hat of navy blue Tagel, trimmed with a large gray feather mount tipped with black.

Materials required: 5½ yards 46 inches wide, 4½ yards satin for lining coat, ¾ yard tan cloth, ½ yard black satin, 2 dozen small buttons, 2 larger size.

WOMANLY WISDOM

Add a little boiling water to an omelet to keep it from being tough.

If you grease the inner rim of a kettle its contents will never boil over.

Carry a lead pencil in your pocket, and date the eggs as you gather them each day.

The range will keep black much longer if you rub the stove over with soap then apply the blacking. Save all small pieces of soap for this purpose.

Keep your spices in glass bottles with screw tops—such as peanut butter jars. A glance will tell you the contents, even if marked covers did get mixed.

To keep fish, never put one on top of another. Wring a clean cloth out of cold salt water, wrap the fish separately in this, put them on a dish and keep on ice.

If you feel all run down and despondent, if you are not sleeping well, if you feel as if life were a real burden and that you must consult a doctor, just think it over. Perhaps all you need is to raise your bedroom window at night.

It is a pity that so much extra work accompanies the beautiful spring days. We could enjoy them better if we had more time, and if the spring sewing, house-cleaning, gardening, setting hens and hatching chickens, were not all needing attention at once.

Rhubarb may be canned in cold water. Pse freshly cut stalks, fit them tightly into a thoroughly clean jar and let the water run full force into the jar for fifteen minutes till all air is excluded, screw on the top while the juice does perfectly as to signs.

BORROWED NEIGHBOR'S PAPER

A man who was too mean to subscribe for a paper used his father-in-law to borrow the copy taken by his neighbor. In his spare time the borrower made a $1.00 stand of bees and on the morning mailed him a witty sarcastic epistle. His father-in-law in his neighbor's paper failed to notice a barbed wire fence and into that, cutting a beautiful flesh from his shoulders and ruining a $1 pair of pants. The old man took advantage of the gift to the bees and got into the cornfield and killed a sleep eating green corn. Hearing [illegible] the wife and had spent a [illegible] gallon churn of ice cream and a [illegible] of specimens, dancing on [illegible] hatch. In her anger she dropped a soft set of false teeth. The lady [illegible] beer left alone, [illegible] spilled milk and [illegible] the parlor, ruining a brand new $20 carpet. During the excitement the oldest [illegible] away with the [illegible] broke its sleeve, cutting [illegible] calves got out and chewed the "[illegible]" off a [illegible] dress. So he [illegible] to the time to [illegible].
