THE FAIRY ELOPEMENT.

I DREAMED a fairy bride was mine,
With flower-like eyes and radiant hair:
Her wings were made of pale moonshine,
And soft as sighs of lovers are.
Her brow was like a clear white stone
Disclosed by dimpled brooklet's smile,
And through it thoughts of beauty shone
Like lamps regaled on perfumed oil.

Oh well I loved my fairy bride,
For she was tender, bright and true,
And to my heart each night did glide—
A wondrous flower gem rich with dew.
Oh, worshiped i this fairy girl
As flowers the stars, as stars the sun—
But Sleep—oh spiteful, envious churl!
Eloped—and lo! my bride was gone!

G. G. FOSTER.

THRASHING.—A few weeks since there was thrashed at the barn of Levi Williams, in the town of Ithaca, 716 bushels of merchantable wheat in eleven and a half hours. The machine was a self-cleaner manufactured by John P. Tonison of Covert and owned by Alexander Bower, 2d, and John Gibb of Ulysses. This is perhaps a greater quantity than has been thrashed by any other machine in this State, and is now standing as a direct challenge to all other machines who will beat it and return the complimentary challenge. [Ithaca Chronicle

NEW INVENTION.—A Mr. Gray of Middletown, Ct. has invented a machine for making wrought nails, which can be worked by one-horse power, and will turn out one hundred pounds per day. They are said to be as smooth as cut nails, and better than those made by the hammer. Mr. G. has applied for letters patent.

YALE COLLEGE MEDICAL INSTITUTION.—The annual examination of candidates for Medical Degrees and Licenses commenced in this Institution on the 21st inst.

FERRE'S SHAVING CREAM.—The undersigned having used Ferre's Shaving Cream, we do not hesitate to recommend it to the public as the best Shaving Cream either domestic or imported now in use. Rev. Wm. Jarvis Rev. A. Granger, Rev. Sam'l M. Emery, Rev. W. G. Howard, Rev. John R. Crane, Rev. F. J. Goodwin, Chas. Woodward, M. D., Wm. S. Casey, M. D., J. Barrat, M. D., D. Harrison, M. D. Middletown, Ct.

The above superior article is for sale in New York, at the manufacturer's prices, by J. W. Holborton, 75 Maiden-lane; Hoasley, Philps, & Co. 142 Water-st; F. Tomes & Son, 8 Maiden-lane; J. & J. F. Tripp, 90 and 92 Maiden-lane. At retail by Druggists and Perfumers generally.

d8 3m E. C. FERRE, Proprietor, Middletown, Ct.

OVERSHOES.—The subscribers have on hand a large assortment of every variety of Ladies' and Gents' India Rubber Over-Shoes in use, which they warrant the best in the market, and to retain their color under all circumstances. We are satisfied with a small profit and will sell our shoes at a reasonable price—as our conscience is not quite so elastic as some manufacturers who charge an exorbitant price for an inferior article.

j23 HUTCHINSON & RUNYON, 55 Maiden-lane.

GOODYEAR'S PATENT Door-Springs.—The only genuine article is to found at 140 Broadway, stamped "Goodyear's Patent, 1844." The public are cautioned against any spurious article, as none other is genuine unless stamped as above. GEO. BEECHER, 140 Broadway.
