THE TRIBUNE.

For The Tribune.

THE DEAD WITH US.

The Good, the Loved, are with us, though they die;
We think of them as angels in the sky,
But the deep firmament divides us not; [est spot.
They 're with us in the densest crowd, and in the loneli-

With voice, and eye, and with the thrilling smile,
They answer not, as they were wont, erewhile;
But when deep yearnings all our spirits move,
Their spirits softly whisper us, responsively, "We love!"
