THE TRIBUNE.

LATE FROM YUCATAN.—The Yucatan schooner Ventura, Capt. Prass, arrived yesterday from Campeachy: we have papers by her to the 8th inst.

El Amigo del Pueblo of the 5th publishes the Governor's Message at the opening of Congress. We see it stated that the Assembly would not admit the Mexican Commissioner, as they were determined to remain entirely separated from that Republic.

The Editors of El Amigo del Pueblo suggest that the Peninsula of Yucatan will, before long, adopt important measures, that will determine the course it must follow hereafter, and how it is to be governed; which, at all events, it believes must be much better than during the time it was under the Mexican Government.

Gov. Barbachano's address to the Assembly was generally approved: it breathes a liberal and a patriotic spirit.

From private letters, dated 13th inst. we learn that Congress was still in session at Merida, and would adjourn about the 1st of June, previous to which they would no doubt confirm the declaration, made some time since, of the intention of the State of Yucatan to separate from the Government of Mexico.

A revolution broke out in the Department of Tobasco about the 1st inst. headed by a man named Bruno. The result was to: known at Campeachy when the Ventura sailed.

The news of the blockade of the mouth of the Rio Grande had been received at Campeachy, but they had not heard of the actual commencement of hostilities. The Yucatecoes are said to be opposed to rendering any aid to Mexico, in case of a war with the United States. Great respect is paid to American citizens and their property. Several vessels that recently arrived from the United States, without having furnished themselves with triple invoices of their cargoes, which the laws of Yucatan require, were not seized—the proper authorities immediately gave them permission to discharge their cargoes. [N. O. Delta, 21st.

SANTA-FEand NEW MEXICO.—The John Golong, which arrived here yesterday, brought down two traders, Shaw and Pope, from the trading post on the Little Missouri. They left Fort George about five weeks ago—they bring no news of consequence. The streams above are very low. In the mountains but little snow had fallen during the winter. They met a large number of emigrants for Oregon and California on their route. Several boats were preparing to leave the fort with a large lot of furs. [St. Louis Amer. 18th.

FOR SANTA FE.—The steamer Denizen, on her recent trip from Pittsburgh to this place, brought on board a number of wagons and a large quantity of goods, destined for Santa Fe. We should not be surprised if they reached their destination under a strong escort. Armijo's new carriage, which we learn is en route for Santa Fe, may carry into New Mexico an American Governor.

Private letters from Santa Fe, under date of 19th April, state Governor Armijo has again been appointed to the supreme military command of the province, and that Gen. Garcia Conde, who had been hourly expected, has declined visiting the province this year. [St. Louis Reveille, 19th.

MORE TROOPS FOR MEXICO.—The steamer Mary Kingsland left yesterday for the Brazos Santa Iago, with fire Companies belonging to the 4th Regiment. The ship Ondiaka was to leave last evening with two Companies of Col. Dakin's Regiment and two Companies belonging to Col. Davis's Regiment. This embarkation will leave three Companies of Col. Davis's Regiment still here, to go forward on the next transport. Col. Dakin and Staff were also to leave in the Ondiaka. [N. O. Bee, May 20.

UNFORTUNATE OCCURRENCE.—The Ottawa Free Press says that Timothy Thompson, of Troy Grove, Ia. came to his death in the following manner, on the 5th inst.

"Deceased had been deranged for some weeks, and had imagined an attack was about to be made on his family. During the night, imagining the enemy had come, he arose, and not finding his axe and razor, with which he had previously armed himself, he procured a flat iron and with it dealt his wife and child each a blow as to render them senseless. By this time, a brother awoke and grappled with him. During the struggle, the brother also received a blow on the side of the head, which stunned him. Finally the man was subdued, but before help came he sank on the floor and died. He received no violence during the struggle, except what was the result of his almost superhuman exertions to overcome his brother who was greatly his superior in strength. His wife and child recovered."

SAD AFFAIR.—On Wednesday, the 28th instant, Coroner Taylor, of this village, held an inquest on the body of James E. Macay, of this town. On Sunday the 17th inst. the deceased and Jeremiah Dollaway, who is his cousin, had a dispute. In the course of it the latter struck the former on the head with the butt of a whip, breaking his skull, and otherwise injuring him, so that he died on the morning of Wednesday following. He was 23 years of age. The young men had been drinking, and were intoxicated when the fracas took place. They drank again just before it began. The Jury returned a verdict that the deceased "came to his death by blows inflicted by Dolloway with the but of a whip." The latter has been bound over for appearance at Court in the sum of $1000. [Poughkeepsie Tel. Thursday.

FIRE.—On Sunday evening a fire broke out in the rear of Mr. Dorwin's residence, in St. Ann-st. Griffintown, and before it could be extinguished, destroyed the following property: Three houses, the property of Mr. Dorwin, with all his furniture, wearing apparel, &c. Insured at the Montreal Office for £975; three houses belonging to Mr. Rodden, and on which no insurance had been effected; one house belonging to Miss Smith, uninsured; the entire stock of timber in Hall's wood yard—valued at £6000—and on which, an insurance for only £1800 had been effected at the Montreal Office. [Montreal Herald, Monday.

☞ We understand that Maj. Gen. J. F. Townsend tendered the services of his division of cavalry, before it was known that the requisition was limited to infantry. [Alb. Argus, 28th.
