The Modern Seven Wonders

Daytona's Incomparable Ocean Beach.

One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellucid Halifax River.

Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy veranda's looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon her waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican pouch a fat mullet, and that fish hawk struggling upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid an liquid ready for a cruise upon her beautiful surface Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.

Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies, and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live-oaks extend their giant arms across this magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with elfish draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.

No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottage. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering "What next?"

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.

Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give to Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the little finishing touches which have brought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage, the entire city becomes a great park

And as for pavements, pavements that look and act like granite,—where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? Till some unheard-of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruits.

Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or eve callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "squirrels and flowers, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.

For every visitor with a spare "goober" there is a bunny ready to come out and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and gnaw into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.

Flowers! Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round. In one yard roses of variagated hues predominate, another has a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane.

The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.

As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes.

The Fastest Autos And The Finest Out.

Here is where world's records for speed are broken with every recurring season. Autos the biggest, the fastest and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousand flowing wells. It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene. You will probably catch the spirit and when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down in your wallet only for coin for the auto and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

Advice to Smokers.

Here are a number of don'ts for smokers, some of which no doubt will surprise a good many men: Don't smoke directly after a meal. There is the most irresistible craving to smoke, but it is wiser to wait a half hour or an hour. Don't smoke out of doors in a high wind or in cold, frosty weather. In the former case it is dangerous, and in the latter it cracks the lips and prevents proper breathing. Don't smoke with the cigar or pipe held at the corner of the mouth. This excites the secretion of more saliva than when the cigar or pipe is held straight in front. And, above all, don't get in the bad habit of expectorating frequently when smoking. It is quite unnecessary and merely a habit and harmful.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

The Prince George.

The following are yesterday's arrivals at The Prince George: A. J. Kilpatrink, E. A. Sturzenegger, New York; M. F. W. Greason and wife, Metuchen, N. J.; Mr. and Mr. Henry L. Lyon, Buffalo.

H. J. Kilpatrick driver of the "Red Devil," is a guest at The Prince George. Last year in the Jamacia speed trials he made a great record, driving over a rough road a mile in 38 2-5 seconds, two miles in 1.19 1-5 He won the Herald placque, a silver cup, and the Jefferson DeMont Thompson cup at Stroudsburg Pa. He won the Pocono gold cup in 48 2 5 seconds, a mile straightaway Last summer he won the Canadensia hill climb, ¾ mile in 23 1-5. He started in the last Vanderbilt cup race but in the fourth lap withdrew in good position because of a broken clutch. The "Red Devil" has been rebuilt for the Daytona races, and the owner, Mr. Kilpatrick, believes her capable of even greater speed.

"Senator" W. J. Morgan has made his reservations at The Prince George.

He Obeyed.

Murat Halstead, the great journalist of war times, went to General William T. Sherman's headquarters once for the "latest news from the front." Halstead was armed with many fine introductory letters, but decided to rely mainly on one given him by Thomas Ewing, Sherman's brother-in-law. He found the general and presented Ewing's letter. The general opened it somewhat impatiently, read a few lines, folded it and said:

"Ah, you come from Ewing, and you desire to have 'all the latest news,' the 'next probable move' of our army, eh? Well, there's a train leaving this town for Cincinnati at 2 o'clock. Here, take this ticket and step over there and get your dinner and then get on that train."

"Well, but, General Sherman"— began the newspaper man. But Sherman waved him off.

"Go over and get a good dinner. We have plenty and always strive to treat our friends well. But be sure you don't miss that 2 o'clock train!" And Halstead obeyed.

Japanese Delicacies.

Under the head of "Japanese Delicacies" the Berlin Prometheus gives a list of some of the queer things which are served to citizens of the Flowery Kingdom who "have a refined taste." In the provinces which are so distant from the sea that fresh fish cannot be obtained readily, and where meat is not abundant, snakes and lizards are considered good food and are prepared in many ways. Grasshoppers rank among the real delicacies. They are always kept in captivity without food for a day, then bathed and decapitated and made legless. Heads and legs must be torn off, never cut. They are served in various ways, but dry, with a salad dressing, is the most popular. An insect of the bee family which lives in the earth is also much sought. This is served with sugar or honey when eaten raw, but it is also made into a porridge. The chrysanthemum exists not only in the poetry and art of the Japanese, but has an important place on the table, where it is met as salad, candy and stew.

Why, Indeed?

Mrs. Meeker—Wake up, John! I hear a noise downstairs. I'm sure there are burglars in the house. Meeker—Nonsense, my dear! Why should burglars want to make a noise?
