Dave McConnell is Premier Sugar Beet Grower.

The Grand Island sugar factory gives Dave McConnell, who lives west of Hershey, the credit of being the premier sugar beet grower, and accords to him the honor of having the largest average yield of beets so far reported to the factory. Mr. McConnell raised 29.1 tons of beets to the acre for a three acre field, an income of $436.60 from the three acres. Mr. McConnell entered five or six sugar beets in the American Land & Irrigation Company exposition at Madison Square Garden, New York, where they are now on view. It hardly seems possible for any grower to get such a large yield of sugar beets but in order to secure admission to the exposition, the yield must be weighed and certified to by a notary public and Mr. McConnell has the legal papers to prove his case. One of his beets weighed 27 pounds and is now on exhibition at the bank of Lincoln county, at Hershey.

Death of Mrs. P. H. McEvoy.

Mrs. Patrick H. McEvoy died at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at her home on west Sixth street.

Death followed an illness of six weeks, during which time she was confined to her bed and suffered intense pain. Two weeks ago her malady was pronounced incurable by the attending physician and the end was hourly expected. Death was due to yellow jaundice and eczema.

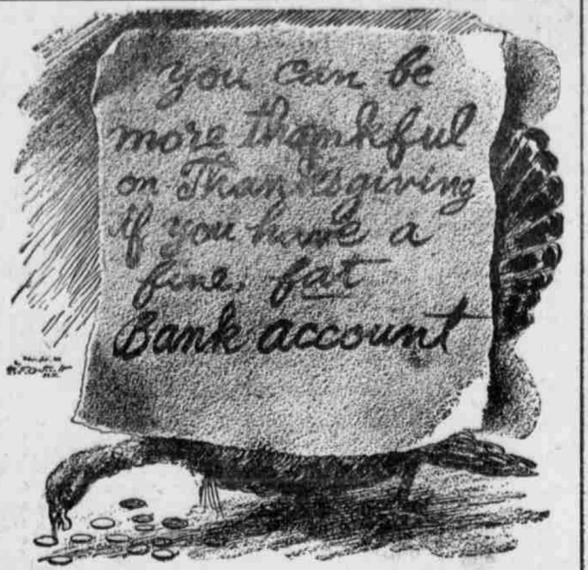

Mrs. McEvoy was one of the pioneer women of North Platte coming here in the early days, sharing the discomforts and dangers of the times with unflinching spirit and doing her part toward the betterment of conditions.

On August 23, 1877 Laura Nixon was married to P. H. McEvoy at Fort McPherson. To this union thirteen children were born, nine of which are living. They are Mrs. Charles Crosby, Misses Laura and Nellie McEvoy, Messrs. James, Frank, Charlie, Harry, Fred and Arthur and an adopted daughter Eleanor. Other surviving relatives are her sisters Mrs. Mary Colby, of Trinidad, Colo., Mrs. Kate Courtroll, of Industry, and a brother William Clark of Illinois.

Mrs. McEvoy died at the age of fifty-two. She was a devoted mother, an affectionate wife and was known by her charitable acts.

The funeral will be held tomorrow morning from the Catholic church.
