NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.

SANTA FE.—Yesterday morning Lieut. John O. Simpson, of Capt. Weightman's company of artillery, which has been on detached service pertaining to the Commissary's department, left this city for Fort Leavenworth, and expects to proceed by the first opportunity join his company in Santa Fé. He has before him a long, cold and dangerous trip.

The steamer Talisman returned yesterday from Liberty, and from those who came up on her we learn that the gorge of ice at Big Eddy is very heavy, and from five to six miles in length. The ice is piled up from five to ten feet above the surface of the river, with only a very narrow gut or slough running through it, through which the water of the river flows. There were only 14 feet water at Turkey Island. [St. Louis Rep. Feb. 1.

COL. HARNEY'S ARREST.—A correspondent of the Picayune says Col. Herney's arrest was in consequence of his refusal to comply with the orders of Gen. Scott. Gen. Scott ordered him back toward Monterey with two companies of his command, leaving the remainder under the command of one of the Colonel's officers, and the consequence was a positive refusal on the part of Col. Herney. By an order from Headquarters, a general Court Martial would assemble at or near the mouth of the Rio Grande, on the 30th ult. for the trial. The refusal was based upon the ground that Gen. Scott had no right to take from him the command he was entitled to by his rank, and give it to an officer several grades below him.

THE TEMPERANCE BILL.—The bill reported to the Legislature for the promotion of Temperance, contains three provisions: Town meetings shall be held on the first Tuesday of June, to determine whether any licenses shall be granted in the township to sell intoxicating drinks. If a majority vote for "no license," none shall be granted in the township until such determination shall have been reversed by vote. Whenever, after a decision made at town meeting, either to grant licenses or not, one-fourth as many voters as voted at said town meeting shall request it in writing of any two Justices, they shall order another election on the first Tuesday of June next, of which election the applicants shall give notice by advertising in the usual way. No license hereafter granted shall authorize the sale of liquor on the Sabbath; and any inn keeper selling liquor on that day shall be subject to a fine of $20 and a forfeiture of his license, if prosecuted within six months. [Trent. Gaz.

SHIPWRECK.—By a slip from the Herald office, at St. Augustine, dated on the 24 inst. we learn that the brig Amos Birdsall, of Waretown, (N. J.) Capt. W. C. Rogers, from Philadelphia for Brazos Santiago, laden with stores for the army, went ashore about four miles south of Mosquito Inlet, on Thursday last. Crew saved. A portion of the cargo and sails and rigging may be saved. [Savannah Repub.

FIRE IN NEW-HAVEN.—A fire broke out on Friday morning in Brewster's building, which, before it was discovered, burnt through into the store occupied by H. Clapp as a dry goods establishment, none of the goods from which were removed until after the fire was extinguished. All the goods in the other stores in the building were saved. Loss on the building from $8 to $10,000. Insured.

INDIANA JUDGE SUPREME COURT.—Thomas L. Smith of New Albany was nominated by Gov. Whitcomb as a Judge of the Supreme Court of Indiana, and rejected in the Senate by a decided vote. Since the adjournment of the Legislature, the Governor has appointed Mr. Smith to serve during the recess! The Whig papers say Gov. Whitcomb promised, during the last canvass, to nominate Dewey, and another man, not Smith, whose name we do not recollect. [Cin. Gaz.

☞ The Massachusetts Volunteers embarked for Mexico on Wednesday. The Atlas states that some difficulty was apprehended from the refusal of Company B to embark and it was supposed that forcible measures would be necessary in order to enforce obedience. A detachment from other companies marched to their quarters, No. 11 Pitt-street, with muskets loaded with ball cartridges, to compel the malcontents to go on board the transports, but upon this show of force, they obeyed orders without farther resistance.

RELIEF FOR IRELAND.—The bark Edward Koppisch, is announced to sail for Ireland on Monday or Tuesday next, and John Tyler, Esq states in his advertisement that trunks or bundles of clothing, for the suffering poor of that country, will be taken freight free. We doubt not that many of our liberal citizens will avail themselves of this opportunity. [Boston Transcript.

CHIVALRY IN PETTICOATS.—The following is given as the letter of a lady of Kentucky, whose husband was engaged to fight a duel, but was taken sick before the time of fighting occurred. The opposite party made some remarks that seemed to imply that the sickness was a feint. She at once addressed a note to the second of the adverse side, couched in these words:

"Sir:—My husband is sick. If he is unable to be on the ground to-morrow, I will take his place.

Yours respectfully, MARGARET L——."
