NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.

From Central America.

The Diario de la Marina, of Havana, of the 9th inst states that advices had been received in that city from the ancient Capital of Central America, up to the 7th of January, contradicting the report that war had been declared against Mexico by the Republic of Guatemala.

It will be recollected by our readers that the Indicador, of Vera Cruz, about the end of December last, announced that hostilities were about breaking out between the two countries. This is entirely incorrect.

The Gazette, of Guatemala, dated 18th November, contains a manifesto, issued by the President, Gen. Don Rafael Carrera, in which, after commenting on the disorders which had taken place at San Salvador, he states that the Republic of Guatemala was respected from without her confines, while obedience to the law marked the conduct of her citizens within. That the most rigid economy should be practiced in the expenses of the Government, and that everything possible should be done toward ameliorating her position.—Merchants, tradesmen, agriculturists, &c. &c. are exhorted to pursue their peaceful occupations, while the administration would watch over the safety of all.

SAN SALVADOR.—The difficulties at San Salvador, arising from the expulsion of the Bishop Don J. J. Viteroy, in July last, and the proscribed Malespin, who is now a refugee in Honduras, have been accommodated. Letters had been received from the Pope pacifying the differences which had originated from an ecclesiastical quarrel, in consequence of which the exiled Bishop returned, and the interdict was removed from the civil functionaries. This adjustment seems to give general satisfaction, and judging from effects on all concerned, seems to have been earnest and sincere.

A packet line has been established between Amberes and the Colony of Santo Tomas, by order of the Belgian Government. The merchants of Guatemala are exhorted by the President to concur with the Belgian Consul, to facilitate communications between these points.

NICARAGUA.—The Government still remains at Managua. Senor Sandoval's time as Dictator soon expires. There had been various explanations, undertaken by the French Government, on the Isthmus of Panama, with a view to connect the two oceans. There seems to be some hope of its being effected within a few years.

From the Azores.

The bark E. Churchill, Capt. Wm. McGilvery, arrived on Saturday from St. Michael's, bringing Capt. D. B. Swan and part of the crew of the bark Uranis, taken off the wreck five days after her departure from New-York for Glasgow, by Capt. Aaron Cushman, of the ship Congaree, of and from New-Bedford, by whom they were treated with great kindness, and Dec. 19, landed at the island. Nothing was seen of the bark a few hours after leaving New-York.

Capt. G. left at St. Michael's the brig Wiguart, of and from Bangor, Capt. Pratt, who arrived in a leaky condition, having lost the deck-load. Upward of 40,000 large boxes of oranges had been shipped, and more were to go. Vessels were arriving daily from England.

On the 25th of October the inhabitants had declared in favor of the popular party against the Queen. They have hopes of final success, as the people are goaded to desperation.

The Harbor Master (Mr. Salter) and a Major were sent in an armed schooner with dispatches to Terceira—but they were threatened and returned. Again the schooner was sent to Fayal; after a mutual salute, and learning the nature of the mission the fort fired on her, on which Mr. Salter fired some fourteen shot; those from the fort doing him no injury, but the wind blowing ashore he was forced to bear away. He says that there were several vessels that had put in for a harbor.

The people are in general in favor of the Oporto free party, but the officers having no patriotism, only look to their own promotion.

There has been some bad weather, occasioned by strong westerly winds. [Courier.

PEACE WITH MEXICO.—The Sun professes to have received private advices from the City of Mexico to the effect that the Mexican Government are manifesting a disposition to change their policy of war for one of peace. The general belief and hope in that country was that a speedy and honorable adjustment of difficulties would be effected with but very little delay. The Church authorities who, at the beginning of the war, were our worst enemies, would now give half their property for a speedy peace. But they are powerless. They attempted a revolution last month and signally failed. Many of the priests have publicly declared in favor of peace. One was arrested in the plaza of the capital for haranguing the people and enlightening them as to the condition of the Church in the United States. It appears by the account in the papers that he pronounced the Mexican Government worse than that of the North Americans.

The latter, he said, protected the Church, while the former confiscated its property. He was arrested and imprisoned, with forty of his followers. We look for a dissolution of the Union of Church and State at an early day. This will be a bold movement in Mexico, but sagacious minds in that country view it as a most important step in the regeneration of the Republic. Hitherto no other religion has been tolerated but that of the Established Church.

The authorities are busy in carrying the recent law for selling the church property into execution. The Republicano contains four columns of the articles for its management. The amount to be raised is fifteen millions of dollars.

The Mexican papers contain violent denunciations of their countrymen for permitting a handfull of Missourians to capture El Paso, the key to Chihuahua.

From El Republicano.

THE FOREIGN LEGION.—We had the pleasure on Sunday last of seeing a company of American deserters, principally Irish, reviewed by his Excellency the General in Chief. They are perfectly armed and equipped, and are on the point of departure for Tula. The company have made a peculiar standard for themselves, on one side of which is seen the national coat of arms, with the motto "Long live the Republic of Mexico." On the other side is a figure of St. Patrick, their patron. These brave men, (!) who have abandoned one of the most unjust of causes for the purpose of defending the territory of their adopted country, will find in the Mexicans a frank and loyal heart, open and hospitable; and, beside, a just and ample recompense for their merited services.

LOSS OF A FRENCH GOVERNMENT STEAMER.—We learn from Capt. Guird, of the French brig Irma and Thomas, arrived at this port yesterday from Senegal, that the French Government steamer Charade, was wrecked off that port on the day he left, and from twenty-five to thirty of the crew were lost. [Char. Cour. 25.

CAPT. WALKER.—This gallant officer, with his company of Mounted Riflemen, numbering 110 men, left the city yesterday by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, en route for the seat of war. [Balt. Pat. Saturday.

☞ Mr. James Whitsitt, of St. Francis Co. Ark. was recently murdered by Hugh C. Casteel. The two lived in the same cabin, and a quarrel having arose between them, Casteel stabbed the other to the heart and fled.
