Russian Victory.

General Ivan Pavlovitch sat in his room and studied the map. Then he rang the bell at his elbow. In came Sergius Jelioffski, his aide-de-camp.

"What are your orders, excellency?"

"Sergius Julioffski, glance over this map. Do you see this hill?"

"I do, excellency."

"That hill must be captured. Attend to the matter and let me know when it is done."

"I will, excellency."

Twenty minutes passed and there was a knock at the door. Sergius strode in, clicked his heels together, and saluted.

"Well, what is it, Sergius, my son?"

"I have the honor to announce, excellency, that the hill has been captured."

"Already captured! Fine, my son, fine! Who captures it?"

"The Germans, excellency."

A Spinster's Warning.

She may have had experience in matrimony from what she said, but to all outward appearances she was a spinster. She had been sitting in the courtroom of a justice of the peace while he was preparing to marry a couple in his private office. There was too much laughing in the office to suit the spinster, and she let everybody know it.

Finally she had stood the laughing of the bride-to-be long enough, she thought, and she squeaked the following in a high-pitched voice:

"Marriage is not to be laughed at. It is a serious thing like going to church."—Indianapolis News.

Childhood in Boston.

A New Yorker who recently returned from a visit to Boston vouches for the truth of the following, says the Youth's Companion: One afternoon he found the six-year-old son of his host settled in front of the drawing-room fire with a sheet of paper before him and a pencil clasped in his chubby fist. Stealing a look over the boy's shoulder he saw that the little fellow was making pictures.

"Well, Bobby," he asked genially, "are you drawing an engine?"

Slowly the child looked up, and slowly he spoke:

"I found a place las. ... re
I could rest in perfect quietude."

"Did you enjoy it?"

"No. I spent half my time on the cars getting to a place where they had moving pictures and a band."

Feminine of Chief.

They were discussing the North American Indian the other day in a rural school, when the teacher asked if anyone could tell him what the leaders were called.

"Chief," answered a bright little girl at the head of the class.

"Correct!" answered the teacher. "Now, can any of you tell me what the women are called?"

There was silence for a minute or two, then a small boy was seen waving his hand aloft, eager to reply.

"Well, Tommy?" asked the teacher.

"Miscief," he announced proudly.

No, Indeed!

"I'm afraid Jones is living beyond his income."

"No, he isn't, but his creditors will be if they figure on getting what he owes them."

Disguising It.

"Some soot blew over this steak."

"That's easily fixed. Give it a sprinkle with the pepper pot."

Paxtine

A Soluble Antiseptic Powder to be dissolved in water as needed

For Douches

In the local treatment of woman's ills, such as leucorrhoea and inflammation, hot douches of Paxtine are very efficacious. No woman who has ever used medicated douches will fail to appreciate the clean and healthy condition Paxtine produces and the prompt relief from soreness and discomfort which follows its use. This is because Paxtine possesses superior cleansing, disinfecting and healing properties.

For ten years the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. has recommended Paxtine in their private correspondence with women, which proves its superiority. Women who have been relieved say it is "worth its weight in gold." At druggists. 50c. large box or by mail. Sample free. The Paxton Toilet Co., Boston, Mass.
