Correspondence of The Tribune.

ALBANY, Thursday, May 6, 1847.

Governor Young has signed the Immigrant Passengers Bill. It is a Law.

On reference to the HOUSE Journal, I find that Mr. BECKWITH of Herkimer reported yesterday, from the Committee on Agriculture, unfavorable to the Experimental School and Farm in connection with the American Institute, and that the House adopted the Report.

Mr. T. SMITH, from a Select Committee of 9, recommended that it was proper to report complete, a bill reported on by the Judiciary Committee, per Mr. DEVELIN, but not printed, "authorizing Courts of Equity to order the sale of rights of Preëmption to Real Estate or Chattels Real, in certain cases."

Mr BASCOM was desirous to send once more to the Committee of the Whole the Senate bill to amend the act providing more effectually for Common School Education in New-York—but it was ordered to a third reading.

The Astronomical Observatory bill was sent back to the Committee of the Whole, 60 to 29.

The Excise-Law Repeal—Another Long Debate.

Much time yesterday was occupied in farther debates on the LICENSE question; Mr. T. SMITH having moved, and the House agreed to, a reconsideration of its recent vote refusing to order the two bills relative to LICENSES to be reported complete.

The Judiciary Bill—to Organize the Courts.

This most important bill has passed the Senate, but in what shape I am unable to say, having been absent at New-York. When received in the House, it was referred to the Judiciary Committee, who reported it this forenoon, by Mr BURNELL, with some amendments, and recommended that it BE PASSED INTO A LAW. I asked the Clerk for the bill but it had gone to the printer, and will be printed to-morrow. I have scarce an expectation left that it will be materially improved. The old system, in many respects made worse, will be saddled on the country, by the hearty consent of a Legislature, very nearly equally divided as to numbers between the two great parties—we will have a LITIGIOUS Constitution in full practice—I see no escape from it—a veto is not even to be hoped for, nor is it likely that it would avail much. The Evening Post, in its remarks, would lead one to believe that the office of Master in Chancery had been abolished. No abuse is abolished, except in name. Some gentlemen talk as if the new Court of Appeals could do no business if all the eight members were not present!!!

The only remedy, and it is a partial one, would be to get the right kind of men placed on the Bench as Judges.

The Senate bill relative to "Executions against Property," has been ordered to a third reading, on motion of Mr BURNELL.

The various bills sent down by the Senate relative to Canal Improvements, have been reported by Mr. CORNWELL, from the Committee on Canals, and the amendments are of such moment that some begin to dread a failure this session. The Senate changed materially the character of the House bills, and there are again important changes proposed. Let there be a spirit of conciliation exhibited by men of all parties, and let no effort be spared to improve and complete a bill in aid of that great State interest, THE STATE CANALS.

Mr GOULD has reported complete, the bill to RELEASE the prior lien of the State on the Hudson and Berkshire Railroad, and to authorize its stockholders to relay it with a heavy T rail. Ordered to a third reading.

Last Tuesday, the Senate sent down a bill authorizing the City of New-York to close and discontinue Sixty-fourth st. between Fifth and Sixth avenues.

Manufacturing Corporations Bill—Passed.

The House refused to take measures for inserting into this bill the following section moved by Mr. BASCOM:

§ — The Legislature may DISSOLVE any Corporation formed under this Act, and appoint, or provide for the appointment of, Trustees to close the concerns thereof.

Mr. SMALL failed to graft the TEN HOURS labor principle on the bill, which was then passed and sent to the Senate. Ayes 89, Nays 11—one hundred members being in their places.

The NAYS were Messrs. Allaben, Alling, Balcom, Beckwith, Benedict, Flanders, Fullerton, Garrison, Hammond, Miller, Perkins.

The Senate's bill relative to Manufacturing Corporations now in being, with the amendments proposed in Assembly, is lodged.

It seems that in the County of Niagara, the Supervisors have failed to effect a division into Assembly Districts, and the Governor has recommended a special enactment (now in progress) to enable them to meet again and complete that important duty.

The Senate have sent down a bill to authorize Railroad Companies to alter the line or direction of their several Roads, and to lay down on their Roads heavy iron rails; and the House Committee on Railroads have this forenoon recommended that it be sent to a third reading, as also the House bill on Railroad Corporations.

The Free Academy, or New-York Superior Free School.

The bill to give the City of New-York a College, or Superior School for Education, FREE TO ALL, has been limited as to expenditure, but MAY fall on a third reading in the House, for lack of a Constitutional majority. The friends of the present expensive Colleges dislike it, and are trying to crush it.

It has its defects, but the main idea is of the right sort—the giving a superior free Education to the humblest classes, if the People adopt the bill at the ballot boxes. The details of the system should have been more fully stated in the bill.

The SPEAKER [4 P. M.] is on the floor, stating his objections—he will vote against it. Mr. WRIGHT thinks it a very meritorious measure. Mr. DEVELIN [half-past four] has begun a discourse in its favor. The result is rather doubtful. [I send you the printed bill, in order that you may judge of the merits of the measure under discussion.]

Mr. BLOSS has introduced a bill, (and why so late?) providing that no judge or justice shall hereafter take cognizance of cases of slaves, arising out of the Act of Congress, February, 1793—or so as to cause a fellow-creature to be put in irons in New York State, dragged back to some slaveholding contemner of the "free and equal" parts of the Declaration of Independence, and scourged for endeavoring to obtain his own just liberty.

The bill forbids all officers not holding a commission from the Government of the United States, to arrest or detain alleged fugitive slaves, under a penalty—and it is quite right that Mr. Polk's people should have all the odium, as they have all the advantage, of propping Slavery, to themselves.

Again, we repeat it, Why hold back this measure till within a few days of the adjournment?

Herewith receive copies of the bill for the formation of Companies or Banks for Savings, (without special legislation;) a bill to give $3,000 bounty to Madison University; (where is it located?); an official statement of the names, birth-places, occupations, and condition in life of the Members of the Assembly.

The Report of the JOINT COMMITTEE on Judicial Districts is inclosed—they agree. Columbia, Sullivan, Ulster, Greene, Albany, Schoharie and Rensselaer to be the 3d District; Warren, Saratoga, Washington, Essex, Franklin, St. Lawrence, Clinton, Hamilton, Montgomery, Schenectady and Fulton, the 4th; and Onondaga, Oneida, Oswego, Herkimer, Jefferson and Lewis, the 5th. In Senate, 16 to 5 were ready to adopt the report a day or two ago. To-day, the vote stood, 20 Ayes to 7 Noes, who are Messrs. Beach, Emmons, Gridley, Hall, Hard, Ruggles, Van Schoonhoven. The Whigs do not seem to like the division.

Dr. BEEKMAN, has introduced resolutions into the Senate approving Mr. Whitney's scheme for a Railroad to Oregon and California, and of alienating from the control of Congress, and placing under the control of speculating persons, a tract of land 60 miles wide and 2400 miles long. I should like to see the road made; but, not until the country shall become unfit and unworthy to finish such a work through its own government, shall I desire to see it turned over to private adventure, on terms like these.

Rev. Dr. Samuel Luckey, a venerable minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church, residing at Rochester, was nominated, at a Whig caucus, a Regent of the University, and this day appointed to that honorable office by a Joint vote of the Legislature—75 to 63; the minority being favorable to Isaiah Townsend, Esq who had 60 votes.

The Senate has placed extensive free appropriations of money to aid of Colleges at which the charge to the public are rather high. Will the bill pass to allow the City of New York to give a first rate education to poor men's children at the cost of the whole people?

The bill to put down Peter Funks and their employers is ordered, in the Senate, to a third reading.

The attempt in Canada to establish a government founded on what they call there the responsible system—and there wouldn't be much responsibility in it if they had it—has signally failed. Lord Elgin has filled up important vacancies with well known conservatives, and will meet Her Majesty's Colonial Parliament on the 26 of June next, almost immediately after their majesties the People's Legislature here will have adjourned.

Law Courts....Deferred.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS—Before Judge Ingraham.—Henry D. Ketchum vs. John Williams.—The parties were partners in the Eagle Bazaar, a horse dépôt, corner Chrystie and Delancy sts. After dissolution there was a dispute as to which, under the agreement, was entitled to a pair of horses that were at pasture on Long Island, sent there by Mr. Williams. Mr. Ketchum replevined, and the present suit is to test the question. Verdict for defendant, valuing the property at $150.—For plaintiff Mr. Russell and Mr. J. Graham. For defendant Mr. R. Scott and Mr. N. B. Blunt.

WANTED.—An opportunity to build a bridge on the Independent System, over some deep, rapid river, where it would be difficult for builders to build a wooden bridge on any other plan. A span from 300 to 1000 feet would be preferred—but small favors gratefully received and faithfully attended to. Success or no pay.
