NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.

Mr. Webster.

It seems that this distinguished individual carries out his original plan of his journey and will visit New-Orleans previous to his return. The Picayune contains the following anticipatory movements:

PREPARATIONS FOR RECEIVING MR. WEBSTER.—A meeting of the bar of this city was yesterday held at the Supreme Court room, for the purpose of making suitable arrangements for the reception of Mr. Webster.

Mr. P. Soule was called to preside, and Messrs A. Hennen and B. Peyton were Vice Presidents; Mr. John Winthrop acted as Secretary.

The President, on taking the Chair, made a few remarks in his own felicitous manner on the subject for which the meeting was convened. After which a Committee of six were named by the Chair to report Resolutions. They reported, after a short absence, by their Chairman, Mr. R. N. Ogden, the following Resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved. That the Bar of New Orleans look forward with great pleasure to the expected visit of Hon. Daniel Webster, and desire to testify by suitable courtesies and attentions their admiration of his talents, wisdom and eloquence, and their appreciation of the brilliant career which has made him the pride and ornament of the legal profession.

Resolved. That a Committee of ten persons be appointed by the chair, clothed with full powers to make all suitable arrangements for carrying into effect the wishes of the Bar in regard to their distinguished visitor.

In obedience to the second resolution the Chair appointed the following committee:

John R. Grymes,	A. Hennen.	W. A. Elmore,
F. Grima,	N. R. Ogden,	Robt. Preaux,
H. R. Deals,	G. B. Duncan,	A. K. Josephs,
	W. W. King.

On motion, the President, Vice-Presidents and Secretary were added to this committee, after which the meeting adjourned.

Many of our citizens will, without doubt, unite with the legal profession in testifying their high opinion of this distinguished stranger during his first visit to our city.

LATER FROM THE BRAZOS.—The schooner Florinda, Capt. Gammon, and schooner North-Carolina, Capt. Farwell, arrived last evening from the Brazos, whence they sailed on the 1st inst. We are indebted to both of these attentive officers for late Matamoros papers. We received no letters by either of these arrivals and the verbal intelligence is devoid of interest. Everything was quiet at the Brazos. Col. Davenport, U. S. Infantry, had arrived at Matamoros and taken the command of that post as Military Governor. Capt Merchant, 2d U. S. Artillery, was in command of Fort Brown. Major Abbott, of the Massachusetts Regiment, was in garrison with nine companies.

The Flag reports all the boats up the river aground. Capt. Webster, of the Massachusetts Regiment, had been ill for some time, but was convalescent and expected soon to resume duty. The Flag reports the schooners Mary and Emma and Virginia as having been stranded at the mouth of the river on the 24th ult. [N. O. Pic.

EMIGRATION.—Scarcely a boat arrives from the Ohio river without landing at our wharf a large number of families who are emigrating to the fertile regions of Iowa and Wisconsin. Not unfrequently do we see fifty or more families on a single boat. Last evening the steamer Lynx departed for Galena, literally crowded with emigrants, their wagons, furniture, farming utensils, &c. &c. They are, we learn, principally from the enterprising States of New-York and Pennsylvania; and, judging from appearances, we are impressed with the belief that they will prove industrious settlers. [St. Louis Era.

MURDER AT PITTSBURGH.—The body of a man was found in the Canal at Pittsburgh on the 13th inst. so mutilated as to leave no doubt that he had been brutally murdered. Verdict accordingly. He is supposed to have been a resident of New-Castle, and was at Pittsburgh selling horses and perhaps buying goods.

DOINGS IN TEXAS.—The Sheriff of Montgomery County, Texas, died on the 11th ult. from the wounds inflicted by Goodman; and the latter was taken into the woods early the next morning and hung.

☞ The Pennsylvanian says that the Administration, having carried all its measures, "can henceforth repose upon a bed of roses." We have seen many a pig, that had broken into a flower-garden, doing the same thing. [Louisville Journal.

☞ Oldham, the gambler, arrested at Chicago on suspicion of having murdered McCollum, has been discharged.

PRACTICAL BOOK-KEEPING,

MR. C. C. MARSH, Accountant, author of the "Science of Double Entry Book-keeping Simplified," and the "Art of Single Entry Book-keeping Improved," continues to teach as above.

Course Instruction.—The public is respectfully informed and assured, that the plan pursued by Mr. Marsh in teaching this important branch, is truly a course of practice in keeping books, rather than a course of lectures on the theory.

The pupil becomes familiar, from actual use, with all the books constituting a set, and a person of good capacity will by this course become a competent book-keeper in about one month, and will receive a certificate to that effect.
