NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.

"FIFTEEN HUNDRED HOUSES."—The Boston Atlas says that fifteen hundred houses will be built in the new town of Lawrence the present season. Just think of building ten houses every day in a town only one year old! Did Boston ever do as much as this? At only ten persons to a house, these 1500 houses would accommodate 15,000 people! We pray our friends to think of this matter a moment. We are not going ahead as they represent. It would ruin us if we were. Our growth is rapid, but far more secure and healthy than this article would indicate. We shall be satisfied with from 8,000 to 10,000 inhabitants in Lawrence at the close of the present year. [Lawrence Cour.

ANECDOTE.—A few weeks since, a merchant boughtsome very light English print cloths, as he thought, exceedingly cheap, and sent them to a calico printery to have them printed. Not hearing in proper time from his goods, he wrote to the manufacturer to inquire after them, and incidentally remarked that if he did not soon hear from them, he should charge them to the manufacturer as missing goods. In a few days thereafter he got a line from the printery, saying that the charge to missing goods might as well be made, as the last he saw of them was when he put them into his dash wheel, where they washed to pieces and evaporated in the fog. [Bost. Atlas.

A SHAKER CASE.—Yesterday was decided in our Common Pleas the well known Shaker case. It was a suit brought for wages for 15 years service, by a leceder from the brotherhood, a lady who had joined them when a child. The case was ably argued by D. Farish and B. B. Taylor, Esqs. for the plaintiff, and Messrs. Wood and Starkweather for defendants. The jury concluded inasmuch as the plaintiff voluntarily joined the society, knowing its rules and regulations, (which are that all proceeds of labor by any of the fraternity go into a common fund, not to be withdrawn,) and had as voluntarily left, she was not entitled to damages. [Cleveland Plaindealer, 20th.

KILLED BY BAD DENTISTRY.—A short time since we noticed the death of Mr. N. P. Ames, the celebrated manufacturer of cutlery at Springfield, Mass. His death is attributed to poison, imbibed by swallowing, in the night, the material with which an European dentist filled one of his teeth a couple of years since, and which had not been properly secured. He had not seen a well day since. [True Sun.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Friday last, Mr. John Bull went to the woods, about a mile distant, to procure brush, to repair a dam. On his way home, the wagon turned over and caught him under the load, causing his death. Mr. Bull was a single man, about 26 years of age. He was formerly from the State of New-Jersey, where it is said he has a mother and three sisters residing. Papers will please copy. [Broome Repub.

SHOCKING OCCURRENCE.—The body of a man was found in the woods, on the Dedham Turnpike, in Roxbury, yesterday afternoon. He had been shot through the head, evidently with a pistol, which he held firmly clenched in his hand. In his pocket was found a razor, but nothing by which he could be identified. He was evidently about 40 years of age [Boston Jour.

A POCKET-BOOK STOLEN, EMPTIED AND RETURNED.—Yesterday morning, at the Worcester depot, Mr. Edward Earl, of Worcester, was made practically acquainted with the skill of our professional pickpockets. In less than five minutes his pocket-book, containing $1,000 in bank bills, and a check on the Suffolk Bank for $1,900, was taken from his pocket, emptied of its contents, and restored. [Bost. Post.

AN OLD ONE.—In an affiliation case brought before the Court of Ohio County (Ia.) last week, the young mother of the little stranger, being put upon her oath, mother of the little stranger, being put upon her oath, declared, in open court, that Silas Dexter, of said county, being then one hundred and ten years of age, was the real, bona fide father of the child she then held in her arms; whereupon the said Silas was called into court, and being interrogated, readily admitted that he was not altogether guiltless.

HANGING JUDAS.—The Irish lately were not a little amused by the ceremony of "hanging Judas," performed by Portuguese sailors, who happened to be in the harbor at Cork, on the anniversary of this event.—An effigy was suspended from the yard-arm, hanged, shot, drowned, kicked, guillotined, scourged and bastinadoed!

FEMALE LEGISLATORS.—Two ladies are members of the Prussian Diet, and have a right to take their seats and vote among the nobles. They are the Princess Sagan Talleyrand, formerly Duchess of Dino, and the Countess Kielmansegge; these ladies have only availed themselves of their rights by proxies.

EXEMPLARY DAMAGES.—In the case of Henrietta Bishop vs. James Smart, heard before his Honor Judge Reid, yesterday, in the Mason County Court, the jury rendered a verdict of $3,000 in favor of plaintiff. The jury returned a verdict of $3,000 in favor of plaintiff. The widow, sued the defendant for debauching her daughter. [Maysville (Ky.) Eagle, May 8.

☞ Among the "arrivals" from the East on Saturday were Hon. Albert Smith, M. C. from the Genesee District, New-York, and Mr. William E. Cramer, late Assistant Editor of the Albany Argus. Mr. Cramer, it is understood, comes here to resume his Editorial labors. Mr. Smith too, we may hope, will be induced to transfer his professional abilities and experience from the New-York Bar, of which he has been an able member, to that of Wisconsin. [Milwaukee Gaz. 17th.

☞ James Brown, slave, alleged fugitive from justice in Maryland, has escaped; his counsel having taken advantage of the claimant's omission to have a new warrant of detention issued, the Governor having revoked the first proceedings, by issuing a second writ of replevin to the keeper of the prison having no legal warrant for his detention, released him. The prisoner is probably on his way to Canada before this. [Herald.

☞ Mr. Thomas Sully, of Philadelphia, is now in Washington, engaged in painting the portraits of the President of the United States and of the Secretary of the Navy, at the request and at the expense of the two societies at Chapel Hill, North Carolina, of which they are alumni.

☞ The South end of the City Temperance Hotel, on Sycamore-st. Cincinnati, fell down on Tuesday night, the 18th, with a tremendous crash, breaking away the side walls and flooring for eight or ten feet inwards from the roof to the ground.

At New-Orleans the money market is somewhat tighter. The Banks have thrown out a good deal of paper, and are discounting very sparingly for the moment This, however, is said to be merely temporary, and proceeds mainly from the large amount of Government funds thrown suddenly on the market for the purpose of obtaining specie. The business in Texas Securities has been quite limited. Treasury Notes, 14@14½; Interest Notes, 16; Eight Per Cent Bonds, 22; Ten Per Cent Bonds, 24c on the dollar. Foreign Exchanges have been very dull, and drawers find great difficulty in negotiating. Sterling, 104½@105¼, though some favorite signatures have brought 5½; France, 5.40; New-York 60 days, 1½ per cent discount, Checks ¼@¾ per cent discount.
