LOLA MONTES, A COUNTESS.—A letter from Munich of the 23th, in the German Journal of Frankfort, announces that Lola Montes has been created a Countess by the King of Bavaria. She takes the title of Countess Landsfeld, which is that of a noble family now extinct. It was reported at Munich that a large annual income is also secured to her.

☞ We have heard the name of Hon. FRANCIS GRANGER suggested as a candidate for Controller. If he could be induced to accept the nomination it would add great strength to the Whig Ticket.

☞ Fashionable Hats.—JOHN N. GENIN, 214 Broadway, justly celebrated among fashionable gentlemen as the true connaisseur in finishing hats, invites those who have not already the fall style to call and get it. His Silk Hats are the most superb ever offered the public.

ADVICE TO HAT-WEARERS.—Never buy a hat unless the brim suits your form and countenance, for on that depend its beauty and elegance. An experienced fitter is always in attendance at Genin's, who will not sell a hat unless it suits the form and size of the purchaser. This is the reason of the popularity and preference manifested for his hats. 'Tis this that has caused them to be enrolled as the [illegible] of hats. s24 1wis
