On Sunday evening, in this City, by Rev. Mr. Perry, Mr TRACY P WATES of Beverly, to Miss ELLEN F. WALLINGFORD of Salem, Mass.

DIED:

On Thursday morning, Sept. 30, FREDERICK, youngest child of Jonathan Leavitt of this City, aged 2 years and 6 months.

The friends of the family are invited to attend his funeral this (Friday) afternoon at 4 o'clock, at the residence of his parents 87 Rivington-st.

At Waterloo, C. W. on the 11th inst Rev. Samuel Young, of New-York, aged 41, leaving a widow and eight children. The deceased had caught the prevailing epidemic in Montreal, or on his route, but was still able to reach the Queen's Bush, where he preached to the colored people, for whose interests he was a zealous advocate. He had assisted an innocent slave from Maryland to escape to Canada, but having reason to believe that he would be demanded as a fugitive from justice for a capital crime, he went to Montreal and gave such information to Government as defeated the ends of the slaveholder, whose emissaries he met there, and to whom he boldly avowed the part he had taken in rescuing the slave. At the desire of his friend and attendant during sickness, Rev. Hiram Wilson, his body was interred in Wellesley among his colored brethren. [Galt(C.W.)Rep.

☞ Ninth Ward.—At a numerous meeting of the Whigs of the Ninth Ward, held at the Northern Exchange on the evening of the 27th instant, pursuant to a call of the General Committee, W. R. BEEBE was called to the Chair and JOHN KEYSER and WALTER K. PENNY were appointed Secretaries. The meeting thereupon proceeded to ballot for delegates to the Senatorial District Convention and the following gentlemen were elected:

Senatorial.

SAMUEL FROST, JOHN R. OAKLEY,
HOMER TILTON, S. F. LIPPITT,
WELCOME R. BEEBE, JAMES R. BALL,
ENOCH MORGAN, CHARLES CRANE.

Assembly.

THOS. LOVELL, SAML. A. CUNNINGHAM,
CHS. R. SUTHERLAND, JAMES W. BOOTH,
ABRAHAM CUMMINGS, G. G. RICH,
WILLIAM H. MOESS, R. SEDGWICK,
JOHN W. MEAD, O. H. SIMS.

A retiring Committee, through their Chairman, P. W. Enos, Esq. reported the following preamble and resolutions:

Whereas, we believe the time to have arrived when the People on their primary assemblies, should freely express their preferences in relation to the next Presidential candidate, we, therefore, as Whigs of the Ninth Ward of the City of New-York, do

Resolve, That sad experience of the imbecility and mad policy of James K. Polk, necessarily induces a contrast with what our country would have been had the great Statesman of the West been at the head of its affairs, and while no reasonable man can doubt that wise and firm train of evils, are the consequence of failing to elect HENRY CLAY President of the United States in 1844, neither can any doubt, that in him is the personification of Whig principles, and that he is the man to whom the popular voice points as the next Chief Magistrate of our Union.

Resolved, therefore, That we are unwilling to wait for the movements of a Convention, and do now present to the People and to that Convention when convened, HENRY CLAY as our candidate for the next election of President of the United States.

Resolved, That we hold the station of President of the United States to be so preeminent in dignity, that it is neither to be sought after or declined by one who has the qualifications for it.

On motion, it was Resolved, That the several Committees, be empowered to fill vacancies.

The meeting then adjourned.

☞ Tenth Ward.—At a large and enthusiastic meeting of the Whigs of the Tenth Ward, held at Columbian Hall, on Wednesday evening last, on motion, DARIUS FERRY was called to the chair, and RICHARD SCOTT and JAMES H. HOBBY were appointed Secretaries.

The call of the Ward and General Committees having been read, a motion was made that the meeting ballot for Delegates to the Senatorial and Assembly Conventions; and after balloting the following were declared respectively elected to such Conventions:

Senatorial.

DARIUS FERRY, GEORGE G. TAYLOR,
ELI DANKS, JOHN VANDEWATER,
JOHN T. DODGE, JOHN T. BARNARD.

Assembly.

CHARLES RIDDLE, THADDAUS DAVIS,
DAVID MILLER, SAMUEL INGERSOLL,
JOHN W. LINSTAD, ELIJAH SECOR,
ELIAS HAVILAND, THOMAS DRING,
WM. SWARTZ, BENJ. W. BRADFORD.

On motion, a Committee was appointed to draft and submit resolutions to the meeting.

The Committee after retiring, returned and reported the following:

Resolved, That the sad experience of the last two years fully justifies and sanctifies the gallant resistance made by the Whigs of this city, State and nation to that unwise, unrighteous and calamitous measure, the Annexation of Texas, the fruits of which are now exhibited in an empty Treasury, a deficient revenue, a large and increasing debt, and a needless and unfortunate foreign war.

Resolved, That we proudly avow ourselves Whigs of '40 and '44—Whigs now and ever—the compatriots of Clay, Webster, Clayton, Corwin, Seward and Fillmore—the advocates of Home Industry, a Sound and Uniform Currency, alike for the Government and the People—of Public Improvement and Progress in all things—and the inflexible opponents of national aggrandizement at the expense of our neighbors, and of all War that is not imperatively necessary and palpably defensive.

Resolved, That the policy of internal improvement, of which CLAY and WEBSTER in the National, and CLINTON and SEWARD in our State Councils, have been such ardent and able champions, is one of the mightiest elements of National Prosperity and Prosperity; and we rejoice at recognizing in our present Whig Governor, JOHN YOUNG, a zealous and effective advocate of the policy so lucidly vindicated in the celebrated Report of our esteemed fellow-citizen, SAMUEL B. RUGGLES, whose estimates, after years of detraction and obloquy, having been fully justified by the actual results, have won for him the character of one of the most enlightened and capable statesmen of the age.

Resolved, That our confidence in the gifted and venerable Statesman of Kentucky remains without abatement, but increases by the lapse of time, and we most cordially approve of the action of the Committee of Whig Young Men of this City, in again presenting his honored and much-loved name to the American people for Chief Magistrate; and it is gratifying to learn that the just and merited sentiments of this Committee have been heartily and warmly responded to throughout the country.

The last clause of the last resolution, as to the Presidency, received some opposition, it was debated at length; but finally the whole resolution, together with the others, was carried unanimously, as was also the following, submitted by Mr. A. F. Dodge:

Resolved, That while we sorrowfully mourn over the "mustering dead," by whose blood the recent glorious victories of the American army in Mexico were hallowed and achieved, we regard, with feelings of gratitude to the Great Ruler of all things, the many gallant spirits, now spared to us, whose enduring patriotism and noble valor are, perhaps, yet destined to add new laurels to the unfading wreath that encircles the brow of "Young America."

And the same were directed to be published in The Tribune. DARIUS FERRY, Chairman.

RICHARD SCOTT, } Secretaries.
JAMES H. HOBBY, }

N. B.—The Delegates, immediately after the meeting, assembled, and unanimously elected ROBERT T. HAWS to represent the District in the State Convention as Syracuse. o!

☞ Twelfth Ward.—Pursuant to a call made by the Whig General Committee, a meeting was held Tuesday evening, September 27, 1847, at the house of Mrs. McGuire, cor. of Third-avenue and One Hundred and Ninth-st. Upon motion, GEO. F. CLARKE, Esq. was appointed Chairman, and GEO. W. JENKINS, Secretary.

The call of the meeting (as per Tribune) having been read and accepted, the following gentlemen were elected as Delegates to represent this Ward in Senatorial and District Conventions, and the proceedings ordered to be published in The Tribune:

Delegates to Senatorial Convention.

WILLIAM A. DOOLEY, GEO. W. JENKINS,
M. HOPPER MOTT, WARREN BRADY,

WEST POINT MATHEMATICS
and
CLASSICAL STUDIES.

EDWARD C. MARSHALL, M. A.

LATE INSTRUCTOR in Prof. Kinsley's Military School at West Point, and Senior Tutor in Geneva College, will instruct PRIVATE CLASSES of young gentlemen in the West Point Mathematical course, in the Latin and Greek languages, and in the usual studies preparatory to entering College.

The mathematical Text-books and analytic methods adopted at West Point are chiefly derived from the French, and are eminently distinguished above all others for closeness of investigation and rigid accuracy.

Instruction in Surveying, accompanied with practical exercises in the field with the theodolite, compass and level, will be imparted to those desiring it.

The terms will be made known on application to Mr. Marshall, at his residence, 196 Broadway.

The following testimonials are submitted to the public:

NEW-YORK, Sept. 30, 1847.

The undersigned feels entire confidence in stating that Mr. Marshall is a thorough scholar in the various branches which he proposes to teach, and having on several occasions witnessed, with much pleasure, the examination of his classes, can further add that he has a happy faculty of imparting knowledge. CHARLES DAVIES, LL.D.
Late Prof. of Math's in Mil. Acad. West Point.

WEST POINT, September 28, 1847.

I take great pleasure in expressing the high opinion which
