NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.

CITY ITEMS.

SATURDAY, October 23.

☞ The Universalist Society formerly under charge of Rev. T. L. Harris, has purchased the South Dutch Church, corner of Murray and Church sts. the former possessors of which intend to move above Union-square. The Church measures 50 by 75 feet, and was bought for $17,500.

FIRES.—A fire broke out about half past 11 o'clock last night in the workship of Bird's hat store, corner of Nassau and Pine sts. which destroyed property to the amount of $500.... A fire also broke out about half past 9 o'clock last night in the book bindery, fifth story of the Sun Building, corner of Nassau and Fulton sts. which was put out with trifling damage.

COURT OF SESSIONS—Friday.—The following gentlemen, forming the jury in the case of Madame Restell, were called and sworn, and the case was adjourned until Monday next:

Richard Venables, Russel Benedict, Robert Young, F. S. Cortelyou, John B. Anderson, John Hadden, Stephen H. Skidmore, Robert P. Higgs, Thomas Edmonds, Martin Benedict, Job Chandler and Isaac Binns.

The Court adjourned until this morning.

POLICE.—Two men named James and William McWilliams were arrested yesterday by Captain Johnson and officers Roley and Lawrence of the Eighteenth Ward, on suspicion of stealing 14 sovereigns, 8 half eagles, two pledge-tickets for a gold watch and a black cloth coat, which are supposed to be stolen. Detained for examination.... A fellow named Edward Didon called at the store of Frederick Zable, 138 Greenwich st. on the 13th instant and ordered a suit of clothes, for which he was to pay $17. On the 18th he called again and asked that they be sent home, which was refused unless they were paid for. He then said he would like to try them on, which being allowed, he walked off without paying for them. He was committed to prison.... Patrick Brordy was arrested last night by officer Alphonse of the Seventeenth Ward, charged with attempting to pass a counterfeit bank bill to Mr. Slomar, 192 Second st. In his possession were found $26 in counterfeit money, on various banks. He was detained.... Thomas Burey, was arrested last night by officers MacDonald and Reddin of the Fourth Ward, charged with stealing stealing 10 sovereigns from Andrew McFarley.... John F. Brown was arrested yesterday by officer Olmstead of the Third Ward, charged with stealing $25 from E. Dodd. He was detained.

ROW AT FANEUIL HALL.—A disgraceful disturbance occurred last night in the Old Cradle. A Temperance Lecture by Mr. Gough was announced two or three days ago, and the "rummies" immediately laid their heads together and concocted a plan to break up the meeting.

Last evening they assembled in all their strength, and as soon the lecturer ascended the platform, the row commenced. Mr. Gough, Deacon Grant, and several other gentlemen, were knocked off the platform, and for above five minutes a scene of the greatest confusion and disorder prevailed. Shouts, hisses, groans and cheers echoed through the Hall. A strong police force, headed by our worthy and efficient City Marshal, Mr. Tukey, arrived at this time, who quelled the riotous proceedings of the excited grog-sellers and blue-ruin drinkers, and took the ringleaders into custody. Order being restored, Mr. Gough proceeded with his discourse. Another meeting will be held at the same place as soon as the necessary arrangements can be made.

WATERVILLE MURDER.—Among the papers of Dr. Coolidge was found a bill from Joseph Burnett, apothecary, Tremont st. Boston, for a quantity of Hydroctanic acid. An account of this discovery was sent to Marshal Tukey by the Attorney General of Maine, requesting him to obtain the original order for the same.—After some trouble it was found among the sweepings of Mr. B's shop.

Dr. Coolidge was arraigned on Monday last before the Supreme Court, Judge Tenney presiding, which is now in session. He pleaded not guilty to the indictment. His counsel are Hon. George Evans of Gardiner, and Edwin Noyes, Esq of Waterville.

A WOMAN KILLED BY HER HUSBAND.—A dreadful affair, arising out of intemperance in drink, occurred on Saturday evening. Thomas Cawley, employed as a brewer at the Farm-yard Tavern, Bradford-road, lived with his wife Eliza and four children, at a small house in Swallow's court. Considering his business, he has been of moderate habits; but his wife was greatly addicted to drinking, and her frequent state of intoxication occasioned great privation and misery in the family. This led to personal chastisement from her husband, and bitter taunts and reviling from the wife.—On Saturday he went home to his tea, and found that there was none ready, either for him or the children; and while in the house, she came in, much the worse for liquor. A bitter altercation ensued, and Cawley, being prevented from striking his wife by a neighbor who interfered at the time, kicked her, under the impulse of passion, with such force as to cause her death in about an hour afterward. Immediately on seeing the result of his violence, Cawley exhibited the utmost contrition, went for medical assistance, and then gave himself up to the police. At the Coroner's inquest a verdict of manslaughter was returned, and he stands committed for trial.

FROM ST. JOHN.—We have St. John papers to Oct. 20 by the Admiral. The crops in New-Brunswick have turned out very defective. Potatoes, Oats and Wheat would not yield half as well as last year. The season is a disastrous one for farmers, and large importations would be needed to make up deficiencies.—The St. John News says, in relation to the Commissioner's report on the Patridge Island Emigrants, "it acquaints us with an amount of suffering among the sick emigrants, which can only find a parallel among barbarous nations."

CONVERSION OF PROFESSOR ALLEN.—Rev George Allen, A. M. a Priest of the Protestant Episcopal Church, renounced the ministry a few days ago and publicly conformed to the Roman Catholic Communion. He was received into the bosom of that Church with the usual pomp and solemnity, and partook of the first sacrament at the altar of St John's Cathedral. Professor Allen was for many years President of Newark College, Delaware, and presided over its affairs with distinguished ability. For the last two years he has been connected with the University of Pennsylvania, and is at this time Professor of Latin and Greek, and Secretary of the Faculty.

MIDDLEBURY COLLEGE.—Professor Stoddard has resigned his Professorship of Language in Middlebury College, on account of ill health, and is about to resume his former residence in Northampton, Mass. Prof. Post, of Illinois College, at Jacksonville, has been elected to fill the vacancy. We also understand that all prospect of an union of the Vermont Colleges is at an end, as the corporation of Burlington College have recently declined any further negotiations on the subject.

[Middlebury (Vt.) Galaxy, 19th.

☞ The students of Bethany (Va.) College have held an indignation meeting and passed a series of resolutions relating to the imprisonment in Scotland, on a charge of libel of Rev. Alexander Campbell, the President of the institution. They fully approve of his conduct and condemn the course of his opponents. The difficulty originated in the published views of Mr. Campbell on the subject of Slavery, which some of the people of Scotland thought should exclude him from religious fellowship.

☞ Mr. WEBSTER left town yesterday morning for his farm in Franklin, N. H. He was recently had a slight touch of lumbago, which has given rise to a report that he was quite ill.
