COMMERCIAL AND MONEY MATTERS.

For Sales of Stocks, he see Fourth Page.

MONDAY, P. M.

The transactions of the street have not been large and the fancies still tend downward. Government funded debt was rather firmer. The improvement in the money market is yet too slight to have any effect upon stocks. There are but few outside operators in market, but should the money market become more easy the present low rates would tempt speculation.

There is no activity in bills and the supply is becoming better. Some English houses are now drawing which have declined for the past three months, and the amounts of produce now going forward will create a considerable farther supply. Sterling is 10@10¼, the latter for bank bills. Good names can be had at 10 and the tendency is downward. France are 5 26¼@5 25, which is lower.

The renewed activity in freights before mentioned, continues and the tendency of rates is upward. About 40,000 bushels Corn were engaged for Liverpool by the packets at 6d@7d. 300 bales Cotton at 3-16d. 3,000 bbls. Flour at 18d; and heavy freight at 25s. To London 700 bbls. Provisions at 5s and to Glasgow 100 tcs. Beef at 4s. 6d. For Cork and a market 8d. was offered for a vessel. There is considerable produce offering, especially Corn.

The receipts of the Norwich Road for November, present a more favorable result than those of previous months when compared with the same months of last year. November, 1847, shows a gain over November, 1846, notwithstanding the falling off in the through travel by reason of the stoppage of the Long Island train. The returns are as annexed:

	Nov. 1846.	Nov. 1847.
Through travel	$6,030	$2,803
Local travel	4,908	6,006
Freight	6,984	8,688
Mails, &c	516	1,067
Total	$18,096	$18,624
Increase 1847	$528.

It will be seen that the local business and freight exhibit a very large increase.

Receipts for 11 months, ending Dec. 1, 1846,	$236,813 60
Receipts for 11 months ending Dec. 1, 1847,	213,073 74
Decrease	$23,739 86

The through Long Island train was discontinued in March, 1847. Had that train been continued through the present year the receipts of the same as last year would show a large increase on the Norwich & Worcester Road. The increase in local business and freight is greater than the decrease of through travel.

The Marine Bank of Savannah has declared a dividend of 4 per cent. for the last six months. The Planters' Bank is 4 per cent. and the Central Railroad and Banking Co. $2.00 per share.

A dangerous counterfeit twenty on the Bank of Charleston, has been discovered. It has for a vignette a hill with a railroad track and locomotive. The bank has issued no such bills. The signatures of the President and Cashier are engraved.

At Philadelphia the money market continues stringent. The street rate is 1½ to 2 per cent. At Boston also the market continues tight.

The arrivals at Richmond, the coal depôt of the Reading Road near Philadelphia, for the past eleven months shows an enormous aggregate and proves the vast extent of the Pennsylvania Coal trade. A few years ago Richmond was unknown, now the arrivals are 1,300 to 1,400 vessels per month. The arrivals for the last six months have averaged 1,400. The aggregate for the eleven months has been 10,782, of which 5,832 were sloops and larger craft. The shipments from the mines, this season, as compared with the supplies during the same period last year, compare as follows:

	1847.	1846.
Schuylkill, via Reading Road	1,256,567.17	1,144,335.13
Schuylkill Canal	230,142.02
Lehigh	635,011.13	501,065.08
Lackawanna	352,144.10	281,412.10
Wyoming	130,007.10	191,024.66
Pine Grove	61,315.03	68,719.12
Swatara	37,664.07	29,221.02
Total number of tons	2,702,857.02	2,215,478.12

An increase thus far of nearly 500,000 tons over the whole shipment of 1846. The business season is not yet over, though many of the mines have ceased working until next Spring.

The value of exports to foreign ports from Baltimore for the month of November, was $497,020.

The new ship Crusader, which cleared for Valparaiso from Boston, had on board 2,000 bales and 724 boxes domestics, valued at $138,000.

The Message of the Governor of Ohio exhibits the finances of that State in a very favorable position. The surplus in the Treasury, after all payments, is $109,860, and the Governor makes a most judicious recommendation that the contribution to the Sinking Fund for the payment of the public debt be increased from $25,000 to not less than $200,000 per annum. This is the right language for all the indebted States to hold. The following is a statement of the finances for the past year:

RECEIPTS.

General revenue received from taxes levied on the grand list and incidental items	$1,202,528 47
Tolls and dividends received upon Canals, Turnpikes and Public Works	827,641 85
Tax upon Banks, Insurance and Bridge Companies	41,748 52
Surplus revenue, principal repaid by the Counties	101,835 48
Interest upon surplus revenue	86,379 06
Receipts for Canal Lands sold, &c.	53,942 42
Total payments into the Treasury	$2,314,075 78

DISBURSEMENTS.

Paid for support of State Government and State Institutions	$210,250 42
Paid for support of Common Schools	201,319 31
Interest upon State Debt	1,175,117 51
Repairs and contingent expenses upon Public Works	317,568 13
Amount of payments	$1,904,255 37
Balance, being surplus applicable to the payment of the Temporary and Funded Debt of the State	$409,820 41
In addition to the above, there has been paid into the Treasury, on account of School Lands and other trust funds and proceeds of loans and bonds issued, the sum of	$237,145 26
Payments have been made from these funds to the amount of	118,341 01
Leaving the balance of the receipts of the trust funds over the disbursements	$118,804 25
Domestic Bonds to the amount of	119,883 73

have been redeemed during 1847, at the Treasury.

New-York Cattle Market.—Monday, Dec. 13.
[By our own Reporter]

At Market—1,500 Beef Cattle, 100 Cows and Calves, and 3,800 Sheep and Lambs.

Beef Cattle are selling at from $6 to 7 50 ℔ cwt—a decided improvement upon the lowest average of last week's figures, though the demand on the part of buyers has not been quite as active. About 400 head unsold at the close of the week's business on Monday evening.

Cows and Calves—The market is better supplied, and both are taken as fast as they arrive at from $20@$35 to $50.

Sheep and Lambs—Prices of Sheep 1 25@3 50; a few extra are reported as high as $7. Lambs $1@2 75. 200 left over.

Hay and Straw—There is a good supply on the market with a fair demand at from 62½ to 75 cts ℔ cwt for Timothy, Red-top and Clover. Wheat and Oat Straw 2 37½@2 50 the 100 bundles.

Markets....Carefully reported for The Tribune.
MONDAY, December 13.

ASHES—The market is steady at 5 50@5 56½ for Pots and $7 for Pearls, with sales 150 bbls. The demand is moderate.

COTTON—The sales to-day have been about 1,200 bales, one-half of which was taken for export by ship samples from the wharf. Prices are fully sustained at the quotations of Saturday.

FLOUR AND MEAL—There is a strong downward tendency in the market, and the sales to-day have been small. Shippers are in market to some extent, and are endeavoring to get the quotations down to $6 for fair brands, at which some transactions would be made. It is understood that 1,100 bbls Troy sold at that figure for Liverpool, and we have reason to believe that other transactions for the same destination were privately made at the same figure. The home trade is now light, and the weather having been unfavorable during the morning, the transactions of the day have been limited to small lots, and at irregular prices. The sales do not exceed 3,000 or 4,000 bbls, including 1,000 bbls this State for February delivery, at 6 25. In this unsettled state of the market quotations cannot be correctly given—Good Genesee is probably 6 18¾@6 25 in retail lots, and Western $6 to 6 25 according to brand. For Southern there is more inquiry, and 1,000 bbls Brandywine sold at 6 75, and 100 bbls Howard-st re at $6 50. Common kinds are 6 50. Meal is in less demand, and we hear only of small parcels Jersey at 3 44@3 50, and 400 bbls Brandywine at 3 62½. Sales 250 to 300 bbls Rye Flour at 4 37½ to 4 62½, according to order. Common Buckwheat is $3@3 25. Sales "First's Extra" at 62½ cts ℔ bag, and 2 50 ℔ half bbl.

The Boston Journal in an article upon the Flour trade says:

The stock of Flour at this port is also large, but it is difficult to obtain an estimate of the probable amount. The receipts at this port since the 1st of September, of the present year, have amounted in round numbers, to 371,000 barrels, against 183,000 barrels during the same period last season, while the exports since September 1, including all that was cleared at the Custom House, both foreign and coastwise, have amounted to 61,000 barrels, against 49,000 during the same period last year. It will thus be seen that there has been an increase in receipts equal to almost 188,000 barrels, or more than 90 per cent, while the exports have increased but about 12,000 bbls. The stock on hand on the 1st Sept last year, was, however, much larger than at the same period this season.—On the whole, therefore, we may conclude that the stock of Flour in this city is larger than at the same period last season.

GRAIN—There is a fair demand for Wheat to-day, and prices are steady. We hear of shipping movement.—Sales 2,000 bushels Prime Genesee at 140 cts; 1,200 good Ohio, 131; 2,500 bush fair Western at 130, and 2,400 good Wisconsin Red at 129 cts. A portion of the purchasers were for Philadelphia. Corn was in large demand on 'Change, although dull in the morning. The sales add up about 35,000 bush—a large proportion of which was for Liverpool. The range of prices was 73@74 for Mixed, 75 for Fair Yellow, 78@80 for Northern Round Yellow and White; and 76@78 for Jersey Round. Most of the sales were at the higher prices. Sales of 1,000 bush prime Barley was made at 82½ cts. Rye is heavy, with sales 3,000 bush at 83@85 cts, part delivered. Oats are quiet at 46@49 cts for Northern. Sales Jersey at 43, and 6,000 Virginia supposed 37½ cts.

WHISKY—The market is quite inactive at 26@26½ cts in bbls. Drudge is 27 cts, time, nominally.

PROVISIONS—Prime Pork is held firmly, but there is no activity. It is nominally 8 50@8 75. Mess 13 75@$14. Beef is very inactive at $5@$6 for Prime; $8@$9 for Mess. Sales 150 bbls City Prime at $6, and 100 bbls Beef Hams at $8. Lard is inactive and heavy—Old in bbls is worth 8 cts and new 8½@8¾ cts. The speculative movement in Butter noticed on Saturday, has taken 1,200 pkgs State at 14@18 cts ℔ lb. Cheese is 6½@7½ cents, with fair inquiry. Sales 500 boxes for export.

SEEDS—Clover is dull at 7¼@7½ cts. We note sales 2,500 bush Rough Flaxseed at 135 cts ℔ bush of 56 lbs for crushing. There has been no movement toward shipment this year.

HOPS—Small sales are making at 6¼@7 cts for first sort. There is no export inquiry. Last year at this time over 4,000 bales had been exported.

TALLOW—The market is steady at 8¼ cts, with sales 25 to 30,000 lbs; and 5,000 lbs inferior at 8¼ cts.

OIL—Nothing doing in Crude Whale. The market is nominally 32 cts for export. English Linseed is firmer, the stray lots having been picked up. Holders ask 56 cts. Sales 50 bbls Country at 55 cts, cash.

BEESWAX—The market is 22@23¼ cents, with sales 3,000 lbs.

RICE—There is rather better foreign demand, but shippers are endeavoring to get prices down. Sales 200 tcs for export at 3 62½ for strictly prime. The whole range is $3@3 62½. The stock is increasing.

LIME—Sales two cargoes Eastern at 75 cts, cash.

LEAD—Pig is nominally 4 12½@4 19, without sales worth quoting.

COAL—Sales 150 tons Pictou at 6 25 ℔ ton.

MIDSUMMER EVE: A FAIRY TALE OF LOVE.
By Mrs. S. C. Hall. Price 25 cents.

Mrs. Hall's stories are not mere graceful fictions, but pictures of society—of the world around us. Her touch is vigorous and her tone genial; her wit is clearly and feels deeply. Artistically constructed—tenderly and gracefully written—and pointing, never an obtrusive, always an irresistible, moral—her tales are always as true to the requirements of Art as to the facts of Nature. We dismiss them with our heartiest commendation. [London Morning Chronicle.

THE NEW TESTAMENT IN GREEK.
With English Notes, critical, philological and exegetical, &c. with Maps, Indexes, &c. For the use of Schools, Colleges and Theological Seminaries. By Rev. J. A. Spencer, A. M., &c.

This work is intended to embody all the most valuable annotations of Drs. Burton, Valpy, Bloomfield, Turner, Griesbach, and other critics, and to illustrate the sacred text farther by collating it with the language of the classic authors. It also combines much interesting matter, geographical, antiquarian, historical and hermeneutical, tending to express in a succinct manner the exact meaning of the more important or difficult passages of the inspired writers. d14 3teod

ISABEL GRAHAM:

OR CHARITY'S REWARD,
BY H. W. HERBERT, ESQ.

HERBERT, AS A WRITER, is always good; but in this instance he is truly great, and has done for New-York what Sue did for Paris, depicted in words that burn, the mysteries and miseries of life in this mighty city.—Nearly every phase of many-colored life has its representative in these pages, from the luxurious Dives, who fares sumptuously every day to the wretched Lazarus who battles with the dogs for the bitter bread of beggary. Every reader will trace the steps of the heroine with an interest that will never tire till the last page is reached. Price 25 cents. Liberal discount to the trade.
