NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.

TO AMERICA.

BY MARTIN F. TUPPER.

Columbia, child of Britain—noblest child!
I praise the glowing lustre of thy worth.
And fain would see thy great heart reconciled
To love the mother of so blest a birth!
For we are one, Columbia! still the same
In lineage, language, laws, and ancient fame.
The natural Nobility of Earth!
Yes, we are one; the glorious deeds of yore
When dear old England earned her storied name
Are thine, as well as ours, for evermore!
And thou has rights in Milton, e'en as we,—
Thou too canst claim "sweet Shakspeare's wood-notes wild,"
And chiefest, brother, we are both made free,
Of one Religion, pure and undefiled!

II

I blame thee not, as other some have blamed,—
The high-born heir hath grown to man's estate;
I mock thee not, as some who should be shamed,
Nor ferret out thy faults with envious hate;
For otherwise, by generous love inflamed,
Pattiot, I praise thy country's foreign son,
Rejoicing in the blaze of good and great
That diadems thy head;—go on, go on!
Young Hercules, thus traversing in might,
Hey-Plato, filling all the West with light,
Thou new Themistocles of enterprise,
Go on and prosper—Acolyte of Fate! [apes—
And—precious child, dear Ephraim—turn those
For thee thy mother's yearning heart doth wait.

Court Calendar.... THIS DAY.

CIRCUIT COURT.—Nos. 88, 94, 4, 19, 364, 18, 32, 364, 39, 56, 61, 71, 73 to 78, 81, 82.

Law Courts.

MARINE COURT—Before Judge Waterman.—Wilkens Faulve James M. Sieper—Action for assault and battery by a seaman of the pocket-ship New-York against the chief mate, already referred to. Verdict for plaintiff, $12 50 cents.

UNITED STATES MARSHAL'S OFFICE.—Abandoned ship at Sea.—The British bark Reliance arrived at this port last week from Liverpool. Fell in, near the coast of England, with the British bark Lady Kannaway, abandoned at sea, her boats all gone and every rudder shipped, and rather an appearance of foul play having been exercised. Two or three hogs lay slaughtered, and considerable blood was about the deck, but whether any of it was human blood or not, of course could not be told. The Lady K. was of about 600 tons, and laden with a valuable East India cargo.—The Captain of the Reliance took from her 194 valuable Cashmere shawls, 20 of which have been appraised at our custom-house as having cost $1,000 each in Calcutta. On Friday the shawls were libelled by the Captain of the Reliance for salvage, through his counsel, P. Hamilton, Esq. The Captain of the R. supposes that the Lady K. must have gone on shore not long afterward in the Bay of Biscay. He would have manned and taken her into port, but for the remonstrance and impudence of his passengers, he having 280 on board.

FOR SALE CHEAP—Several Virginia Nightingales of beautiful plumage and in full song; not to be surpassed by any birds of the same kind at any place in this city. Also a lot of Mocking Birds of a superior description, in first-rate singing. Likewise a few Parroquets or Love Birds, Linnets and Canary Birds, at 528 Pearl-st. between Centre and Elm sts. d24 1m*

THE WILLIAMSBURGH FIRE Insurance Company—Office No. 16 Grand-st. in the village of Williamsburgh, in the County of Kings.—This Company being authorized by an act of the Legislature of the State of New-York, passed November 16, 1847, entitled "an act to authorize The Williamsburgh Fire Insurance Company to fill up its capital stock," and the Board of Directors having resolved that the said capital stock be filled up according to the provisions of said act, notice is hereby given in conformity with said act and with the approval of William T. McCoun, one of the Justices of the Supreme Court of the State of New-York, to all the present stockholders of the said Company that they are required to signify on or before the third day of January, A. D. 1848, to the President or Secretary of said Company, at their office, in the village of Williamsburgh, whether they will take up their stock, and also in case they elect to fill up said stock, to pay the amount required at such time and in such manner as the Board of Directors may hereafter decide.

And notice is hereby given to such stockholders as shall elect not to fill up their stock, or by neglect shall forfeit their right to do so, that they are required, on the 15th day of January next, to surrender to the said President or Secretary, at the said office, their original certificates of stock and in lieu thereof to receive new certificates for such number of shares as they respectively may be entitled to, in the proportion that the ascertained value of the funds of the said Company may be found to bear to the sum of one hundred and five thousand dollars, paying for fractional parts of shares.

And notice is hereby given, that on the 4th day of January next, so much new stock will be created and disposed of as will make the capital of the Company good to the amount of One Hundred and Five Thousand Dollars, and for that purpose books of subscription will be opened at the said office, on the 4th day of January next, and continue open daily from 10 o'clock, A. M. until 3 o'clock, P. M. until the amount requisite is subscribed.

The agreement to fill up shares as above mentioned and the new subscriptions to take effect on the 15th day of January next, on which day an instalment of 10 per cent on the par value of each share on said new subscription is required to be paid to the said President or Secretary, at said office.—Williamsburgh Dec 15, 1847.

DANIEL BURTNETT, President.
J. M. McLEAN, Secretary. d17 6tewtj10
