Bark Adeline & Eliza, (of Boston) Baker, Bordeaux 30 ds, brandy and wine, to John Durand & Co. Dec 25, lat 39 10, lon 70 31, saw a large ship apparently in ballast, with a signal flag and two men in it, lashed ship, stood for it, and soon discovered it to be a ship mast with the trusseltrees out of water, and a steering-sail yard lashed to the trusseltrees, with a piece of canvas to it as a signal. On the mast was carved, in large letters, "Ulysses." It appeared to have been in the water a long time. Supposed the signal to have been set to keep vessels from running foul of it. Jan 3, lat 34 34, lon lon 12, saw a large ship standing Eastward, showing a red, white and red signal, stripes running parallel, supposed to be a packet. Capt Baker informs us that news had reached Bordeaux of the total loss of the bark Apollo, with Capt Chase and crew, of NYork. The Apollo left the Roads Dec 4, and encountered a tremendous gale on the 6th, in which gale she was lost.
