THE DUDLEY ESTATE.—In September of last year a paragraph appeared in The Tribune, headed "A large Fortune in want of an Owner," in which reference was made to an advertisement that had appeared in some of the English papers, in search of heirs to a Dudley property in England of large extent, and from which it was inferred that the heirs in England had become extinct. Numerous inquiries were made so as to know where the advertisement might be found, and having communicated with the person who wrote the paragraph in question, we informed our readers that it was taken from the London Times, but various applications having since been made to us, we presume our information was not correct, search having been made in vain, by several parties, among the files of that period.

We are now enabled to throw some light on the affair. A gentleman of our acquaintance, well versed in matters of the kind, and from his experience well qualified for the investigation, having been solicited by some of the Dudley heirs in this country to lend his aid, has obtained a copy of the advertisement, and is now pursuing the necessary investigation, having already made much genealogical research, from the time of the first settlers of the Dudley family in Massachusetts to the present day.

THOMAS DUDLEY, first Deputy and afterward Governor of Massachusetts, was the first of the Dudleys who came over to this country, and not Samuel, as stated in our former paper). He arrived in New-England in 1630. He married, and had nine children. Rev. Samuel Dudley was his eldest son, who married Mary, daughter of the first Gov. Winthrop, three years after their arrival, viz: in 1633. Gov. JOSEPH DUDLEY of Mass. was also a son of Thomas by his second wife, whose daughter Ann married Gov. John Winthrop, great-grandson of the father of the Winthrop family in this country, who came over with Thomas Dudley in 1630. From these have descended the present family of the WINTHROPS, and by intermarriage, the SALTONSTALLS, the WANTONS and various other families.

Those claiming descent may obtain farther information by addressing a line to "DUDLEY," box 1,284, New-York Post Office; but no application will be attended to unless postpaid. The name and address in full, and from whom descended, should be stated.

RUNAWAYS.—We learn from the Centreville (Md) Times, that on Sunday night of last week, a large boat containing eighteen negroes, who proved to be runaways from the Western Shore, landed at Kent Island, where the latter were subsequently apprehended, carried to Centreville, and lodged in the county jail. It appears they are from Anne Arundel and Calvert Counties, and supposed when they struck Kent Island, that they had reached Mason and Dixon's line. [Baltimore Sun, 11th.

☞ An "affair of honor" as it is facetiously termed, took place a few days ago, in Indiana, between Dr Griffing of Kentucky, and Mr. Ghilton of Louisiana—There were two rounds fired, Griffing being slightly wounded in the thigh and Ghilton in the shoulder. The cause of offence was something said by Ghilton about a lady which the other resented.

☞ Governor Shunk, of Pennsylvania, has vetoed the bills rechartering the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank at Philadelphia; the Columbia Bank and Bridge Company of Columbia; the Farmers' and Drovers' Bank of Waynesburg, and the Chambersburg Bank, of Chambersburg.

Markets....Carefully reported for The Tribune.

TUESDAY, April 11.

ASHES—There is no change in Ashes. Sales 100 bbls at 5 62½ for Pots, and $7 for Pearls.

COTTON—The sales to day were 800 to 1,000 bales at prices showing a decline of ½ to ¾ cent ⅌ lb on prices current before the Steamer. The purchases were partly for export to the Continent.

FLOUR AND MEAL—The demand for Flour was rather better to-day, but the market was heavy, and the anxiety to sell induced holders to accept lower prices—The transactions reach 3,000 bbls and perhaps more, including good brands Genesee at 6 25, and 1,000 bbls Western at 6 25. Sales Genesee were made at 6 37½@6 44, but only favorite brands would bring over 6 31½. Some 500 bbls Troy "Globe" sold at 6 25, and some parcels Michigan and Ohio at 6 18¾@6 31½. The demand was fair from the East, and the home trade were buying more freely. The correct quotations were difficult to obtain, as some of the transactions were made on private terms. In Southern the quotation sympathizes with Western. The demand is moderate, and the figures are 6 12½@6 25, the lower price for Jersey. Meal is heavy, and the sales only in small lots at 2 37½ for Jersey. Brandywine is out of market held at 2 62½. Sales Rye Flour at 3 50@3 56½.

GRAIN—The market for Wheat is dull. A sale of 1,400 bush Genesee was made at something off 140c. Another fair parcel was sold at 137½ and that price was offered for another lot. A small sale of Southern Wheat was made at 125 cents. Corn is without much change, but no better than yesterday. The demand is moderate, including some parcels wanted for shipment. The sales are 15,000 bushels at 52 cents for Southern White, and 55@54 for Jersey Yellow. Rye is firm, with sales 5,000 bushels, part at 76@76 cents, and part on private terms. Sales 500 bushels prime Barley at 90 cents. Oats are 46@48 cents, and steady. Jersey are 40 cents.

WHISKY—Sales 250 bbls at 22@22½ cents for Pennsylvania, New-Orleans and State. A sale of Cider Brandy was made at 37½ cents.

PROVISIONS—There is a continues movement in Pork, and 1,300 to 2,000 bbls sold at 8 25 for Prime, and 9 75@9 87½ for Mess. A considerable portion of the purchases of to-day and yesterday were for England. Sales 200 bbls Country Mess Beef at 8 18@8 25. Pickled Meats are in moderate demand. Sales 50 pkgs at 6 cents for Hams. A sale of 100,000 lbs Sides in bulk was made at 5 cents. Lard is in fair request and steady. Sales 700 bbls at 6½@6¾, and 100 kegs at 7¼@7¾ cents. Butter and Cheese are in moderate supply and selling off at previous rates. Butter is 15@25 cents, according to quality.

OILS—English Linseed is scarcely so firm, and 5,000 gallons sold at 55 cents per gallon.

HIDES—About 15,000 Angostura sold at 8 cents, 8 mos. Several lots of Southern, 6½ to 7½, merchantable cash, and interest off. The market continues well stocked, with steady arrivals. Prices have been lowering for some weeks back, and the tendency seems to indicate a still farther decline.

LEAD—Sales 1,400 pigs Lead at 4 35, cash, per cwt.

SEEDS—Clover continues in good request, and 200 bbls sold at 5½@7½ cents, according to quality. Sales 100 to 150 bbls Timothy at $2@$2 25 for mowed and $2 6 for repd.

NAVAL STORES—For Crude Turpentine there is some inquiry, and the market is firm at the higher rates. Sales Spirits Turpentine at 35 cents, which is lower.

OIL MEAL—A sale of 10 tons was made at 1 37½ per cwt.

HAY—Sales 300 or 400 bales North River at 50@53 cts per cwt.

LEATHER—The stock is very light, and but little has come forward thus far from the Spring stock, and the impression seems to be quite general that the receipts must be light until more bark is obtained to tan out the leather in the tan-yards; this fact in connection with the derangement in the money markets has been the great cause of the low price of Hides. The following shows the private sale price of Sole Leather: Hemlock, Over Weights, 12½ to 13½; Middling do, 14 to 15; Light do, 14 to 15; Damaged, All Weights, 8 to 12. Oak, Over Weights, 17 to 21; Middling, 19 to 21; Light, 20 to 24.

GROCERIES—The Molasses market since our last notice has been active at good prices, not altering our previous quotations. Sales for the last three days comprise some 250 hhds inferior Trinidad at 23 cents, 4 mos. One cargo New-Orleans to the trade in lots as wanted. 227 hhds, 127 tierces, 22 bbls, at 25 cents; 66 bbls prime Iberia, 27 cents; 120 hhds Mariel Cuba for distilling at 18½—all on the usual time.... The Sugar market continues depressed in price, with free sales at somewhat our previous quotations. Sales comprise 300 hhds Cuba, 3¾ and 4¾ cents; 250 do New-Orleans, 3¾ and 5 cents; 450 Brown Havana to the trade 5¾ and 6½ cents. Some lots on the market not yet taken, the bids being lower than the seller's views.... Of Coffee we notice sales 1,000 to 1,500 bags Rio 6¾@7¼ cents and 500 Java at 8¾ cents.

☞ Ambrosial Tooth Paste.—Sound teeth, clean teeth, white teeth, like a musical voice, are "an excellent thing in woman," and, seeing them, one expects to hear melody issue from the mouth they beautify, as naturally as one expects to hear sweet sounds from the white keys of a pianoforte. One knows, too, that the sweet voice will bring the perfume of a sweet breath with it, thus charming two senses at the same time. To secure these desiderata—beautiful teeth and fragrant breath—permit us to recommend the AMBROSIAL TOOTH PASTE. This preparation removes all impurity from the teeth, keeps the gums in a healthy condition, and acts as a preservative of the dental enamel, while at the same time it gives a lustre transparency and pearly whiteness to the whole set, which no other dentifrice can impart.

Prepared and sold by HENRY JOHNSON, Chemist and Druggist, 275 Broadway, cor. Chambers st; sold also at 100 Fulton-st. 303 Hudson-st. and 159 Fulton-st. Brooklyn. Price 50 cents. all2

BOOK TRADE.

HALLS OF THE MONTEZUMAS.

OR MEXICO IN ANCIENT AND MODERN TIMES, containing a concise History of the Ancient and Modern Races and Antiquities; and especially its splendid Palaces and Halls of State; also, its Geography, Government, Institutions, Mines, Minerals, and Commerce; together with the Conquest by Cortez, and a Sketch of the late War with the United States, including the Treaty of Peace. Illustrated with a beautiful engraving. Price 25c.

The publisher is of opinion that in entering this work to the public, he is filling a vacuum that has long existed for information relating to the highly interesting subjects on which it treats. The occupation of the Halls by our troops renders it important that we should all have some knowledge of the localities. For sale, wholesale and retail, by [al2 2tis] W. H. GRAHAM, Tribune Buildings.
