A BIT SKEPTICAL

"Who is that important-looking stranger?"

"He styles himself the advance guard of prosperity. He is here to address the business men of our town."

"The hotel proprietor doesn't seem to believe he's the advance guard of prosperity. He has just refused to cash the stranger's check."

Lions.

Little Mary (watching cubs play)—Mamma, will they be men when they grow up?

Mamma—No; what makes you think that?

Little Mary—I heard uncle yesterday say to papa, "You were some lion when you were young."

Significant Gesture.

"You have some large, heavy paperweights on your desk."

"Yes," said the editor of the Chiggersville Clarion. "By laying my hand caressingly on one of these weights I have frequently cooled down an irate subscriber who came in here with the intention of using me for a floor mop."

LOOKS SERIOUS

"Me brudder wanted me to see if you'd be engaged dis evening?"

"What a funny way for him to propose?"

Musings of a Motor Cop.

Sweet Hortense has gone too far
In debt, 'tis plainly seen.
While she's paying for her car
She can't buy gasoline.

Up Against It.

"Smith," said the visiting artist, "if you can't make your studies and landscapes sell, why don't you try working in the nude a little while?"

"I'm right on the verge of it," said Smith dolefully. "I don't think this last suit of mine will stand much more wear!"

Accommodation.

"Do you expect that bill you have just introduced to become a law?"

"No," answered Senator Sorghum. "If I thought it had a chance I wouldn't have introduced it. It was one of those occasions on which it seems perfectly safe to oblige a friend."

Not Worthy to Be Mentioned.

Hubby (entering unexpectedly)—What are you doing?

Wifey—Writing my memoirs!

Hubby (startled)—What! Your memoirs!

Wifey—Don't be alarmed; there's nothing at all about you!

And It Doesn't Diminish.

"Your wife is quite liberal-minded, isn't she?"

"I guess so; she seems to give me a good deal of it."

The Desire for Change.

Father—I don't know what is the matter with that child. He won't stay in the same place any length of time.

Mother—He probably got it from his nurses.

Fitting Title.

Highbrow—What was that charming thing that Herr Schlitz just played on the piano?

Lowbrow—Havoc!—Yale Record.

Does, Indeed.

First Italian—Oh, looka data bird on da rubber plant!

Second Ditto—Sure; he gutta percha.

N : That.

"Some things go without saying, you know."

"Yes, but a woman's tongue is not in that class."

An Error of Judgment.

Ella—She hasn't much judgment.

Stella—I should say not. When she visits the prison on Christmas she takes calendars for the life prisoners.

A Candidate for Art.

"What makes you think your boy Josh might be a motion picture actor?"

"Well," replied Farmer Corntossel, "Josh must be good for something, and he has tried 'most everything else."

Just Flattery.

"I understand the photographer praised your beauty very highly."

"Yes, but I've looked in vain for the last six months and he has yet to display in his front window the portrait he took of me."
