NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.

OUR LITTLE BOY....By RICHARD COE, Jr.

When the evening shadows gather
'Round about our quiet hearth,
Comes our eldest born unto us,
Bending humbly to the earth,
And with hands enclasped tightly,
And with meek eyes raised above,
This the prayer he offers nightly,
To the Source of Light and Love:
"Bless my parents, O, my Father!
Bless my little sister dear;
While I gently take my slumbers,
He thy guardian angels near.
Should no morning's dawn e'er greet me,
Beaming brightly from the skies,
Thine the eye of Love to greet me,
In the paths of Paradise."
Now a glad "good night" he gives us,
And he seals it with a kiss;
Naught of earthly sorrow grieves us
In an hour so full of bliss.
Now our arms about him wreathing,
One fond kiss before he sleep;
Soon we hear his gentle breathing,
In a slumber calm and deep.

CITY ITEMS.

WEDNESDAY, Sept. 13, 1848.

FIRES.—At 12 o'clock last night the stable of Capt. Turper, No. 85 Anthony-st. was discovered to be on fire, and before the flames could be subdued the stable and its contents, including four horses, were entirely consumed.... The slaughter-house of J. & F. Clinch, on Third-st. took fire about 6 o'clock this morning.—Officer Long, who gave the alarm, succeeded in removing the cattle. The building was damaged to the amount of about $100.

SUPPOSED TO BE DROWNED.—On Monday morning, at the extreme southerly side of Spuyten-Dyvel Creek, a full suit of clothes were found. In one of the vest pockets were three keys and a license as Emigrant Runner, filled up with the name of Thomas Hatfield, dated July 28, 1848. It is presumed the owner was drowned while bathing.

ACCIDENT.—A boy named John McCord, whose parents reside at No. 8 Cannon-st. fell from a vessel lying at the foot of Grand-st. into the water, but was fortunately rescued by policeman Powell.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—One Edward Madden attempted to cut his throat in the Fourth Ward yesterday afternoon. He was taken in charge by Dennis Fulvey.

RUN OVER.—A child was run over in Cherry-st. and slightly injured by a horse belonging to Mr. Calvin Conduet, of No. 268 Cherry-st.

AN IMPOSTOR.—One Michael Lucia last night applied at the Fifth Ward Station-House, representing himself as being entirely destitute. He was at once recognized by officer Webster as an old imposter, and on searching his person, $78 were found in his possession.

POLICE.—Capt. Carpenter of the Fifth Ward Police last evening arrested one James Hanley on suspicion of arson.

Political and Personal Movements, &c.

Messrs. Jonas Pusey, Wm. S. Hilles, Wm. Chandler, J. W. Duncan, Joseph Lloyd, James C. Jackson, Jacob Pusey, Samuel N. Pusey, James R. Pugh, Thos. Worrell and A. H. Dixon, Executive Committee of the Free Democracy of Delaware have published an address, calling upon the people of that State to organize and form an electoral ticket.

Gov. Poindexter has published a very long address to the people of Mississippi, advocating the election of Gen Taylor. Prentice of the Louisville Journal has a stock on hand, and warrants them sound on the important questions of the day.

Arthur Livermore entertains great respect for the Philadelphia Convention, because he thinks it met in the place where the Declaration of Independence was signed—when the fact is, it met in the Chinese Museum.

Linus B. Comins, Esq. President of the Roxbury Common Council, and Chairman of the Whig Committee of that city, has written a letter in which he states that he cannot support Gen. Taylor, preferring Van Buren, although he cannot vote for him.

Commodore Stewart says the Philadelphia News, is in favor of Gen. Taylor. He was one of the most prominent Democratic candidates for the Presidential nomination in 1844.

The Harrisburg (Pa.) Telegraph states that Dr. Luther Reilly, probably the most influential Democrat in Dauphin county, and formerly the Democratic Representative in Congress from that District, has, with a number of his political friends, abandoned Cass and declared for Van Buren.

Hon. Geo. Kremer addressed a Taylor meeting at Mifflinburg, Union Co. Pa. on Saturday last.

There was a large Free-Soil meeting in Roxbury on the 11th inst. Quite a number of ladies were present. Charles Sumner, Esq. and Bradford Sumner, Esq. were the speakers.

Hon. Gen. Starks and Col. John E. Cameron, of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, have embraced the Free Soil doctrines, and go for Van Buren and Adams.

Madame Darusmont, formerly Fanny Wright, made a speech at a Hunker meeting at Germantown, Tenn few days ago.

Aaron Chubbuck presided at a Free Soil Meeting at Towanda, Bradford County, Pa. on the 4th inst. Hon David Wilmot, Francis R. Adams and Gideon O. Chase addressed the vast assembly. Mr. W. spoke for upward of two hours, declaring his unalterable attachment to Van Buren and Free Soil.

Hon. Charles Allen is proposed as a Free Soil candidate for Congress in the 7th District of Massachusetts, by a meeting in Southbridge. He was a Delegate to Philadelphia.

Richard H. Dana, jr. and Joshua Leavitt made eloquent Van Buren speeches at Cambridge, on the 9th inst.

Hon. John A. Bolles, a leading Barnburner, made an interesting Free Soil speech at Marblehead, last Friday.

Mrs. Swisshelm is now the sole Editor of the Pittsburgh Visitor, a spicy Van Buren hebdomedal, printed at the office of the Commercial Journal, which goes for Taylor and Free Soil.

Many of the Southern Taylor papers have gone into mourning for Polk's signature of the Oregon Bill, thereby endorsing the Wilmot Proviso.

The Florida Whig, one of our exchanges, teems with proof that Cass is in favor of the Wilmot Proviso, and Taylor opposed to it!

Corporal Streeter of the Lowell Journal says that the Boston Republican is "killingly facetious." In our estimation, since the Corporal's advent to Lowell, The Journal has been horribly funny.

Among the names proposed for Delegates to the Convention to amend the Constitution of Kentucky we perceive those of the following gentlemen: Geo. W. Johnson, James H. Daviess, Col. R. M. Johnson, Gen. Wm. Johnson, Col. T. Bradford, Dr. J. R. Desha, Dr. S. F. Gano, Gen. Pratt, L. B. Dickerson, D. H. Smith, A. Duvall, F. C. McCalla, Col. M. V. Thompson, James F. Robinson, Somerson Green, Thomas K. Holland, Col. John Duvall, Doctor E. H. Black. Gradual Emancipation and other necessary reforms will be agitated.

We notice in a south-western paper the decease of the late Francis Ingraham, who was in the first Revolutionary battles of Lexington and Bunker Hill, and died on the 29th August last, at Grandstaff, (Miss.) at the advanced age of 87 years. He was buried at Port Gibson.

Gen. Scheetz of Whitemarsh, Montgomery Co. Pa., a patriarch of the Revolution, and one who has been occupied in many public stations, died at his residence, on Monday week, in the 85th year of his age.

Subscriptions are being raised in Kentucky for a monument in Frankfort Cemetery in memory of Daniel Boone and wife. The natives of the "dark and bloody ground" feel proud of their great pioneer, Boone, and doubtless will soon erect a fitting memento where his remains lay.

Rev. Mr. Prentiss, of New Bedford, has been elected to the Professorship of Natural and Revealed Religion in Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Me.

Rev. William Payne, Professor of the Hartford Trinity College, and recently Editor of the Episcopal Calendar, has been elected Rector of St. George's Church, Schenectady, N. Y.

Rev. John Newland Maffit is drawing vast audiences in Arkansas, wherever he holds forth. He has been there for some time past, and is attracting universal attention. The press of the State warmly applaud him.

On Saturday last the citizens of Caroline County, Md. gave a public dinner to Lieut. E. S. Hardcastle, in consideration of his distinguished gallantry in the late war with Mexico.

Mrs. Fanny Kemble Butler is among the visitors at the Revere House Boston. She will soon reappear, it is said, on the boards of the Park Theater, New-York.

Dr. Colton is exhibiting Peale's great painting, the Court of Death, and giving philosophical lectures at Boston.

Col. Fremont left Washington on Saturday on a third expedition to the far West. His present enterprise is to be a private one.

Mr. Worden Cresson, U. S. Consul at Jerusalem and the Rabbi Bucklore Cohen, of the same city, arrived at Boston on Monday.

Hon Henry H. Ross has filed his resignation of the office of Judge of Essex County, New-York, to take effect 1st January next.

FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—On the Worcester Railroad this forenoon, the 10 o'clock train for Brookline ran off the track near Cambridge crossing, in consequence of the breaking of a switch rod. The engineer, Silas Ellis, whose parents reside in this city, was killed instantly, and a fireman named King had his collar bone broken. [Boston Jour. 12th.

SHIPWRECK AND RESCUE.—The brig Tigris, which arrived at Salem on Sunday, from Ambriz, Africa, fell in with the wreck of British brig Mary Hibbert, of and 8 days from Bermuda for ——, with both masts gone; the vessel having been dismasted in a severe hurricane. The Tigris took off the captain, crew and one passenger, and carried them into Salem.

SWINDLING.—The Balt. Sun cautions the public against a person passing under the real or assumed name of Nelson Owings, the son of a sugar planter of Cuba. He presented to a gentleman of Baltimore a letter of introduction and of credit from a highly respectable merchant of Havana, which has since proved a forgery.

TO BE HUNG.—Bob, the negro who lately murdered Mr. Taylor and severely wounded Mrs. Parker, in Berriven County, Ga. has been sentenced to be hung at Sylvania, on the 3d day of September.

Dreadful Hurricane on the East Coast of Scotland.

ABERDEEN, Aug. 19.—Last night about 1,000 boats, each manned by five fishermen, left the various ports of the East coast of Scotland, between Stonehaven and Fraserburgh, for the herring fishery. About 12 o'clock it blew a gale, the rain falling in torrents, and the night was so dark that none of the land lights could be seen. At Peterhead, which is the easternmost point of the coast, and altogether exposed to an easterly gale, 70 out of the 400 boats that were fishing there are missing, and there is too much reason to fear that most if not all of them are wrecked or sunk. The shore between the Buchanness lighthouse and the entrance to the South harbor, for a mile and a half was strewed with wrecks and the dead bodies of fishermen.

Twenty-three corpses were carried into Peterhead before 9 o'clock, and at the time the latest accounts left others were constantly thrown ashore among the wreck on the sands or the rocks. Forty boats were wrecked within the circuit of half a mile, and so sudden and awful was the catastrophe that no means of succoring or saving the distressed and perishing fishermen could be devised. How many boats may have foundered at sea or gone to pieces among the precipitous cliffs of Buchan no one at present can tell. One thing appears certain, that the lowest estimate of the loss of life and property by this gale exceeds that produced by any other hurricane hitherto recorded in the annals of the East Coast of Scotland. It is calculated that along the coast not fewer than a hundred lives are lost, and when it is considered that for the most part the deceased fishermen have left wives and families, it will be felt that the widowhood and orphanage of our seaport towns have received in one short night an unparalleled augmentation.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—We regret to state that a serious accident occurred on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad this morning, which not only did considerable damage to the cars and locomotive, but unfortunately injured several persons very seriously. The accident occurred beyond Mount Clare dépôt, about five miles from Baltimore. It seems that after the early train had passed out for Washington several workmen had taken up a portion of the rails for the purpose of repairing the road. The train from Washington came in at full speed, and not having received notice that the track had been taken up, approached so near without observing the obstruction that the engine could not be checked. The locomotive, tender and several of the cars consequently ran off the track, injuring the former somewhat and crushing almost to pieces two of the first cars, in which were the company of Washington firemen and the Washington Light Infantry, beside many others from the District. The shock was very severe, and all on board were more or less stunned by it, while Mr. Costigan had his foot badly crushed; Mr. Harding, attached to the Washington Navy Yard, two or three of his fingers torn off, Mr. Cooper his head much cut, and Mr. John Kelley his feet and legs terribly injured. It is feared that the amputation of one foot will be rendered necessary. One of the passengers had his boot literally torn from his foot, but fortunately and miraculously sustained no injury. Another gentleman received a severe contusion of the knee. These are all from the District—There were others who sustained bruises, but not of a very painful character. The ladies were in the rear cars, and fortunately all escaped injury. The locomotive ran into an embankment, and was not so much damaged, while one of the front forward cars were much crushed. Many of the passengers, after the accident, walked into the city, while others were brought in by a train sent out for them. Medical aid was procured for those injured and every other attention paid them. [Balt. Patriot, 12th.

* Our telegraphic dispatch yesterday took off this gentleman's head, instead of his boot. For once, we are glad to learn that the telegraph told a lib. [Ed.
