BAD COMPLEXIONS, pimples, blotches, blackheads, red, rough, oily, mothy skin, dry, thin, and falling hair with irritated scalps and dandruff, red, rough hands, with itching, burning palms, shapeless nails and painful finger ends, and baby blemishes, prevented by CUTICURA SOAP.

It removes the cause of disfiguring eruptions, loss of hair, and baby blemishes, viz.: the clogged, irritated, inflamed, or sluggish condition of the Pores. No other medicated soap ever compounded is to be compared with it for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, scalp, hair, and hands. No other foreign or domestic toilet soap, however expensive, is to be compared with it for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. Thus it combines in ONE SOAP at ONE PRICE — namely, 25 CENTS — the best skin and complexion soap and the best toilet and the best baby soap in the world. Sold everywhere. POTTER DRUG AND CHEM. CORP., Sole Props., Boston, U. S. A. "How to Purify and Beautify the Skin," free.

Complete External and Internal Treatment of Every Humor.

CUTICURA THE SET $1.25 — Consisting of CUTICURA SOAP (25c.), to cleanse the skin of crusts and scales and soften the thickened cuticle, CUTICURA Ointment (50c.), to instantly allay itching and irritation and soothe and heal, and CUTICURA RESOLVENT (50c.), to cool and cleanse the blood. A single set is often sufficient to cure the severest humor when all else fails.

THE HOUSEHOLD.

Points on Arranging Furniture. Narcissus and Lilac Frame. Golden Rule For Gravies.

Many women have a natural gift for arranging rooms and may be called artists in the art, while others have no idea at all, and their rooms, despite costly and really beautiful articles of furniture or ornament, are always [illegible] everything is so very badly [illegible].

A table in a drawing room should never be in the center of the apartment. Let it be pushed away and the chairs disposed in such a manner that it may be seen that they are intended to be sat upon. Chairs placed against a wall or ranged into corners is an ugly and inappropriate arrangement. Have what the French call little étalages in the room if it be large enough. For instance, near small or large tables have two or three chairs or a chair and a lounge, enabling those visitors, should several call at the same time, to talk comfortably, which is impossible if a large party has to sit in a circle and join in a general conversation.

A table upon which ornaments and books radiate in a starlike shape is very ugly. Let the books and ornaments be placed in studied carelessness, and avoid primness in every way.

It is rather the rage at the present day to decorate rooms with trifles. This is a mistake, and often really pretty ornaments are not seen to advantage because of this. Allow sufficient margin of space between your pictures and ornaments, so that each may be properly seen, says the Buffalo Enquirer.

A superabundance of Japanese fans, common knickknacks, bits of pottery, china animals, cheap frames and gimcracks generally should be avoided, though, on the other hand, much that is tasteful in the way of ornament can be had nowadays very inexpensively.

Furnish the Kitchen.

It is a mistake to lavish money on drawing rooms and sacrifice the kitchen.

Kitchen utensils are of the first importance. The cook cannot do her work well without proper tools and proper environment.

A kitchen outfit costs little. New oilcloth for the floor, table and sink is cheap and adds immeasurably to the contentment of the maid.

An attractive kitchen bespeaks the good housekeeper. It is easier to convince the servants of the desirability of keeping it clean.

Neat tin and wooden boxes with labels are a delightful acquisition to the kitchen closets and much more pleasant to handle than leaky paper bags.

Colored paper with pinked edges for the shelves will work wonders for the general effect, and a growing plant or two gives an air of luxury which surprises those who have never tried it.

Narcissus and Lilac Frame.

The frame is made of a piece of cardboard, in the middle of which is an opening of the size of a carte album photograph and on which is applied the stuff with the embroidered or painted design. The stuff will be water green satin. The narcissus will be embroidered in yellow silk, with the center bordered with orange. The lilac will be worked in mauve silk and the leaves in green of a stronger shade than the background in order that they may stand out well. The same color scheme will be followed if the design is painted instead of embroidered, though it would be well in this case to replace the satin by taffetas or grained silk. The bow will be of valenciennes or any other lace.

AN IDEA FROM PARIS.

The photograph will be framed in a little fine beading to hide the turn of the stuff, and the whole will be trimmed with mauve ribbon of the same shade as the lilac, with bows at the four corners.—Paris Herald.

Golden Rule For Gravies.

"A golden rule for gravies and sauces," says an expert cooking teacher, "is that wherever flour is used the liquid, whatever it may be, must be cool when added. Flour and butter or meat fat is the base of gravies, over which the ignorant kitchen maid pours boiling water. The sure result is poor, lumpy gravy.

"Straining will take out the lumps, to be sure, but will not take away the raw taste from the uncooked flour. In making tomato sauce the juice should be slightly cooled before it is poured over the flour and butter, and cool milk should be used for white sauce."

Crimsonbeak—This South African war reminds me of our boarding house.

Yeast—In what way?

"The trouble seems to be about the borders."

"Why, Daisy, what on earth ails you? Your tongue has been going like a bell clapper for an hour."

"Why, we're playing house, mamma, and I'm you."

John Dirr, Poseyville, Ind., says: "I never used anything as good as One Minute Cough Cure. We are never without it." Quickly breaks up coughs and colds. Cures all throat and lung troubles. Its use will prevent consumption. Pleasant to take. Hargis' Pharmacy, John Sheppard, S. Kahn.

Gentility.

Reginald had a purpose in keeping the tryst punctually.

He came at the appointed hour. Beatrice was not there.

The minutes sped. Reginald waited until 20 of these had speeded.

Then he heaved a sigh of relief.

"She is half an hour late at least," he exclaimed, with glistening eyes. "She is not bourgeois after all!"

The qualities of real gentility inevitably betray themselves sooner or later.—Detroit Journal.

WINE OF CARDUI

How a Woman Suffers.

HOWELL, IND., Nov 23.

I will always praise Wine of Cardui. It has done me more good than all the medicines I have ever taken in my life. Please send a book about female diseases to the ladies whose names I enclose.

Mrs. MINNIE STODGHILL.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

It isn't necessary for a woman to give particulars. When she says she has "female troubles", other women know what that means. It means days and nights of endless suffering. It means headaches which no tongue can describe. It means that terrible bearing and dragging down in the lower abdomen. It means agonizing backache, and shoulder ache, and arm ache, and aches in the lower limbs. It means nerves on edge—the blues—despondency and loss of hope. It means debilitating drains that the doctors call leucorrhœa. It means martyrdom—sometimes even death seems preferable. And still Wine of Cardui will utterly put those diseases and pains to rout. It has cured thousands of cases when nothing else on earth would. To the budding woman, to the bride, to the wife, to the expectant mother, to those going through the Change of Life, this Vegetable Wine is a blessing.
