NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.

A VALENTINE....For The Tribune.

OH, Erin! dear sod of my soul's adoration!
My Erin ma vourneen, ma cailin, ma stor!
May the heart of the exile forbid its vibration,
When beats it for aught save thy rock-spangled shore.

I've hoped on your smiles, dear, and wept o'er your weeping— [thy name:
I've lived in your thoughts, and have cherished
The hopes that you breathed, love, are still in soul's keeping, [came.
While vanished away are thy frowns as they

Ah! mine's not the love of the insane admirer,
Who follows through fashion each coquetting elf;
Thy sorrow and life's made thee—Freedom's inspirer—
More worthy of love than thou thinkest thyself!

Keep lonely, my joy, thy pale face in thy sorrow—
Why—why should I ask thee to unrobe thy shame? [row,
No, sooner far, Death my red life-blood will borEre tongue shall parade in dishonor thy name.

And though thy young spirit is downcast in feeling; [core
Thou love of my youth! let thy inmost heart's
Be electric with mine in its minstrel revealing—
There's one life that loves thee, my Erin, ma stor!

Law Courts.

COURT OF OYER AND TERMINER.—Judge Edmonds will relieve Judge Jones in the criminal term. The trial of Sherry, for murder, will probably be called on to-day.

SUPREME COURT—Judge Jones is holding a Special Term in the Vice-Chancellor's Room.

SUPERIOR COURT—Before Judge Vanderpoel.—Bowen vs. Barnes.—Action for alleged malicious prosecution, already referred to. Verdict for plaintiff, $75.

Daniel W. Clarke vs. James G. Bennett.—Action for alleged libel contained in two articles under the head of Police Intelligence, in the defendant's paper, on 21st and 26th June, 1848, in the first of which is set forth that Mr C. who is an attorney at law, was complained of at the Police, by Freeks, Renoull, charging said Clark with obtaining money under false pretences, &c.—the second alludes to the same matter, appears to imply a charge of swindling said by Mr. Clark as to the law of embezzlement under which Mr. C. professed to have acted, and quoted an extract from the opinion of Chancellor Walworth.

For defence, it was alleged that the first publication contained "no other than a fair, true, and just report and account of the complaint so made," and the other also was correct.

It appears that Messrs Samuel Harris and Fr derick Renoull were carpenters and copartners under the firm of Harris & Renoull; they did work at defendant's building in Nassau-st, the bill amounting to $920. Difficulty occurring between H. & R. they discharged, when Mr. H. applied to the books, papers, and debts of the establishment to Mr Clarke, placing them in his hands in the name of the firm, to pay the debts of the firm. &c. Mr. R. was dissatisfied with the arrangement and notified defendant not to pay the money due the firm to Mr. C.; he was also notified, on the other hand, not to pay to Mr. R. Mr. Clarke entered an action to recover the $325. Mr. Galbraith, defendant's attorney, offered to pay Mr. C. if he would show that he had authority to collect both from Mr. H. and Mr. R. Mr C. finally stated that he had authority from both, and that Mr. H. had gone to Philadelphia, and he (Clarke) thought he had authority from the firm to collect. The $325 was accordingly paid to him. Mr. Renoull, who had not left for France, and testified that he had no intention of doing so, on learning what had been done made the complaint alluded to; and an examination had taking place before the police, Mr. Clarke made the statements complained of. To the statement about the complaint it was stated to have been instigated by Mr. G. the attorney, which was denied, and it was also said that the defendant himself knew nothing about either. To be continued this forenoon.—For plaintiff, Mr. C. in person, Mr. Schafer, and Mr. Romeyn; for defendant, Mr. Edward Sandford.

Before Judge Sandford.—Reviere C. Wortendyke vs. William Grange.—Action for slander in saying defendant had committed perjury (in an affidavit as to an action between them) already referred to. Verdict for plaintiff, $150.—For plaintiff, Mr. Winslow; for defendant, Mr. C. C. Egan.

Wm. H. Webb vs. The National Insurance Company.—To recover on a policy of insurance for loss by fire at the ship yard of Mr. W. corner of Lewis and Seventh-sts, some months since. The controversy was principally as to $215, the value of six repeaters which the Company claim on the ground that they intended were not included. The Jury gave a verdict for plaintiff of $1,500, being amount.—For plff, Mr Cutting; for defdt, Mr Whiting.

Herman Vandermulen vs. Jacob Bulger et al.—The plaintiff was owner of a cargo of salt, which was in brig belonging to defendants, or in their name, which vessel foundered, and with the cargo was lost. The present is an action to recover the value of the salt on the ground of design on the part of the person having charge, which was denied. To be continued this forenoon.—For plaintiff, Messrs Gerard & Cutting; for defdt, Mr. Lord.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS—Before Judge Ulshoeffer.—Wm. Sembler vs. Sanger L. Bishop.—Action for assault and battery in flogging plaintiff a lad, with a horsewhip, already referred to.—Verdict for plaintiff $50, costs.

Samuel McHenry vs. Thomas F. Price.—To recover $150, the value of some brandy sold by Mr Powell, of the firm of Powell & Co. No. 16 Broadway, to plaintiff who is a marble manufacturer, but never upon the late Deputy Sheriff. It was contended by defendant that the sale was not bona fide, but done to hinder, &c. creditors. The case was tried before, and a verdict given for plaintiff, but new trial allowed on account of some informality. The Jury found for defendant.—For plff, Messrs. Allen and Hudson; for defdt, Mr. Blunt and Messrs. Brown & Matthews.

James A. Emmins vs. Edward McCahill.—To recover damages for assault and battery on defendant, who keeps a grocery in Eleventh-st near the Dry Dock. It appears that the plaintiff was in his store one night and lost sixpence, with him in playing dominoes, but could not pay it, and afterward, it was stated by a lad, pushing him into the entry, where the lad said he heard something fall, and then pushing plaintiff out of the hall door on the sidewalk. One of the relatives of plaintiff turned the lad out of the house into the sidewalk, and was badly bruised. Some persons coming along, they took him home. Plaintiff was a ship fastener, with a family, and earned $1 75 a day, but has earned little or nothing since, the occurring in May. He was eight weeks in the hospital, and will be always lame. Verdict for plaintiff, $1,750. [It was said by counsel for plaintiff that defendant owns the house he lives in.] No defence was offered.—For plaintiff, Messrs Altere and Hudson.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS.—In the case of George Rice, whose trial for defrauding William Roberts of a gold watch, by the thimble-rig game, was commenced on Monday, the Jury yesterday returned a verdict of not guilty.... Patrick Walsh, who was arrested some time ago, on a charge of stealing a $50 bank bill, was brought into Court and discharged, the Grand Jury having ignored the complaint.... Ann O. Gunnell was next called to trial, on an indictment charging her with having stolen gold coin and bank bills to the amount of $110, the property of Mr. Charles J. Leahy, in whose employ she had been as a servant girl. The Jury found her guilty, but recommended her to mercy, and the Court sentenced her to the State Prison for the term of 2 years and 1 month.... Wm Ruger, indicted for opening sundry letters while employed as a carrier, pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to 1 month's imprisonment in the Penitentiary.... Ann Shaw was next placed at the bar for trial, on a charge of stealing $20 in bank bills and specie, the property of John Murphy, at the residence of the former, on the 18th of July last. The Jury acquitted the accused.... John Hermesse was then called to trial for having, on the 13th ult. stolen $240 from William Steel, at a public house kept by Mr. Speight, at the corner of Murdougal st and Waverly-place. After examining the complainant, the Court adjourned until to-day.

COURT OF SPECIAL SESSIONS.—John Joineer was sent to the Penitentiary for 30 days for a violent assault and battery upon his wife Ann Joiner; the complaint was made by her husband.... James Hutton was sentenced to 15 days imprisonment in the City Prison for stealing a pair of boots, valued at $2; he also plead guilty to the charge.... John Brown was found guilty of stealing a dressed sheep, from the stand of Edward Thompson in Washington Market; the Judgment was suspended.... Wm Wright, by the Court.... James Walters, colored, was sentenced to the Penitentiary for 60 days for stealing a coat valued at $12.... Eneline Seely, colored, was sentenced to Blackwell's Island for 30 days for an assault with a knife upon Maria Johnson, also colored; Sally Ann Jones, also colored, was sentenced to the Penitentiary for six months for being concerned in stealing a live hog valued at $5, the property of Abram Warner. It appears from the evidence adduced, that he, with an accomplice, had the hog in a cart driving down the Bowery, when near Houston-st the cart broke down, the hog jumped out, and Curtis after it.

POLICE COURT.—Johannes Birdschelder, residing in Greenwich st, preferred a complaint against and caused the arrest of a young man by the name of Charles Wollensleger, a native of Switzerland, charging him with stealing a box containing several gold watches, chains, lockets, rings, &c. the property of the complainant. He was committed to prison for trial by Justice McGrath.... Officers Pease and Kent of the Tenth Ward arrested an Irish girl named Catharine Kearney, also a native of Ireland, charging her with a female named Elizabeth Riley (who recently arrived in this country) of $12, being the entire amount of her funds. She was locked up for further examination by Justice Osborne.

BROOKLYN.

COURT OF OYER AND TERMINER.—The criminal business commenced yesterday in earnest. The Court was opened pursuant to adjournment. Samuel Brown, indicted for assault and battery with intent to kill, was found guilty. Sentence suspended.... James A. Hughes, indicted at a former term for obtaining money under false pretences, was called upon for sentence. It appeared from the Deputy Attorney General, that he had escaped from custody.... John Gillespie, who pleaded not guilty to a charge of illegal voting in the Second Ward, asked leave to take back the plea and plead guilty. Sentenced to pay a fine of 5 cents.... Edward Johnson, found guilty of assault and battery, was sentenced to 30 days hard labor in the County Jail 10 days.... John Conner was also convicted of an assault and battery.... The Grand Jury then came into Court, presented a few indictments, and returned to finish their business.... Henry Earle, indicted on two distinct charges of burglary and one of grand larceny, was arraigned and plead guilty to two of the counts in the indictment for burglary and two for larceny.... Wm. Earle, a brother of Henry, plead guilty to 7 counts for burglary and 1 of larceny.... Jacob Fox, alias Jacob Jones, plead guilty to 3 counts for burglary, to 3 for counts for burglary, and one for arson, to all of which he pleaded not guilty.... Jesse Hill and William Toms were then brought into Court, charged with breaking into a butcher's stall in Williamsburgh, pleaded not guilty.... William Moore pleaded not guilty to a charge of grand larceny.... Hannah Cooper pleaded guilty to a charge of receiving.... Christian Dox, Jr. pleaded not guilty to three counts in an indictment for burglary in the first degree.... Johanna Schull, alias Johanna Knul, was arraigned on a charge of grand larceny, and pleaded not guilty.... Alexander Mallet, a colored man, was then put upon his trial, charged with having, on the night of the 4th of November last, assaulted and attempted to shoot one John Donnelly and others. The case was given to the Jury at 5 o'clock in the evening, and the result had not been made known when our reporter left.

WILL BE PUBLISHED

ON WEDNESDAY, the 14th—HOW TO BE HAPPY, an admonitory essay for general and family perusal.

"Men at some time are masters of their fates;
The fault, dear Brutus, is not in our stars
But in ourselves, that we are underlings."

By R. J. CULVERWELL, M. D., author of "What to Eat, Drink and Avoid." Nearly 300 pages of original and friendly counsel to readers of all ages, of either sex, and of every class of society, from the affluent to the humble—the hearty and robust to the feeble and weak—the thoughtless and lighthearted to the hypochondriacal and infelicitous—instructing them How to be Happy. The aim of this little work is to convey to persons not read in or not given to think upon physiological and philosophical matters, a popular understanding of the laws of the economy of human life, (mind and body) and all circumstances conducive to Longevity, Health and Happiness! It being contended that it is to general ignorance we owe ill health, and from general obstinacy and mismanagement we are unhappy and depressed.
