Law Courts.

SUPERIOR COURT—Before Judge Oakley.—David Braden et al. vs. Shaw & Carter—Action of trover, to recover the value of a quantity of carpetings purchased by S. & C. then keeping a Pearl st. but were unsuccessful in business. The claim in trover is on the ground of fraudulent failure, &c. which was denied. Testimony was taken, and a nonsuit granted.—For plaintiffs, Mr. David Graham and Mr. Carpenter; for defendants, Messrs. Newton and Nelson.

Before Judge Sandford.—John H. and Wm. H. Horsfall vs. James Bishop & Co.—To recover the value of a note for $[illegible], given to the Pelican Mutual Insurance Company, and endorsed to plaintiffs. The Pelican Company has passed to the hands of a receiver. For plaintiff it was said to have been a stock note, while for defence it was claimed to have been a subscription, or premium note, given on a suggestion, to obtain $100,000 in notes, to make the Company more popular in the country; that the Company was then insolvent although the President represented to the contrary, and one of the plaintiffs, to whom the note was afterward transferred, knew the Company to be insolvent at the time of the transfer. The evidence was here closed. Verdict for plaintiffs in amount and interest.—For plaintiffs, Messrs. Gerard and Platt; for defendants, Romeyn and McKinstry.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS—Before Judge Daly.—Florentine C. Gray, vs. Chas. Davis.—In a suit promised to be given for the purchase of a hat stock, but the agreement to take which Mr. Gray subsequently refused to consummate. The case has been in Chancery and considerable litigation had. To be continued.—For plaintiff, E. Sandford and Mr. G. in person; for defendant, Messrs. Spencer and Delafield.

Special Term.—Before Judge Ulshoeffer.—John W. Gray, vs. George M. Hanover.—Habeas Corpus in relation to the custody of a child, of which the defendant is the reputed father. The child is claimed by the plaintiff, all knowledge of the residence of whom, and where it is detained by Dr. H., is denied by the latter. The case was argued in Florence Gray, vs. John Dupuy. Plaintiff keeps a refectory at 209 Broadway, and complains of Mr. D. who keeps a store immediately adjoining, being careless and negligent as to the Croton water, which forced to run down upon him, rendering his apartments unhealthy and uncomfortable. He claims damages to the amount of $1,000. Reserved.

James Smith vs. Calvin Grinnold and others.—Application for an order permitting plaintiff to sell, under foreclosure of mortgage for $[illegible], certain household premises in Greenwich st. between Anne and Liberty sts. Order granted.

This being Good Friday, the Court for trials adjourned to Saturday.

COMMISSIONER'S COURT.—The Commissioner's Jury were asked yesterday to estimate what would be a fair rent of premises 100 feet in South Seventh st. Williamsburgh, asked for by the owner, who stated that it was stated that the new Company have purchased several lots immediately north of the present ferry house for $30,000. It was said the property immediately north of the ferry was more valuable than that south, owing to there being more room. The present ferry ship was the property of the Ferry Company, adjoining south, were estimated to be worth from $40,000 to $50,000. It was stated that a ferry, either at the foot of South Fifth or South Eighth st. would be more out of the way of the tide than at the foot of South Second st. Witnesses were sworn, and where the new Company wish it should be. Testimony to be continued.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS.—John Snell, indicted for grand larceny, bailed by Thomas Batchelder; Wm. Schuler, indicted for libel, bailed by G. Keese; James Casey, indicted for grand larceny, bailed by Abraham Ferris; Jas. Ferris, indicted for grand larceny, bailed by Conrad Vertue, failing to answer to their names, their recognizances were declared forfeited.—George Sweet, indicted for having on the night of the 11th of February, robbed Henry Armstrong of $10 50, was called up for trial. It appears from the evidence, that on the night in question he was in a porter house on the corner of Anthony and Centre sts. where he found the prisoner and a man named Carpenter; after drinking, the complainant went out, and was followed by Carpenter, who knocked him down, and Sweet coming up at the same time, put his hand into the pocket of Armstrong and took his pocket book containing the money. The complaint against Carpenter for the assault was dismissed by the Grand Jury. The Jury found the prisoner guilty, and the Court sentenced him to 15 years' imprisonment in the State Prison. The Court then adjourned till 11 o'clock this morning.

For School Inspector ..... ROBERT H. JOHNSTON.

The following resolutions were submitted and unanimously adopted by the meeting:

Resolved, That in CHANDLER L. INGERSOLL our candidate for Alderman of the Thirteenth Ward, we recognize a practical working-man, and a friend of working men; a man who will be a working Alderman and a steadfast advocate of an economical administration of the City Government.

Resolved, That JOHN PEARSALL, our candidate for Assistant Alderman, from his known character and standing as a citizen, gives a certain assurance that in the office to which we are about to elect him he will prove a faithful and efficient public servant.

Resolved, That our Assessors and our whole ticket are eminently entitled to the cordial and hearty support of the Electors of the Thirteenth Ward, and that we will use our utmost exertions for the success of the ticket.

Resolved, That we respond, heart and soul, to the recommendation of the Whig General Committee. We believe that Reform is necessary, and that the only way to obtain it is by nominating to the people of this city a fair and proper Charter, under which we can all rally, and therefore we are in favor of the amended City Charter.

The meeting was eloquently addressed by Messrs. Chas. Riddle, J. T. M. Bleakley, and E. Davion.
