HOME SILK CULTURE

The Notable Undertaking of a Generous Southern Woman.

A Noble Project Which Looks to the Provision of Employment for Poor People of the Gulf States.

It is proposed to introduce silk culture and manufacture into the south. To this end the commissioner of agriculture in Washington asks congress for an appropriation of $10,000 for experimental purposes, and says: "We annually import $50,000,000 worth of raw silk which should be raised in this country."

The governor of South Carolina has appointed a scientific commissioner to take charge of the enterprise—Miss Henrietta Aiken Kelly, of Charleston. She has spent six years in Italy, making a scientific study of silk worms and mulberry culture, and is soon to return to this country and push the work already begun. She has appointed a committee in each county in South Carolina to act until she takes charge in person, says a Washington report.

The secret of silk culture is ability to select eggs that will hatch. This is obtained only after careful scientific research with the microscope, and this is what Miss Kelly is now doing in Paris—completing her study of the Pasteur microscopical selections of seeds (eggs), the only successful method in raising cocoons.

Miss Kelly emphasizes that this silk culture movement will provide work for the poor and unemployed, particularly of the gulf states.

Her American representative, Mary T. Lawton Metcalf, of Great Kills, Staten island, acting chairman of the centennial committee of scientific silk culture in the United States, lays great stress on the part it will play in settling the dark and ominous race problem of the south.

Before Miss Kelly began her six years' course of scientific silk culture investigation in Paris she achieved distinction as an original and successful teacher in the south. She was the principal and proprietor of the Charleston (S. C.) female seminary when she went abroad to study silk culture.

Miss Kelly's influence and personality have impressed themselves on every life of girlhood with which for 25 years she has come in contact. In every state of the union may be found women who are training sons and daughters by methods learned at her school—upon the basis that the mind triumphs over matter, that love of country promotes its progress and is a noble passion.

She is now prepared scientifically to provide a noble agricultural industry for the unemployed masses of the south and all sections of the United States where the mulberry tree is indigenous and luxuriant. Miss Kelly proposes to establish a national college of scientific silk culture (sericulture) in the buildings of the Charleston female seminary. She offers this property, valued at about $30,000, free of rent, for five years to the United States government, through the department of agriculture. The secretary of agriculture has recommended to congress an immediate appropriation of $10,000 annually for five years to be devoted to scientific silk culture.

SO SWEET AND PLEASING IN TASTE!

Mrs. C. Peterson, 625 Lake St., Topeka, Kan., speaking of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, says: "It has never failed to give entire satisfaction, and of all cough remedies, it is my favorite, and I must confess to my friends that it will do, and has done, what is claimed for it—to speedily cure a cough or cold and it is so sweet and so pleasing in taste." 25c, 50c and $1.00 bottle at Slover Drug Co.

A PHYSICIAN WRITES.

"I am desirous of knowing if the profession can obtain Herbine in bulk for prescribing purposes? It has been of great use to me in treating cases of dyspepsia brought on by excesses or overwork. I have never known it to fail in restoring the organs affected, to their healthful activity." 50c bottle at Slover Drug Co.

CHILDREN'S COUGHS AND COLDS.

Mrs. Joe McGrath, 327 E 1st St., Hutchinson, Kan., writes: "I have given Ballard's Horehound Syrup to my children for coughs and colds for the past four years, and find it the best medicine I ever used." Unlike many cough syrups it contains no opium, but will soothe and heal any disease of the throat or lungs quicker than any other remedy. 25c, 50c, and $1.00 at Slover Drug Co.

READ IT THROUGH.

To use an 18th century phrase, this is an "o'er true tale." Having happened in a small Virginia town in the winter of 1902, it is a story very much of the present. Up to a short time ago, Mrs. John E. Harmon, of Melfa Station, Va., had no personal knowledge of to rare curative properties of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. "Last January," she says, "my baby took a dreadful cold and at one time feared she would have pneumonia, but one of my neighbors told me how this remedy had cured her little boy and I began giving it to my baby at once and it soon cured her. I heartily thank the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for placing so great a cure within my reach. I cannot recommend it too highly or say too much in its favor. I hope all who read this will try and be convinced as I was." For sale by all druggists.

IT SAVED HIS LEG.

P. A. Danforth of La Grange, Ga., suffered for six months with a frightful running sore on his leg but writes that Bucklen's Arnica Salve wholly cured it in five days. For ulcers, wounds, piles it's the best salve in the world. Cure guaranteed. Only 25 cts. Sold by W. F. Kremer, druggist.

WELL AGAIN.

The friends of John Blout will be pleased to learn that he has entirely recovered from his attack of rheumatism. Chamberlain's Pain Balm cured him after the best doctors in the town (Monon, Ind.,) had failed to give relief. The prompt relief from pain which this liniment affords is alone worth many times its cost. For sale by all druggists.

The Benefit of Change.

We are like house plants—we need a change of soil now and then, to be transplanted. New scenes, new experiences, new surroundings, a change of climate, dry air instead of moisture, sunshine in place of cloud.

This is sometimes essential to health. There are conditions near at hand that are better than Europe can offer. Take a month or two in California. Plant yourself for a time where there are no irritations, where the hotel is beyond criticism, the landscape pleasing, and where warm sunny weather invites to walks and drives. Pure and dry air, and the increased electric influences of susbine are vastly helpful.

You can take this trip at very little expense, and enjoy a ride over the scenic Siskiyou and Shasta mountains, which, at this time of the year with their snow covered peaks, are unsurpassed for their grandeur.

ONE WOMAN AMONG THE THOUSANDS.

We received a letter from Waycross, Georgia, a few days ago, from a lady who has lived there for years. She writes us that she had been troubled with female complaint for a long time, until she was reduced almost to a shadow. It effected her mind, she could not remember any thing would get so confused and so nervous and irritable she could hardly sleep. She described her case as one similar to thousands of other women, and then ended the letter by saying she gained 18 lbs. last month, and never felt better in her life, having no trace of her former troubles, slept well and ate her meals with a relish. This lady commenced the use of Dr. Gunn's Blood and Nerve Tonic just six weeks before she wrote the letter from which we copy the above. This tonic is in tablet form and should be taken right after meals. It turns the food you eat into strong rich blood, making solid flesh and feeding the nerves, curing disease by making healthy flesh. Pale, weak thin people should use this tonic. Sold by W. F. Kremer for 75c per box or three boxes for $2. Sent postpaid on receipt of price. Address Dr. Bosanko Co. Phila., Pa.

TRAGEDY AVERTED.

"Just in the nick of time our little boy was saved" writes Mrs. W. Watkins of Pleasant City, Ohio. "Pneumonia had played sad havoc with him and a terrible cough set in besides. Doctors treated him, but he grew worse everyday. At length we tried Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption and our darling was saved. He's now sound and well." Everybody ought to know, it's the only cure for coughs, colds and all lung disease. Guaranteed by W. F. Kremer, druggist. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

CATARRH OF THE HEAD AND THROAT

It eradicates the disease from the system and restores the mucous membranes to a healthy condition and will cure catarrh no matter where located. For sale by all druggists. Book on catarrh free. MORE RIOTS.

Disturbances of strikers are not nearly as grave as an individual disorder of the system. Overwork, loss of sleep, nervous tension will be followed by utter collapse, unless a reliable remedy is immediately employed. There's nothing so efficient to cure disorders of the Liver or Kidneys as Electric Bitters. It's a wonderful tonic, and effective nervine and the greatest all around medicine for run down systems. It dispels Nervousness, Rheumatism and Neuralgia and expels Malaria germs. Only 50c, and satisfaction guaranteed by W. F. Kremer, Druggist.

CURES SCIATIC RHEUMATISM.

Mrs. A. E. Simpson, 509 Craig St., Knoxville, Tenn., writes, June 10th, 1899: "I have been trying the baths of Hot Springs, Ark., for sciatic rheumatism, but I get more relief from Ballard's Snow Liniment than any medicine or anything I have ever tried. Enclosed find postal order for $1.00. Send me a large bottle by Southern Express." Sold by Slover Drug Co.

WAKEFUL CHILDREN.

For a long time the two year old child of Mr. P. L. McPherson, N. Tenth St., Harrisburg, Va., would sleep but two or three hours in the early part of the night, which made it very hard for her parents. Her mother concluded that the child had stomach trouble, and gave her half of one of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, which quieted her stomach and she slept the whole night through. Two boxes of these Tablets have effected a permanent cure and she is now well and strong. For sale by all druggists.

DISLIKED BY NATURE

Towns That Seem to Be Chosen Marks of the Elements.

Where Rain Falls Heaviest, Snow Lies Thickest and Thunder and Lightning Exhibit the Greatest Violence.

There is more than one town against which Dame Nature seems to harbor a curious spite, as if she would say: "This site is not meant to build upon." Langtoft, a little place of some 600 people in the East Riding of Yorkshire, England, is one of these. Over and over again has the weather all round been fine and clear, yet the valley in which Langtoft stands has been shrouded in heavy clouds and drenched with rain. The snow in winter always seems to lie thickest on the wolds above the town, and to cause floods more or less disastrous as it melts in the spring.

The climax came on a Sunday evening two summers ago, says the Chicago Tribune.

After a hot day a violent thunderstorm broke. Then there appeared in the west an inky cloud, from which hung four long, twisting black columns.

Suddenly, just after six o'clock, a wall of water came roaring down the hillside above the village. When it struck the upper end of the street it was seven feet high. In a twinkling it had demolished a number of houses, and torn partitions from others, and swept away everything in its path. What was left was so plastered with mud and earth as to be almost useless.

No one was killed, but the destruction of domestic animals, of houses, property and roads was complete. Gardens and grazing lands were ruined. Even the parish well was utterly choked with mud and dead animals.

Southbourne-on-Sea, four miles on the east of Bournemouth, has far better air than the latter town, and looks as if it ought to be just the site for a health resort. Tens of thousands have been spent in the effort to make it so, yet nature had said no, and man's efforts have proved unavailing.

A handsome pier was built, supported on the shore by immense cement walls. The pier is now only approached by a single plank. Its center supports are gone, and it is the resort only of two or three fishermen. The cement wall looks like a wave-eaten cliff. Further along the shore a neat row of houses was built in a great recess, cut back at vast expense in the cliff. The sea cut in below them, and the owner was forced to raze them and carry the material away.

There is no great city in Europe which nature so evidently wishes to be rid of as St. Petersburg. Built in the first place on a low-lying swamp, which was filled in at a cost of hundreds of lives and hundreds of thousands of pounds, fevers reduced its population and gave it a death rate higher than any other European capital. Failing so to oust its holders, nature used a new weapon. The ice came down in spring out of Lake Ladoga, and, piling against the new wharves and bridges, dammed the Neva and flooded the city. Every spring saw a repetition of these disastrous floods, which, even after they dried away, left the streets mere quagmires. The St. Petersburgers now defeat the flood by setting to work thousands of men at the first spring thaw, who cut and blast the river ice and leave free passages for the lake ice to sail down stream unhindered.

Yet still the struggle goes on. For some years past it has been apparent that St. Petersburg is becoming a city of toothless people. Dentists ascribe this curious fact to the effluvia from the rotten vegetation deep buried under the new suburbs of the city. So serious is the matter becoming that there is a strong agitation in favor of once more removing the capital of Russia to some other site.

Russia has another town against natural forces are waging a terrible war. This is Schemacha, in the Caucasus. When Schemacha was founded it was for long impossible to get a supply of drinking water. The difficulty was overcome by bringing water from a distance. Next came a series of terrible epidemics—first smallpox, then cholera, and then smallpox again. Yet the city grew helped to prosperity by the petroleum trade, and began this year with 25,000 people.

In February last the town was humming with industry, when one dull but warm morning came suddenly a terrific crash of thunder. The solid ground began to vibrate. A few seconds later there was a horrible cracking sound, and the whole of the Mohammedan quarter was thrust upwards bubble-like till its houses were reared high upon a hill. The bubble burst, and instead of a town there lay a formless heap of ruins, from which red flames leaped and crackled toward the gigantic pall of dust which hid the sky.

Within a week Schemacha's survivors determined to rebuild their ruined city. They had hardly reached the decision when once more the ground began to tremble and the night sky grew ruddy with flame. News came that a new volcano had burst out in the mountains nearby. No plainer warning could be given. Extinct volcanoes have often burst out afresh, and with shocking and terrible results, as in the case of the recent disaster at St. Pierre, whose thousands of inhabitants have entirely perished.

IT IS UP TO THE DOCTOR.

A lady wrote us a few weeks ago from Winchester, Va., that she had been under a doctor's care for 4 years for dyspepsia, the pain seemed to center under her left shoulder blade, and was so severe at times that she could neither eat nor sleep. She had lost faith in her home doctor, and asked us to send her samples of our Dr. Gunn's Improved Liver Pills which had been recommended to her. We sent her two pills. In a few days she sent for a box. Now she writes that the pain under shoulder has left her entirely, she enjoys her meals and never sleeps less than 8 hours every night, and this has all come about in two weeks, and cost her 50c for two boxes of pills. Says the doctor charged her $50.00 and that she told him he had better take the $50.00 and invest it all in Dr. Gunn's Improved Liver Pills and build up his practice. We have not received the Doctor's order yet but any one having dyspeptic, bilious spells or sick-headache can get a speedy cure by the use of these pills. Sold by W. F. Kremer or by mail 25c per box on receipt of price. Samples free. Address Dr. Bosanko Co. Phila., Pa.

The 8 Hour Day

Which the working man has fought for and succeeded in obtaining is something the wife has no share in. Her day begins before his and ends long after it, as a rule, and many a night her rest is broken by the baby's fretfulness. The healthiest woman must wear out under such a strain. What can be expected then of those women who are weakened by womanly diseases? Women who are weak, worn-out and run-down will find new life and new strength in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Sick people are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

"I suffered with female weakness about eight years—tried several doctors but derived no benefit until I began using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. John Green, of Danville, Boyle Co., Ky. "This medicine was recommended to me by other patients. I have taken six bottles and I feel like another person."

The dealer who offers a substitute for "Favorite Prescription," is only seeking to make the little more profit paid on the sale of less meritorious medicines. His profit is your loss. Refuse all substitutes.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets should be used with "Favorite Prescription" whenever a laxative is required.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE

The largest sum ever paid for a prescription, changed hands in San Francisco, Aug. 30, 1901. The transfer involved in coin and stock $112,500.00 and was paid by a party of business men for a specific for Bright's Disease and Diabetes, hitherto incurable diseases.

They commenced the serious investigation of the specific Nov. 15, 1900. They interviewed scores of the cured and tried it out on its merits by putting over three dozen cases on the treatment and watching them. They also got physicians to name chronic, incurable cases, and administered it with the physicians for judges. Up to Aug. 25, 87 per cent of the test cases were either well or progressing favorably.

There being but thirteen per cent of failures, the parties were satisfied and closed the transaction. The proceedings of the investigating committee and the clinical reports of the test cases were published and will be mailed free on application. Address John J. Fulton Company, 420 Montgomery St. San Francisco, Cal.
