Liverpool Cotton Market.

Report for the week ending June 15th.—The last accounts from the United States speak favorably of the weather and the hope of considerable acreage to the injury done to the growing crops by the frosts in the middle of April, though it will be a late crop. They also contain no further reports of the total quantity of the present crop, which is so far satisfactory, as it will receive as a supply for the consumption of Europe and America during the present year, but will probably leave no reserve beyond that necessary amount. The quantity now afloat, on its way to Europe, is considerable. Our market, however, has undergone no change—has suffered no depression; perhaps rather the contrary. These advices from the United States relating to supply, are so fully met by continued large consumption, that holders, upon the whole, seem more confident and firm than heretofore. There is, however, no quotable variation in the value of prices. Long-stapled descriptions, including Sea Islands, are a little more in demand; and it may be noticed that, as long Egyptians of all qualities will be in the hands of speculators, at present the better sorts only are in request. 12,860 American, 500 Surat, and 100 Pernam, have been taken on Speculation, and 2,100 American, 400 Pernam, and 100 Egyptian, for Export. Sales for the week, 40,700 bales—Geo. Holt & Co.

American Produce Market at Liverpool.

The state of trade has somewhat improved during the past week.—There is increased activity in the manufacturing districts, and all the population being fully employed in these districts, a very large consumption of all articles of food is going on.

Ashes—It will be seen that the imports have again been large, exceeding nine sales, which amount to about 2,500 barrels. These sales, comprising principally parcels of inferior quality and out of condition, that have lately arrived, have been forced to sale, but with a recedition of 2s 6d to 5s. Better qualities, the worst parcels being disposed of, have shown more firmness during the last few days, and an advance on the rates is now asked. The finest parcels are held firmly. For Home there is a better demand, and the stock in the market is reduced. Shoulders cannot be disposed of freely, unless at lower rates.

Rice—Sales of a few small cargoes arrived, the demand continuing to be principally for the finest parcels. There is no change to note in prices.

Cotton—We have no stock on hand, and the import has stopped for the season. The prospects for the coming season are still worse than at the date of our previous advices, Better having fallen in the trade in Ch, a much lower range of prices is now the rule, which is a reflex of this part of the year. Shippers of American Cheese must, therefore, base their operations on an expectation of a low range of prices throughout the year.

Lard—The activity and firmness in the market previously noticed, having passed away, the demand the week has been very small, though a decline of 6d per cwt. has been submitted to. The low price of Butter is also interfering largely with the consumption of Lard. Greene Butter is in better demand at 52s to 55s.

Linseed Cakes have had a very limited sale at our quotations.

Tallow—The sales have been almost for extent, but at a further reduction in price for the lower qualities, 40s having been taken for good parcels Westerncake.

Hams—Nothing doing, 40s has been taken at 2s 6d to 5s 6d for common, and 45s 6d to 50s for finer qualities.

Tallow—The demand has been moderate, without any change in prices.

Tar is in good demand, and there are few parcels now offering at quotations.

Metals at Liverpool.

This market has not undergone any change during the past week. Holders of manufactured Iron are still disposed to press sales, and prices are well supported. A limited business is doing in Scotch Pig, and prices are maintained, sellers giving way; 40s to 42s 6d may now be considered the rate of mixed Nos. free on board, at Glasgow. The demand for Tin Plates is dull, and few sales are reported; prices are quoted at 20s to 21s per box for 1C Charcoals. There is no alteration in the value of Lead or Copper.

London Provision Market.

The value of small Meat is from 6s to 6d, and heavy 5s to 6d. Arrivals are 680 bales for the past week. Only a limited demand exists for American at 4s to 4s. Middles fine American are in good price American at 40s to 42s, and Prime Mess at 45s. Irish prime Mess is 47s 6d to 50s, but the market for American is quiet at from 50s to 55s. Hams continue to find a free sale; Irish 42s to 46s, English 50s to 60s, and Westphalia 54s to 62s, but the market for American is in fair request. Irish bacon is in good demand. Lard is in excellent demand at from 52s to 56s, but large and fine American sells at 40s to 44s, and Prime at 52s to 54s. Only a limited demand exists for Cheese—English 70s to 74s, Kinden 38s to 50s, Gouda 30s to 40s, and Kostor 70s to 72s per cwt. The value of Scotch Pork is about 40s to 42s.

Havre Markets....June 13.

Cotton—On the 7th inst advices from the United States, per Hibernia, came to hand; these accounts being variously interpreted, our market has been in a state of inaction. Upward of 4,000 bales changed hands with no and a sensible improvement in prices took place. The choicest, added to the pointed, unfavorable in Havre, lies therein a check on our thoroughness, which yesterday reached 1,000 to 1,500 bales per day. Sales yesterday reached 547 on Monday, and yesterday 474 bales; prices, nevertheless, were exceedingly steady. Our stock is reduced to 23,231 bales. The following were the sales offered, viz:

4,650 bales N. Orleans	85 to 92	110 bales Halti	—7 to 9
1,561 " Mobile	80 to 91	25 " Pernambuco	84 to 89
1,768 " Upland	82 to 91	10 " Bengal	80 to —1

Total, 8,577 bales.

Rice—For some time past there has been a considerable depression, owing to the advice of continued shipments from the United States on our part, also the transactions of the week denote a further fall in prices. The sales reach only 75 bags New York, Patna at 47f to 49f. Cargo remains nominal at 40f to 42f, and 40 bags Penang, which were exposed at auction, duty paid, at 50f per 100k.

Quercitron Bark continues neglected; we quote Bilt noise at 12f 50c to 13f, and Pale at 17f 50 to 18 per 50 kil, duty paid, but no buyers.

Rye—The demand, without much activity, has been pretty regular, and 900 bushels Carolina found buyers at 57f to 58f 50. Superior Descriptions continue scarce, but holders are ready sellers on account of the considerable supplies expected; our stock is estimated at 800 to 900 thousand. No inquiry for East India, and prices remain nominal at our last quotations.

Tobacco—Is entirely neglected, and prices remain nominal at 45c 50f for Russian, and 54 to 58f for American, according to quality.

Wheat—There has been very little doing in this article; only 8,000 kil found buyers at 12f 50 to 13f per quel, and 3,000 of superior quality at 13f per 80 kil, duty paid. No several parcels were directly applied to consumption, and in consequence our actual stock is reduced to about 60,000 kil of all sorts. We expect, however, by the New York packets some supplies, with influence prices, and 4,000 are obtained with fresh by for good qualities, but ordinary descriptions are disposed of with difficulty at 30f per 80 kil, duty paid. No arrivals.

Hudson River Thoughts.—Our friend L. Gaylord Clark of The Knickerbocker was obliged to crowd the following out of the 'Editorial Table' of the July Knickerbocker—wherefore, we shall undertake to crowd it into The Tribune:

As one glides up the Hudson, in an afternoon steamer, he will see occasionally, on the right bank of the river a sudden puff of smoke, then booms a report, and presently, tumbling into the water, or burrowing in the ground, throwing up a cloud of dust, come the disjointed fragments of rocks, disrupted by gunpowder, to make a smooth highway of iron through the everlasting hills. We had been reading the late foreign news as heard the 'Erie' steamer the other afternoon, when one of the aforesaid 'blasts' occurred; and thereupon we thought on this wise; that the smoke, the reports, the upheavings of kingdoms and petty principalities, on the other side of the water, would be followed by present disruption, and the fall of unrighteous thrones and tyrannies, never to rise again, while the car of liberty should roll peacefully over the now troubled earth. Tyranny may exult over the temporary repression of petty tumults; these are but the receding waves, repulsed and broken for a moment on the shore, while the great tide is rolling on and gaining ground with every breaker. Look at the Hungarians:

'Their swords are a thousand, their bosoms are one,
They are true to the last of their blood and their breath;
And like reapers descend to the harvest of death.'

What the result will be, time alone can make manifest While the friends of liberty hope, it may also be the part of wisdom to fear. But in any event, 'the end is not yet.'

POLICE COURT.—A Mr. John Fagan, at present residing in First-av. between Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth sts. formerly of Stamford, Conn. appeared at the Essex Police Court yesterday, and entered a complaint against one Patrick Fagan, whom he charges with having stolen, on the 27th of October, 1846, from the premises of deponent, in Stamford, Conn. the sum of $600, the property of deponent, his brother, Brian Fagan, and cousin, Thos. Fagan. The money was in bank notes of various denominations, on the Stamford and other Banks. Deponent alleges that the accused acknowledged to him that he took the money, brought it to this City, exchanged it for silver, and deposited the silver in the Bank of Savings in Chambers-st. Under these circumstances the accused was held by Justice Simpson, for examination....Officers Hawks and Parker yesterday took into custody a female of respectable appearance, named Jane Murray, residing at 61 Lexington-av. on complaint of Mr. Jas. DePeyster, of 103 West-Fourteenth-st. who charges her with having, at various times during the last two or three years, thrown filth of the most disgusting description upon his premises. She was committed by Justice Lathrop to answer the charge.

BROOKLYN.

POLICE COURT.—Thomas Moru was arrested by an officer, charged with beating his wife while intoxicated in a very serious manner. His wife was in a very delicate situation, and was much injured by her husband's brutal conduct, who also assaulted his neighbors when they attempted to interfere. Judge Smith fined the accused, and held him to bail in the sum of $500 to keep the peace for six months....A man named James McCoy preferred a complaint yesterday against three persons, viz: Charles and Jane McKinney, and Morris Golden, charged them with having entered his room while asleep, and taking therefrom a watch, valued at $30, and a $5 gold piece. Officer Folk arrested the parties, and found the property in their possession. The prisoners allege that McCoy gave them the articles while in a state of intoxication to keep them for him; but Justice Truman Smith committed them for examination.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS AND CHOLERA HOSPITALS.—The 'Sanitary Committee' of our inestimable Corporation having taken one of the largest Ward Schools of our City for a Cholera Hospital, and being on the look out for other School-Houses to be converted to the same use, the Board of School Commissioners at their last meeting unanimously remonstrated against this perversion, past and future. The Sanitary gentlemen have responded in a Report to the Common Council, defending their course and intimating that they intend to go ahead in it. Their principal reasons are as follow:

1. Suitable buildings for Cholera Hospitals other than School-Houses are obtained with difficulty, and at a heavy cost;

2. The Schools are to have a month's vacation in August, and it will only be taking another month to sequester them to Cholera purposes now;

3. The School-Houses are very convenient and commanding for Hospitals;

4. The City is badly in debt, her expenses are running up annually, the Cholera will make a heavy extra bill any how, and economy must be studied as far as possible.

5. It is doubtful whether the children might not better be kept at home in seasons of epidemic like the present.

—To these reasons, fairly condensed from the Sanitary Report, we answer:

1. Hundreds of new buildings are going up all over the City, while many old ones are doomed to be speedily taken down, and their use in the Summer months cannot be worth a great deal. If the Committee had widely advertised for suitable buildings, they might have obtained them for three months at a reasonable rent;

2. This taking of the School-Houses by the arbitrary power of a body wholly unconnected with their management causes great mischief. In the first place, all the salaries of Teachers, &c. must be paid the same as if they were in operation, amounting to some $300 per month for an average school; and the children thus driven out in June and July have no assurance, and can have none, that they will be taken back as early as the 1st of September. The probability is quite the other way. Here is a derangement of the entire Education of machinery of the City;

3. The Schools will be permanently injured by this appropriation. It will be difficult to cleanse them thoroughly after the Cholera shall have abated, while the fact that they have been so perverted will connect with them ideas of pestilence and death, most unfavorable to the feelings with which the children should regard them. Many children now driven out to idleness and vagrancy will not be easily brought back again.

4. Economy is an excellent thing: but saving the rent of a building by turning five hundred to a thousand children out of school and paying their teachers' salaries for nothing, strikes us as not the genuine article; and

5. We consider the children more likely to preserve their health in school than if dismissed to the street; while the stopping of a part of the Schools will inevitably crowd others with chance scholars, creating the very predisposition to pestilence which the Committee deprecate.

—Our readers have now both sides of the story before them, and must judge between them.

☞ Mrs. EDWIN FORREST is at present on a visit to Mrs. Bryant, the wife of the poet, at Hempstead, Long Island. With Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Willis and Miss Anna Lynch, the poetess, she recently passed a few days at West Point. Mrs. Forrest goes from Hempstead to pass some time with Rev. Dr. Dowey's family at Sheffield, Mass. and we understand that at the close of the Summer she will take up her residence permanently in New York.

LIBEL CASE.—A. M. Alexander, and M. Stratton, residing at No. 101½ Grand-st. Williamsburgh, yesterday, entered a complaint at the Lower Police Court against Edmund B. Child and E. S. Murray, Editors of a paper known as "America's Own," charging them with having published on the 9th inst. in that paper, a gross libel on his character in an article headed "Tea." A warrant was issued by Justice Lathrop for their arrest.

ROBBING A LAWYER'S OFFICE.—Some graceless scamp, either Thursday evening or early Friday morning, feloniously entered the office of Messrs. Gridley & Hedley, in Nassau-st. and stole a number of articles consisting of miscellaneous books, office coats, &c. We would advise the lawyers to keep a sharp look-out for the rascals, as a number of similar robberies have taken place under the same circumstances.

FOUND DROWNED.—The body of a man was picked up in the East River yesterday afternoon, and laid on pier No. 2, awaiting the Coroner. He had on a blue cotton shirt, gray mixed pants, and shoes. He has a scar running round his chin from ear to ear, and must have been in the water a long time.

BROOKLYN AFFAIRS.

WARD SCHOOLS.—We yesterday were present at the half yearly examination of the pupils of Ward School No. 8, Middagh-st. and must express ourselves highly pleased with the gratifying results accruing from the indefatigable exertions and attentions of the Principal, Josiah Reeve, Esq.

The Ward Schools of our city and those of the neighboring one are creating a great deal of interest just now, from the peculiar advantages and visible progression of education which have been presented by the late Semi-Annual Examinations and the importance of such Seminaries where the future mind of the country is shaped into form and is excited into primary action, cannot be too highly stated; nor can the exertions of the teachers be too highly commended when we see such hopeful fruit ripening under their care and attention.

The exercises which took place yesterday were examinations in Greek, Latin and English Etymology, Astronomy, the translations and parsing of passages in Latin, Geography, declamations, &c. and in the answerings of which a thorough knowledge of the fundamental rules was perceptible by the readiness and precision with which the students expressed themselves. In the declamation we have rarely heard better, even from older speakers, and an extract from Nott on the death of Hamilton was spoken with excellent intonations, fine emphasis and feeling, by Philip Holmes. Messrs. Walker, Ackley, Wood and Fuller also acquitted themselves honorably in the exercises of the day. The Female department answered their course of Astronomy and Geography in a very good style; and there was some excellent singing. We understand that Judge Greenwood, one of the Trustees, has taken a particular interest in this portion of the studies, having been much struck and delighted with the proficiency in harmony and chanting of the schools in Europe, especially in Prussia, in a late visit, and is now exerting himself to promote the same study in the schools of Brooklyn. Certificates for scholarship, and general deportment were distributed to the deserving pupils, and the prizes were addressed by J. den J. Spooner, Esq. Mr. C. S. Sperry, S. J. Arnold, Esq. of the Brooklyn Eagle, and Samuel G. Holmes City Superintendent; and after inspecting some maps needlework and specimens of penmanship, which were highly creditable, the well-pleased assemblage broke up. The registered number of pupils at this school is between 600 and 700.

A BURGLAR ARRESTED.—Officer Whitehill arrived here from Peekskill yesterday, having in his custody a man named Charles Crist, who is charged with being an accomplice of a man named Williams who is accused of having committed a burglary on the premises of a Mr. Hart, a furniture dealer. Williams has confessed his crime, and charges Crist upon affidavit with assisting him in the burglary. Upon these facts Crist was arrested as above stated, and confined to await an examination. Some tools, corresponding with those taken from Mr. Hart, were found in the possession of the accused.

ADJOURNMENT.—The Common Council met on Wednesday evening last and then adjourned till Monday, July 9, thereby skipping one session.

AMERICAN MUSEUM.—Unlike the theaters, BARNUM'S Museum never has occasion to take a recess. The public insist that it shall continue open all the year round, and never fail to fill it twice a day. GOURAUD'S RAMBLES AMONG THE PLANTS AND FLOWERS. NO. XII.

That glorious flower, on leafless stalk upheld, is the Cactus Speciosissimus; how haughtily it seems to bear itself toward its more humble, but scarcely less beautiful companions, the red and white Ladies' Slippers—with shapes as petite and graceful as ever Cinderella wore! Here, too, judiciously interspersed, we notice clusters of the evanescent Poppy; whose brilliant colours seem to fall the senses into forgetfulness of every thing but the richness & variety of their hues.

Nothing can surpass the transparency, whiteness & delicacy of texture which the human skin assumes after it has been washed a few times with GOURAUD'S Italian Medicated Soap! With its application, Tan, Freckles, Sunburn, Sallowness, Pimples, Redness, & Roughness, seem to vanish with the rapidity of magic. It is also delicious for shaving, and a sovereign remedy against the bites of mosquitoes and other insects. Equally astounding are the results of its application of GOURAUD'S Poudre Subtile in the uprooting of superfluous hair! GOURAUD'S Liquid Rouge imparts a magnificent roseness to pale cheeks & lips!
