SATURDAY MORNING, AUGUST 1.

☞ STATE ELECTION NEXT THURSDAY.

☞ New candidates out this week.

A young lady was a few days since, arrested in Boston, for obstructing the sidewalk with too great an expansion of hoops and crinoline, and the court inflicted a fine of $5 as a warning.

SYRIAN WHEAT.—A gentleman from Alabama received from the Patent Office some spring wheat from the "Farm of Abraham," at the foot of Mount Carmel, in the Holy Land, which he sowed during the past spring. It came to maturity in seven weeks, producing a large, full head, with a berry in every respect equal to the original. This wheat is reputed to ripen in Syria in sixty days from sowing. It will thus be seen that our climate hastened its period of maturity about eleven days.

SHOCKING CATASTROPHE.—A romantic father, whose name was Rose, called his daughter "Wild," so that she grew up under the appellation of "Wild Rose." But in a few years the girl fell in love with and married a man named Bull, which sadly interfered with the romance of the lady's name, "Wild Bull."

BANNER OF PEACE.—This paper, published at Nashville, comes to us this week in a new and beautiful dress. It has been considerably enlarged, and is now one of the neatest and finest looking papers that we know of. It is published and edited by Rev. W. E. Ward, is a faithful and able organ of the Cumberland Presbyterians, every one of whom ought to take it.

HARPER FOR AUGUST.—This sterling work has been received. Every body knows the superiority of Harper over most magazines. It is THE magazine! Terms $3 per annum; in club with the Home Journal, $2. Gentlemen, do you want a GOOD magazine at a low price?

☞ Among the latest items of news from Havana is the following: "One of the most curious speculative movements in which, since the day of joint stock companies, our neighbors have engaged, is the organization of a company for the purpose of encouraging the growth of cotton. The capital of the company is put down at eight millions, divided into four thousand shares of $2,000 each.—They propose to buy up all the cotton-growing lands of the island, especially such as are unfit by nature or otherwise for the growing of sugar, and put them at once under cultivation. The company also proposes to engage in cotton manufactures. The movers speak with confidence of the enterprise, which they assure us has the approval and encouragement of the Government."

'Better Late than Never."

If there be any left who have not yet had their pictures taken, we now give them one more warning to go forthwith, and let Hubbard fix them up in his usual elegant and satisfactory manner. Circumstances are uncertain, human beings are transitory, and no one knows what hour or day he may leave. Look out, then, and be opportune.

Loving and Trusting.

When other friends are round thee,
And other hearts are thine;
When other days have crowned thee
More fresh, more green than mine:
Then think, O! think how lonely,
This throbbing heart must be;
Which, while it beats, beats only,
Beloved one, for thee!

Yet, do not think I doubt thee,
I know thy truth remains;
I would not live without thee,
For all the world contains.
Thou art the star that guides me,
Across life's troubled sea;
And whatever fate betides thee,
This heart will turn to thee.

NORTHERN ROWDYISM.—The rowdy nomenclature of the principal Northern cities may now be classified as follows:

NEW YORK.—Dear Rabbits, Bowery Boys, Forty Thieves, Skinners, Robin Hood Club.

PHILADELPHIA.—Killers, Schuylkill Annihilators, Moyamensing Hounds, Northern Liberty Skivers, and Peep-of-Day Boys.

BALTIMORE.—Plug Uglies, Rough Skins, and Double Pumps.

A. Crooker's Millinery Establishment.

A. Crooker, Nashville, Tenn.

This establishment is on Union street. When any of our friends visit Nashville and wish to get a nice bonnet, let them visit Crooker's. His assortment is the largest and most enticing in the city.—In fact, it is difficult for ladies to select a bonnet at Crooker's not because of the paucity of the stock or inelegance of the styles, but because they are bewildered by the great variety and beauty of the assortment to choose from. They experi such sensations while beholding it, as one feels in a rich conservatory surrounded by the rarest exotics, and laved in their delicious perfumes. They have such emotions as led the poet to wish that the lips of all womankind, especially the beauties, were condensed into one pretty pouting pair that he might, in kissing them, kiss the whole race. Where there is so much elegance, so great a variety, a choice must be difficult. The thing's natural; and the dear creatures are not to blame. But not of bonnets alone does Crooker's congress consist. Nearly all descriptions of millinery goods are represented there—from the lightest and most etherial to the heavier fabrics which art produces to adorn the loveliest of nature's handiworks. Plan of the Lottery.

The numbers from 1 to 30,000, corresponding with those numbers on the tickets printed on separate slips of paper, are encircled with small tin tubes and placed in one wheel.

The first 272 prizes, similarly printed and enclocled, are placed in another wheel.

The wheels are then revolved, and a number is drawn from the wheel of numbers, and at the same time a prize is drawn from the other wheel. The number and prize drawn out are opened and exhibited to the audience, and registered by the Commissioners; the prize being placed against the number drawn. This operation is repeated until all the prizes are drawn out.

APPROXIMATION PRIZES.—The two preceding and the two succeeding numbers to those drawing the first 17 prizes will be entitled to the 68 approximation prizes. For example: if ticket No. 11230 draws the 60,000 dollar prize, those tickets numbered 11228, 11229, 11231, 11232, will each be entitled to 225 dollars. If ticket o. 550 draws the 20,000 dollar prize, those tickets numbered 548, 549, 551, 552, will each be entitled to 200 dollars, and so on according to the above scheme.

The 3,000 prizes of 20 dollars will be determined by the last figure of the number that draws the 60,000 dollar prize. For example: if the number drawing the 60,000 dollar prize ends with No. 1 then all the tickets where the number ends in 1 will be entitled to 20 dollars. If the number ends with No. 2, then all the tickets where the number ends in 2 will be entitled to 20 dollars, and so on to 0.

We invariably answer letters by return mail enclosing the tickets in a good safe envelope, and always observe the strictest confidence. After the drawing is over, we send the official drawing, with a written explanation of the result of the venture. All Prizes bought at this office are payable immediately after the drawing in Current Money, and we take Bank Notes of any State, or Bank Drafts in payment for Tickets at par. For odd amounts in making change we receive postage Stamps; they being more convenient than silver. Correspondents may place the utmost confidence in the regularity and safety of the mails, as very few or no miscarriages of Money happen when properly directed to us. Be careful that you mention your Post Office, County and State. Give us at least one single trial, you cannot lose much, if not gain. One single trial may make you independent for life. TRY US.
