GENERAL NOTICES.

☞ At a Meeting of the Citizens of Huntington and Northport, held Sept. 1, at the latter place, for the purpose of devising means for the better support of the regular steamboat line to and between the above villages and the City of New-York, and to take some action with reference to the Opposition boat, where-as LEMUEL B. ROGERS, was Chairman, and H. J. SCUDDER, Secretary. After a brief address from the Chairman, and some remarks from O. H. Gardiner—on motion made, seconded and passed—a committee was appointed to draft and present to the meeting resolutions expressive of its feelings and intent. The following Preamble and Resolutions were presented:

Whereas, It has long been the desire of Stony Brook, Northport, Huntington and the villages adjacent to establish a permanent steamboat communication to and between the said villages and the City of New-York, whereby should be opened not only a cheap and comfortable mode of travel, but also a commodious channel for the quick and profitable shipment and sale of the produce of such villages and the country adjoining, thus tending to their vigorous enlargement and advance of interest: And Whereas, for several years past repeated applications have been made to the Messrs. Peck, steamboat owners of the City of New-York, for a boat to ply on such route, or for their aid in procuring a boat, and securing the results above mentioned, which applications have been refused; and while, furthermore, we have good reason to believe that others, owners of steamboats have been deterred by these gentlemen from speaking us in the premises, so that for several years we have been compelled, when traveling between the villages aforesaid and the City of New-York, to journey at unseasonable times and by expensive and uncertain routes, and have led our agricultural resources crippled by the incontinent and oppressive cost of slow and insecure modes of transportation: And Whereas, in the Spring of the present year, through the zeal and perseverance of a large number of citizens of Centreport, the steamboat Gazelle was procured and commenced her trips on this route, and has since continued her trips thereon, to the great satisfaction of the traveling community of our villages and benefit of their various interests: And Whereas, the Messrs. Peck have evinced, continuing their opposition to the establishment of a steamboat line on the route above mentioned, are now actively engaged in an attempt to injure and destroy the interests of the said Gazelle and compel her owners to withdraw from and abandon this route, to which end they have prevailed thereon the steamboat Suffolk, as an opposition boat:

Now, therefore, in view of these circumstances, and of the great importance to us and our friends of the neighboring villages of sustaining a steamboat line between these villages and the city, it is hereby

Resolved, That while we heartily commend all honest competition in the walks of life, and especially approve of generous strife for public good resulting in the diminishing of rates and increase of speed and comforts of traveling, yet we feel called upon to condemn the course of the Messrs. Peck in the present opposition, which, if successful, would but end in the withdrawal of both boats, as we are well assured it is the purpose of these gentlemen to continue their boat upon this route only until such time as they can effect the discontinuance and overthrow of the regular line.

Resolved, That the conduct of the Messrs. Peck with reference to the regular boat has been gratuitous, and uncalled for on our part, as we are in no wise displeased with the said boat, or her owners, or officers, nor are we dissatisfied with their established rates and charges for freight or passage; nor has this conduct been elicited by acts of the owners of the regular boat Gazelle in interfering with the routes or touching at the landing places of boats under command or direction of the Messrs. Peck.

Resolved, That we will firmly and heartily sustain the steamboat Gazelle as the boat entitled to this route, and to the patronage of our citizens, or such other boat as may be placed thereon by the owners or friends of the regular boat, and will use all our individual and cooperative influence in behalf and for the aid thereof.

Resolved, That we entertain toward the Messrs. Peck every charitable and kind feeling as between man and man; that we have been frequent recipients of their kindness and gentlemanly conduct while traveling on boats under the respective commands or direction, and in these resolutions are no wise disposed to reflect personally upon these gentlemen—and while we would befriend them in their legitimate lines of business, yet we feel compelled to add, that we will not countenance, see at, or give comfort in any way to the opposition boat by them placed upon this route.

Resolved, That whereas we have ascertained that objections have been frequently expressed and are now held by robots of our citizens to the sale of spirituous liquors at the bar of the steamboat Gazelle, therefore, for the more unanimous aid of said boat, we would respectfully recommend the owners thereof to discontinue and wholly abolish all traffic in such liquors on board said boat.

On motion, the report was accepted, and the resolutions unanimously adopted.

A Committee was appointed to procure the publication of the above resolutions, and the meeting adjourned, sine die.
