Another Lie Nailed!

No portion of the Military has been called out for Election Day, as has been stated by The Herald. The City is quiet, and no disturbance is apprehended. We are however assured that the Mayor has taken all requisite measures to preserve order, and that the Police will be ready to act on the instant in case of any attempt to commit any breach of the peace.

A Forgery Headed Off.

Who are Entitled to Vote.

FOR INSPECTORS OF ELECTIONS.
OFFICE OF COUNSEL TO CORPORATION, MONDAY, Nov. 5, 1849.

GILBERT DAYTON, Esq. of Election, Thirteenth Ward:

SIR: In answer to the questions submitted by you to me, I have the honor to state,

That to entitle any one to vote at the ensuing election for ANY officer, he must possess the following qualifications:

1. He must have been a citizen of the United States at least ten days preceding the day of Election, and of the age of 21 years.

2. He must have been a resident of the State for one year next preceding the Election.

3. He must have been a resident of this County for four months next preceding the Election.

By the term residence the law means that the person voting has had no permanent abode for the terms mentioned out of the State or county. Absence on business or pleasure, with the intention of resuming residence in the State or county, does not work a legal change of residence.

4. He must be an actual resident of the Election District where he votes at the time of voting.

Persons possessing these qualifications can vote for all officers to be elected, except Senators, Members of Assembly and Ward Officers.

5. To vote for Senators, in addition to the above qualifications, the person must have resided in the Senate District where he votes for at least thirty days preceding the election.

6. To vote for members of Assembly, in addition to the above qualifications, the person must have resided in the Assembly District where he votes for at least thirty days preceding the Election.

7. To vote for Ward officers, in addition to the above qualifications, the person must have resided in the Ward where he votes for at least thirty days preceding the Election.

The remarks made as to residence in the State or County apply equally to residence in the Districts or Ward.

An attempt to vote by a person knowing he is not legally entitled to vote, is as much an offense, by the Election Laws, as the consummation by illegally voting, and to vote or offer to vote more than once at the same Election is equally a criminal offense.

I believe the above remarks contain full answers to all the questions submitted.

I am, with respect, yours,
HENRY E. DAVIES.

From Mexico.

By the arrival of the steamer Tenoit at Mobile we have advices from Vera Cruz to Oct. 22, and Mexico to the 13th. She should have sailed from Vera Cruz on the 9th, but was detained by a tornado.

The Sierra Gorda insurgents have submitted. The cholera, which has been very severe in several Provinces, is diminishing. A revolution had been set on foot at Toluca, but the Government getting wind of it arrested the plotters and ended their scheme. The journals of the city of Mexico are discussing annexation to the United States. El Siglo XIX. is the annexation organ.

ACCIDENT ON THE NEW-HAVEN RAILROAD.—Yesterday morning at about 9 o'clock, as the express train from New-York to New-Haven and the down train from New-Haven to New-York were meeting each other a short distance beyond Morrisania, both ran into a drove of cattle which was on the tracks and could not be got off in season. Both trains were thrown off toward each other, and each careening, they came in contact and the locomotives and cars were considerably damaged. The passengers were a good deal frightened and some slight injuries took place, but no one was killed or badly hurt—there was, we understand, some mortality among the cattle.

Further Particulars.—One man had his leg broken by the accident this morning; nine cattle were killed; one locomotive had its machinery destroyed though its running part was so far uninjured that it could be drawn down to be repaired; 3 cars were totally smashed, as was one tender. The road is encumbered with the ruins so that the cars cannot pass the spot on either track. The wonder is that several people were not killed by the concussion which so totally destroyed the cars they were in.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENTS.—A most painful accident occurred near Paterson on Saturday morning. Mr. Megler, a wood-cutter, was engaged in cutting down a tree in the woods and when it was half cut through it fell. Mr. M. seeing his danger, attempted to escape, but in vain; he was knocked down by the tree and his two thigh-bones broken. He remained confined under the tree for nearly three hours before the sad accident became known; the place where the accident happened being remote from any residence, it was not until his son brought him his dinner that it was found out. He was immediately conveyed home and surgical aid procured.

While on the way home with the wounded man, a lad (his son) fell out of the wagon and the wheels passing over his leg, fractured it dreadfully.

ARREST OF THE ARKANSAS MURDERERS.—We have advices from the Northwest, by which we learn that Gen. Wood had succeeded in arresting most of the persons implicated in the recent outrages in that portion of our State. Gen. Wood called into requisition a considerable military force, and quietly set to work in a great measure, restored. J. N. Everett, —— Stathon, Robert Adams, Robert Cowin, Harry Love, Jesse Mooney, and Hansford Tutt, have been taken. They were placed in the Marion Co. jail to await their trial. A gentleman who arrived in our city on Wednesday evening from Carroll Co. informs us that 13 persons had been arrested, and that the military were returning to their homes. This gentleman also heard it reported that Jesse Mooney had been examined at Yellville, and admitted to bail in the sum of $5,000; and that Judge Scott had appointed Mooney to the office of Sheriff, which station he resigned on the commencement of the difficulties in Marion. [Little Rock (Ark.) Dem. Oct. 13.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—The train due yesterday at 3 o'clock, met with an accident near Fonda. A loose rail threw the train off the track, and the baggage, mail and express freight cars were upset. The mail agent, Mr. Alexander, had his face bruised in his fall, but was not materially injured. The express agent received some slight bruises on his leg and arm, but otherwise luckily escaped. No one else was hurt. The train was kept back until 7 o'clock. It was a fortunate escape. [Albany Evening Journal, 3d.

Markets....BALTIMORE, Nov. 5—12 M.

The news by the Hibernia has had no effect on the market for Breadstuffs and Provisions, while holders of Cotton have advanced their views, but as yet no transactions of sufficient magnitude have been made to give a correct state of the market.

Land Warrant Frauds—The Pension Office.

Correspondence of The Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Sunday, Nov. 4, 1849.

Some time since I alluded to the indisputable fact of five different Land Warrants having been issued by the Pension Office upon as many different sets of spurious papers papers, all in the name of one and the same soldier, when, by operation of law, he was entitled to but one warrant. Since that time, upon investigations that I have made in the Pension Office, I find that there are other instances where more than one Warrant has been issued in the name of the same soldier. There is no department of this Government in a worse condition than the Pension Office, nor one where flagrant abuses require greater or more prompt reformation. Whether this is attributable wholly to the Commissioner, or but in part to him and the rest to his subalterns, I will not pretend to assert. One fact, however, admits of no dispute. The public, as well as the Government, look to him as the responsible person for all abuses arising out of the Administration of the affairs of his office; and if he is unable so to manage and control those affairs as to give little or no satisfaction to such persons as are necessarily brought in contact with him, his place should be assigned to some one who can accomplish what others are doing daily. A large number of applications of poor widows and guardians, in behalf of suffering minor heirs for Land Warrants, are reported, in answer to earnest entreaties, as "missing." And applicants who filed their papers twelve and eighteen months since, are in many instances now required to commence de novo, or abandon altogether any attempt to procure from the Government the small pittance coming to them from their deceased ancestor. I mention this from no personal ill-will, or political prejudice toward the present incumbent, but solely from a sense of duty. The public good and the rights of soldiers and their heirs demand that a change should be made in the Commissioner of Pensions, or that a radical reformation should be effected in the daily management of that office and transaction of the business connected with it. There are yet upwards of Twenty Thousand claims for Warrants undisposed of, and, taking the past month as a criterion, it will require about two years or more for the present incumbent to dispose of them. Under proper management, and with a prompt, energetic, accommodating head, this Bureau could get rid of all this species of business in one quarter of the time.

The many frauds that have been perpetrated upon the Pension Office, most of which, in my judgment, could, by ordinary diligence and precaution, have been guarded against, especially the issuing of duplicate Warrants to the same person, has compelled those entrusted with this matter to act with more prudence, and to institute a more rigid examination into all applications for Warrants. This appears manifestly from an inspection of the records and books of the Pension Office itself. For instance, from February to June last inclusive, there were over 3,000 applications for Land Warrants disposed of each month; from July to September the average is over a thousand, while in the month of October but 525 were disposed of. There are yet some 2,000 or 3,000 cases to be acted upon, and it could not consequently have been for the want of applications that was the cause of this rapid diminution in the numbers disposed of by the Pension Office.

You can judge some little of the extent of the fraud in Land Warrants, when I tell you that it appears on record in the Pension Office, that there has already been actually canceled 340 Warrants that have been put in circulation, as being totally void, and a fraction under 150 suspended for further investigation. The number of such cases are rapidly augmenting, as appears by the returns in the Pension Office for the months of September and October. The fact is, that the public mind should be relieved in all matters connected with this subject by a rigid examination and prompt report of a Committee of investigation directed by Congress.—This would shield the Commissioner from unmerited censure, and at the same time would fix whatever responsibility upon him for these abuses the facts alone would warrant. CITY ITEMS.

MONDAY EVENING, Nov. 5, 1849.

☞ On Friday night we had a real grape-sweetening, burr-opening frost, which ripened the autumnal air to a vinous sunshine that came melting and thrilling into our hearts on Saturday and Sunday like some glorious human sentiment. Yesterday was indeed such weather as our visions are embellished within when we dream of Paradise. Were we Mahomedan we should have felt the breath of houris in the sleepy air, and deemed the dawn colored mist that gauzed the blue distance but the aromal vapors of Aidenic censers, such as are softly swung about the couches of world-wounded spirits. Ah such days! How they compensate us, one for a thousand, of the miserable, shivering dreary intervals we are forced to call days!

THE BRIDGE TO BROOKLYN.—We have very little room, until after the election, to devote to subjects that can possibly receive the go-by, but we are bound to keep the Brooklyn Bridge question before our readers until we have time and space to go thoroughly into the business, and show that it is a necessary and entirely practicable project, and that the interests of both New-York and Brooklyn demand its accomplishment. The people of London and Paris have settled the question of the superiority of bridges to ferries, and we entertain no doubt that New-York and Brooklyn will soon be prepared to profit by their example.

WILL OF THE LATE JOHN MASON.—The Supreme Court, General Term, (Justices Grey, Shankland and Sill) rendered, this forenoon, a decision on the long pending suit, Joseph Alston and wife vs. Isaac Jones, et al, in which the former sought to set aside the will of the late John Mason, deceased, on the ground of undue influence, &c. The will was originally confirmed by the Surrogate and also by the Circuit Court on appeal. This Court ordered that the decisions of the Surrogate and Circuit be reversed, and issue by Jury awarded.

SAVED FROM DROWNING.—Yesterday evening a man, name not ascertained, supposed to have been intoxicated, fell into the river at the foot of Canal-st. He was got out by some police officers of the Fifth Ward and taken to the Station-house, where Capt. Carpender got the assistance of two physicians, and after great exertion succeeded in restoring him to life. It was close battle between life and death.

SUICIDE.—A man named James Smith, residing at 85 Columbia-st, committed suicide yesterday afternoon about 3½ o'clock, by cutting his throat. We could ascertain no probable cause except possibly jealousy. He was about 27 years of age, and had been married 16 months. An inquest was held, but we did not see the papers.

FUNERALS.—Munn Lodge, No. 3, Freemasons, were in procession with music and banners yesterday, to lay the mortal part of a brother in Greenwood.... James O'Brien, formerly a member of Engine Company No. 22, was borne to his last earthly rest by a long procession of firemen in habiliments of mourning.... Mechanic's Lodge No. 113 I. O. O. F. went to Williamsburgh to attend the funeral of Samuel Bodine, a late member.

FIRE ALARM.—There was an alarm in the Twelfth Ward on Friday evening caused by some burning brush at Carmansville, on the Kingsbridge road.... Two feather beds in the house 94 Roosevelt-st. accidentally caught fire about 7 o'clock last evening, but the flames were soon extinguished.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—We learn that yesterday afternoon a Harlem stage was upset by some accident, whereby several passengers were seriously injured and one boy instantly killed. The arm of another boy was broken.

IMPORTANT ARREST OF COUNTERFEITERS.—About two years ago, a batch of counterfeited bills on the New-Haven Bank at New-Haven, Conn. made their appearance and created much astonishment by the accuracy with which they were engraved, and the skill with which the names, &c were filled in. No trace, however, could be obtained of the counterfeiters. Only about $1,200 of this emission was ever discovered by the Bank. About one year ago the $5 and $10 bills of the New-Haven County Bank, at New-Haven, were counterfeited, with the same mastery as to the engraving and the same extraordinary skill in the signatures. Of this emission some $3,000 or $4,000 were discovered by the Bank.

The two Banks, thereupon, made the most vigorous efforts to detect the villains. They also warned the public to beware of said counterfeits, and took measures to procure new plates and paper, calling in their old emissions as fast as possible. This was nearly accomplished, when, in August last, the officers of the New-Haven Bank were astounded by the discovery that their new $5 plate had been counterfeited with the same exact imitation as the old. Of this emission only $300 or $400 bills have been discovered by the Bank.

Since the appearance of this third counterfeit, the two Banks have been unceasing in their efforts to solve the mystery, and bring the offenders to justice, and their efforts have at length been successful. Henry Knickerbocker, William E. Brockway, and a man by the name of Snyder, have lately been arrested at Hudson, on the charge of being concerned in getting up or passing these counterfeits, and facts were elicited which leave no reasonable doubt that some, if not all of them, are guilty. Beside the above, three persons have been arrested at Brooklyn, one in this City and one elsewhere, making eight in all, supposed to have been concerned in the villainy. Officers are in pursuit of others of the same gang.

The prominent part taken in the counterfeiting by Brockway, was made known by Knickerbocker, (who was first arrested,) but not till many ineffectual efforts to induce him to confess. Among other things, he states that he received $4,000 of the counterfeits from B. for the purpose of getting them exchanged for other bills, but that finding some difficulty in so doing, he returned $3,500 of them to B.

It appeared that the villains had not confined their operations to the New-Haven Banks, but had got up and issued counterfeit twos on the North River Bank in this City, and also counterfeits on one or two other Banks. [Jour. of Com.

ACCIDENTS.—On Saturday a carter named William Gough residing at 102 Washington-st, was standing on his cart at the corner of Broad and South-sts, when his horse was knocked down by a spar that was passing on a wagon. Gough fell on his head on the pavement and fractured his skull.... Jerry Meany, 12 years old, when playing with another boy on Friday evening was knocked down and broke his right arm.... On Saturday evening John Gray residing at 22 James-st, was crossing Greenwich-st, corner of Cortland-st he was knocked down by a horse and cart which was driven at a furious rate down Cortlandt-st, his head was cut and his side severely injured.

DESTROYING FURNITURE.—John Nichols, Thos. McConkey, Richard Jolly, Jane McCarty and Ann Woods went into the public house of Frederick Landman, corner of Madison-avenue and Thirty-ninth-st last night, and called for drink, which being refused, Nichols struck Landman over the head with a chair. McConkey struck a man named Wm. Lock with a bench, and others broke up the furniture, &c. They were brought before Justice McGrath, who ordered them to give bail for $500 each to appear and answer.

NEW-YORK REGIMENT.—The surviving members of the New-York Regiment of volunteers met on Saturday evening, preparatory to the formation of a company to be composed of those of their number residing in this city—their object being to escort the remains of such of their comrades as may depart this life to their last home. Mr. Browne (a late Lieutenant) was called to the chair, when the meeting appointed a committee of three to make the necessary arrangements.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—Rachel McGovern, for assault, sent to Police Court. Jefferson Market.... Henry Potts, for assault and battery; discharged.... Martin Doran and Edward Brown, from the XIVth Ward, assaulting two women; sent to Police Court at Essex Market.... John McGurran, assault on John Ward; sent to Essex Market.... Henry Green, assault and battery in XIth Ward; committed.... Nicholas Magan, assault on Jacob Steig, IIId Ward.

☞ The dead body of an unknown man was found in the dock at Boston on Saturday last under circumstances which induce the belief that he had been murdered. On his right arm was imprinted the American flag, sustained by the Goddess of Liberty, and also the letters R. M. which are probably the initials of his name.

☞ The steamers on the Ohio River, running between Pittsburgh and Louisville have made an arrangement to lower their chimneys to accommodate themselves to the Wheeling Bridge.

☞ Daniel C. Williams, a colored boatman, was recently murdered by two Irishmen at the two locks below Huntington, Penn. An individual supposed to be one of the offenders, has been arrested.

☞ On the 14th last a very beautiful supper was given by the citizens of Aberdeen, Miss. without distinction of party, to Hon. Jefferson Davis.

☞ We understand that A. Sidney Johnston, of Texas, has been appointed a Paymaster of the army, in place of Major Forsythe, deceased. [Republic.

☞ Rev. Dr. M Conaughy, President of Washington College, Pa. has resigned the office, after a service of 15 years.

TO PRINTERS.—A complete set of Diving Foles on slides, most approved kind, made by HOE & CO. for sale at the Tribune Office. [illegible]

TO THE SICK.—Mrs. POWERS devotes her time to nursing the sick. He can be found at 117 Seventh-st. [illegible]

DEATH FROM EXPOSURE.—A man named Geo. Freeman was found dead in the Tenth Ward yesterday and brought to the Station House. Coroner Walters will hold an inquest. It is presumed that he died from exposure.

LARCENIES.—Ellen Day, Eighteenth Ward, petit larceny; committed.... William Lee and James Kelly, stealing; discharged because complainant did not appear.... James Ryan, on suspicion of theft, from Third Ward.

GRAND LARCENY.—Ann Moore was taken into custody last night, by officer Sweeney of the Sixth Ward, on a charge of stealing $92 from James Sullivan. Committed to answer.

A LIFE SAVED.—Officer Black of the First Ward, last night got a man named Francis McCadden out of the East River, at pier No. 17.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—An apple woman was knocked over this morning in Broadway, near Vesey-st, by a horse, and pretty badly hurt. We do not know that any person is to blame for the accident.

ALDERMANIC DISCHARGE.—John Brady, drunk and noisy in the Eighteenth Ward, was arrested last night, but found favor in the eyes of Alderman Jackson and was discharged.

THREAT TO BURN.—A man named Jacob Thompson was arrested by the Fourteenth Ward Police last night for threatening to set fire to the house 115 Orange-st. Committed to answer.

ROBBERY.—The grocery store of J. C. Swol, corner of Madison and Oliver-sts was found open last night by the Fourth Ward Police. The money drawer had been robbed of 5 or $6 in coppers.

WARRANT ARREST.—John Lawrence, alias "Fat Larry," was arrested last night by officer Austin of the Sixth Ward on a warrant. He is charged with assaulting Eliza Williams.

INQUESTS.—The Coroner held an inquest yesterday, at the City Hospital, upon the body of Richard Hewitt, a native of Ireland, [illegible] years of age, whose death was caused by injuries received about three weeks since by falling into the cellar of the late City Hotel, a distance of 30 feet. His legs were broken, and he was also internally injured. A verdict in accordance with the above statement was rendered.... Also, upon the body of an unknown man about 40 years of age, who was found drowned in the river near Stryker's Bay. He was dressed in a black cloth overcoat, black cloth pantaloons, blue overalls and brogan shoes; and had the appearance of having been in the water about two weeks. Verdict—"Death by drowning."

The Florida Indians.

Correspondence Savannah Republican.

TAMPA, Oct. 22, 1849.

The talk with the Seminoles came off, as was agreed upon, on the 15th ult. at Charlotte's Harbor.—Gen. Twiggs returned from that place on the 19th to Tampa, bringing with him three Indians, delivered as part of the murderers at Indian River and Pease Creek. Two of them are about 20 years old, the other middle aged. The Chief, Rowlegs, delivered to him also the hand of a fourth, saying that he resisted the attempt to capture him, and was killed, and that the fifth had escaped, but they would catch him as soon as possible, and give him up. The whole of the conference is not disclosed, doubtless from proper motives on the part of Gen. Twiggs. The subject of removal was broached, but little could be gathered from their talk or their countenances as to their feelings or intention in the matter.

Another talk is to be held sometime in December, and then the question of war will be determined. More hope is felt since this conference of a peaceable removal of the Indians than has been heretofore. But little confidence was placed in them to deliver up the murderers or to hold the late talk. They are evidently intimidated, as is shown by their alacrity in delivering up these three, and their promise to catch the other, and by the presence of the Chief, Sam Jones, at the talk, a man who has kept as far as possible from the whites heretofore.

The plan of Gen. Twiggs will further intimidate them. He is about establishing a line of forts from the Manatee River across the peninsular to the Atlantic; these are to be completed before the next talk. The Indians will then see a great force ready to be thrown upon them the moment they refuse to go. General approbation appears to be expressed for the activity and efficiency of Gen. Twiggs in his operations with the Indians thus far.

The three Indians delivered up are to be sent to the fort about to be established at Pease Creek. Whether they will be hung or kept for exhibition, or as guides in case of war is not known. Major Morris leaves here to day with the troops at this place to establish a fort at the burnt store on Pease Creek. Gen. Twiggs leaves tomorrow for the posts north of this.
