PHILLIES SHUT OUT BY CINCI REDLEGS

Errors of Stock and Bancroft and Tony's Fine Pitching Defeat Visitors.

TWO AND NOTHING THE SCORE

CINCINNATI, Sept. 17.—Errors by Stock and Bancroft and Toney's masterly pitching were responsible for Cincinnati winning the second game of the present series from Philadelphia today, 2 to 0.

Only five Philadelphia players reached first base, three of them being left at that bag, while the other two were thrown out at second.

Demaree also pitched good ball, allowing only six hits and giving no base on balls.

The game was played in an hour and eleven minutes, which is the record time for this season on the Cincinnati grounds. Score:

Giants Lose Two to Pirates.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 17.—New York lost two games to Pittsburgh today, the first by a score of 9 to 6 and the second, 10 to 0. Cooper and Benton were both hit hard in the preliminary game, the locals bunching their hits better than New York. In the second game Hill was effective and allowed only four hits and no runs. Manager McGraw and all the players not in the second game were ordered off the field by Umpire Rigler for coaching from the bench. Score, first game:

Superbas Whip Cubs.

CHICAGO, Sept. 17.—Brooklyn bunched five hits off Lavender in the third inning and this, coupled with a base on balls, a wild pitch and an error, gave them a commanding lead and resulted in the defeat of the locals, 7 to 5. Chicago played an uphill battle, inserting three pinch hitters into the game, who delivered, but was unable to overtake the Dodgers, who had added two more runs by opportune hitting in the eighth and ninth innings.

Smith weakened in the eighth when Chicago rallied and was replaced by Rucker. Daubert's catch of a line drive in this inning with men on second and third probably saved the game for Brooklyn. McCarthy's fielding was a feature. Score:

LEONARD HOLDS TIGERS; SOX WIN

Bostons Turn Table on Detroit Crew, Regaining Ground Lost Day Before.

HIT ALLOWED IN EIGHT FRAMES

BOSTON, Sept. 17.—The tables were turned on the Tigers today, Boston defeating Detroit, 7 to 2. The Red Sox's victory gave the local team a lead of two games, making it impossible for Detroit to displace them in the present series.

Leonard's pitching was the outstanding feature of the game, Ably supported by his fielders, he held the hard hitting Tigers to one single in the first eight innings. With the tension somewhat lessened in the ninth, he hit Vitt and put over a ball for Cobb. The latter sent it flying into the right field stand, an unusual hit at Fenway park, and the visitors' only runs were scored.

As in yesterday's game, the fine pitching on one side was not matched on the other. James, Manager Jennings' first choice, proved a poor one, his six bases on balls giving Boston opportunities from which six runs were developed in the first three innings. Boland took his place and pitched a much tighter game.

Although feeling between the teams ran high throughout the game, it was not so much in evidence as was the case yesterday. Score:
