NOTICE TO TAX-PAYERS.—OFFICE OF COMMISSIONERS OF TAXES AND ASSESSMENTS, No. 32 Chambers-street, New-York, January 16, 1860.—Notice is hereby given that the Assessment Rolls of Real and Personal Estate of the City of New-York for the year 1860 are now open for public inspection, and will continue open until the 30th day of April next, inclusive. All tax-payers are earnestly requested to call and examine the same, in order that any errors in the assessments may be corrected. Also, all persons entitled by law to reduction of their assessments, by reason of being clergymen, or for military services; and also literary or charitable institutions, by law exempt from taxation, are requested to make application for such reduction or exemption, previous to the closing of the rolls on said 30th day of April.
The following section of the Act of April 14, 1859, is published for the information of tax-payers:
SECTION 10. During the time the books shall be open for public inspection, as heretofore provided, application may be made by any person considering himself aggrieved by the assessed valuation of his real or personal estate, to have the same corrected. If such application be made in relation to the assessed valuation of real estate, it must be made in writing, stating the ground of objections thereto, and thereupon the Commissioners shall examine into the complaint, and if, in their judgment, the assessment is erroneous, they shall cause the same to be corrected. If such application be made in relation to the assessed valuation of personal estate, the applicant shall be examined under oath by the said Commissioners, who shall be authorized to administer such oath, or any of them, and if, in their judgment, the assessment is erroneous, they shall cause the same to be corrected, and fix the amount of such assessment as they may believe to be just, and declare their decision thereon within thirty days after such application shall have been made to them. No reduction shall be made by the Board of Supervisors of any assessment on real or personal estate imposed under this act, unless it shall appear, under oath or affirmation, that the party aggrieved was unable to attend within the period prescribed for the correction of taxes, by reason of sickness or absence from the city.—Laws of 1859, Chapter 302, Section 9.

The Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the City of New-York in Common Council convened, do ordain as follows:
SEC. 1. The Comptroller is hereby authorized to borrow on the credit of the Corporation, from time to time, such sums of money as may be necessary to supply deficiencies in the Assessment Fund caused by delay in collecting assessments made and levied for opening streets, avenues and squares or public places, and confirmed by the Supreme Court, not exceeding at any time the amount of such assessments, which may be uncollected and due to the Corporation.
SEC. 2. For the moneys so borrowed the Comptroller is authorized, upon presentation to and filing with him of the receipt of the Chamberlain therefor, to issue an equal amount of Bonds of the Corporation, to be known and distinguished as "Assessment Fund Bonds, payable within such periods as he shall deem expedient, not exceeding five years; the said Bonds to bear interest at a rate not exceeding seven per cent per annum, payable semi-annually on the first day of May and November of each year.
SEC. 3. The said bonds shall be signed by the Comptroller, countersigned by the Mayor, and sealed with the common seal of the Corporation, attested by the Clerk of the Common Council, and the same shall be transferable at the pleasure of the holders thereof, only upon the books of the Corporation, at the office of the Comptroller, either in person or by attorney, and certificates of such transfer shall be indorsed thereon by the Stock Clerk.
SEC. 4. For the payment of the said bonds so issued, and the interest thereon, according to their tenor, the faith of the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of New-York, also the assessments aforesaid, with the interest thereon, are hereby solemnly pledged, and the Comptroller is hereby authorized to redeem and cancel the same bonds, from time to time, as they shall become due and payable, out of the moneys arising from the collection of the said assessments; also, to pay the interest to accrue upon said bonds from the moneys arising from the collection of interest upon said assessments.
SEC. 5. Separate accounts shall be kept, both by the Comptroller and Chamberlain, of all moneys borrowed and received by virtue of this ordinance, and the same shall be applied to and used only for the purposes herein specified.
Board of Aldermen, April 12, 1860.
On ayes and noes, adopted.
Board of Councilmen, April 23, 1860.
On ayes and noes adopted.

HALIFAX HOTEL to LET, and possession given 1st May.—This large and well-situated Hotel, built with all modern conveniences, in the center of the city, expressly to meet the rapidly-growing wants of the traveling public, but lately occupied by the Government as Officers' Quarters, will be vacant after the 1st of May, and offers to Hotel-keepers or others desirous of engaging in that business an opportunity seldom met with.
The completion of the railway to Windsor and Truro, the connection established from the former place with St. John, New-Brunswick, Portland, Boston and Canada by the Grand Trunk Railway, and from the latter with Pictou, the various ports in the Gulf of St. Lawrence, Prince Edward's Island and Quebec, together with the arrival at and departure from Halifax direct of the European, American, West Indian and Newfoundland mail steamers, and the long-admitted want of Hotel accommodation in this city, render this enterprise well worthy of consideration.
Application may be made to either of the subscribers at Halifax, and any further information required by persons in the United States will be given by Messrs. Whitman, Bros. & Co., No. 72 Beaver-st., New-York. (Signed)
