LIGE SMITH PLEADS GUILTY TO BOOTLEGGING YESTERDAY.

E. M. Smith, better known as "Lige," was arrested at his room at the Timmerman Saturday night on the charge of bootlegging, and a search of his trunk resulted in unearthing thirty-two pint bottles, worth about $1.25 at the prevailing prices in North Platte.

Smith had been out west for a couple of weeks, he had a trunk that was not completely filled with wearing apparel—just room enough for thirty-two pint bottles; why not load up with something that would tend to cheer up his friends. He arrived home Friday night, twenty-four hours later he was nabbed before he had uncorked or given away or sold a single bottle.

When placed under arrest, Smith was furnished a cash bond for $500 by A. E. Timmerman for his appearance before Judge Woodhurst yesterday afternoon. When arraigned before the judge, Smith was fined one hundred dollars and costs, the latter amounting to $7.50. These sums he paid and he was released on custody.

Fred Frye Writes from Georgia.

Fred Frye, a former North Platte boy who registered at Evanston, Wyo., and was sent from that state to Camp Hancock, Ga., writes as follows:

"Mrs. Jack McGraw and the Sammy Girls: Today I received a package and upon opening it found a sweater and a comfort kit from you. Words fail me in expressing my appreciation, especially as I had been away from North Platte for two years and did not enlist there. It makes me feel that life is worth living when I have this evidence that the home town folks have not forgotten me. I was glad to have the opportunity of going through North Platte on my way here and meeting so many of my friends; also having the pleasure of being served by the A. R. C. Canteen ladies. After leaving North Platte I heard many compliments on the reception given the boys, and I felt proud that North Platte was my old home. At the canteen here the other day I met Eli's Barraclough, Earl Calhoun, and George Meyers, all from North Platte. Until I met them I did not know that they were at this camp.

Sammy Girls I wish to again thank you for the sweater and comfort kit and assure you that I will never cease to think of the good work you are doing for the comfort and welfare of the Lincoln county boys and will always feel I am still one of the boys from home, now more than ever since Mrs. McGraw has volunteered to take care of you.

PERSHING CELEBRATION BIG AFFAIR AND WELL CONDUCTED.

The Pershing birthday celebration Friday evening was not only a big affair, but thanks to Dr. T. J. Kerr and his aides, it was exceedingly well planned and conducted. The parade was certainly a feature of the evening and as a whole was the most imposing of any yet given on patriotic occasions. In line were the G. A. R., the S. W. V., mothers and fathers of boys in service, the drum corps and band, a chorus of singers, the Red Cross, Canteen workers, Junior Red Cross, boy scouts, Sammy Girls, Home Guards, the different railroad orders, and business men and citizens generally, the whole forming a line seven blocks long marching four abreast. Employees of the car department hauled a box car loaded with "explosives" for General Pershing's army, while the shop employes had in line "Big Bertha," the long range cannon. The parade moved north on Dewey to Front, west to Locust, north to Ninth, and countermarched to the court house on Locust.

Upon arrival at the court house selections were rendered by the band and chorus, followed with a four minute talk by M. E. Crosby in which special allusion was made to the fathers and mothers whose sons in service were represented by the stars on the service flag. This flag was unfurled at the close of the address, the band and chorus rendering the "Star Spangled Banner." The unfurling of the flag was very graceful, having been folded and arranged by Lieut. Julius Hoga, of the Home Guards, who was in the navy for four years and was accustomed to the work. The flag dropped from wire stretched from the school house to the court house, and as it unfolded a searchlight was thrown upon it.

On either side of the service flag were the stars and stripes, the whole producing a very pretty effect.

The address of the evening was delivered by Rev. Koch, of the Lutheran church, and it was a strong and splendid one.
