Geo. W. Rhoades Dies.

Geo. W. Rhoades, aged forty-five, employed as receiving clerk at the Union Pacific freight house, died at an Omaha hospital following an operation for gall stones. The remains were brought to this city and the funeral will be held at three o'clock this afternoon.

The deceased was unmarried and for two years past had made his home with Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Barnell, Mrs. Barnell being his sister. He was a member of the Odd Fellows lodge and held in high esteem by all those who knew him.

Welch—Soesbe.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of D. B. Soesbe 118, East 8th street, Sunday, March 28th, at 6 p. m., when Richard Le Roy Welch and Mary Ellen Soesbe were united in marriage, Rev. Sivits officiating.

Daniel Soesbe acted as best man, Miss Margaret Welch was bridesmaid and Miss Bertha Stebbins played the wedding march, "Flowers of Spring." The bride was attired in a brown satin dress and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations. Following the ceremony an elaborate supper was served. The wedding was only attended by the young couples relatives and intimate friends. A large number of beautiful gifts were received.

Another tempting morsel made with BREAD

Besides its tastiness, its wholesomeness, its economy, bread can be used in the most savory and appetizing of dishes. Good Bread with its appealing flavor is the bread to use.

Look at the dainty combination—

EGGS AND GREEN PEAS

- 1 slice Good Bread 3 inches thick
- 1 cup cooked peas
- 2 cups milk
- 4 tablespoons butter substitute, salt
- 6 hard cooked eggs
- 4 tablespoons flour
- 1/2 lemon
- and pepper to taste

Shell and cut each egg in half. Cut slice of BAKE-RITE Bread to suit serving dish, notch it round with a sharp knife and scoop it out so as to form large case. Fry golden brown in hot fat. Melt half the butter substitute in small pan, stir in flour, add milk and stir till it boils. Season with salt, pepper and lemon juice. Lay in pieces of egg and let heat gently. Add remainder of butter substitute to peas, shake them over the fire and season with pepper. Put a layer of peas in bottom of bread croute, and fill up with eggs and sauce and lay it on a hot dish. Arrange border of peas around top and serve at once.

Try this recipe with "BAKE-RITE" Bread today. WE USE COW BRAND FLOUR EXCLUSIVELY.
