HORRIBLE SUFFERING.—Joliet, Ill. May 1.—Six persons from this town on their way to California were lost upon the Plains, where they suffered everything but death. Four of the lost company died, but the names of the unfortunate men who fell victims to starvation are not given. The company, it seems, left Salt Lake for California, but lost their way, and wandered southward. After wandering in that dreary region for months, they struck the Pacific Ocean 400 miles south of San Francisco. The following is an extract from the letter: "We have had a severe time of it. Four months and two weeks we were lost in the wilderness—wandering around and trying to find our way out. We traveled over roads where no white man had ever been before. We lost all we had—wagons, horses, oxen, cows and everything. Three months we had to live on horses and oxen. We killed them and eat them, intestines and all. Four of our company starved to death. We were six days without water. You cannot think how much we suffered." [Detroit Tribune.

A WHOLESALE OPERATION BY FEMALE PICKPOCKETS.—This morning, Miss Sarah Ann Pray, School teacher, East Boston, was robbed of a bead purse, containing $335, at a store on Washington-st. Miss Pray had just taken the money from the Savings Bank to make purchases of wedding dresses, &c. she being about to be married. Near her in the store were two girls, pricing a piece of silk. Up to this time she had kept her hand upon the purse in her pocket, but let go of it to examine the silk. Immediately afterwards she found that her purse was gone, and the two girls who were near by her side but a moment before, were missing. [Boston Traveller.

THE WINNEBAGO INDIANS.—Gen. Fletcher came up on the Nominee, from a visit to his stray Winnebagos in Wisconsin and Iowa. He brought five with him, and reports that the remaining 1,695 or thereabout will be here by grass time.

LEGAL NOTICES.

AT A SPECIAL TERM OF THE SUPREME COURT held for the State of New York, at the City of Albany on the thirteenth day of April, 1850—Present, Hon. Ira Harris, one of the Justices of the said Court, Levi S. Chatfield, Attorney General of the State of New-York, against the President, Directors and Company of the Canal Bank of Albany.

On reading and filing the petition of Andrew White, the Receiver appointed in this action, of the estate and property of the defendants, the said Canal Bank of Albany, duly verified by him, setting forth various matters in regard to his said Receivership, and the estate and property in his hands as such Receiver, and praying, in substance among other things, for an order requiring the holders of the bills or circulating notes of the said Canal Bank, and the holders of any certificates given by the said Receiver on paying the first dividend of sixty per cent. on the said bills or notes, under the order of this Court, as mentioned in the said petition for the balance unpaid on said bills or notes, to present the said notes and certificates for final payment to the said Receiver or otherwise, as this Court may see fit, within such time and at such place as this Court may direct, or be precluded from so doing, and lose all right, benefit and interest by reason or means of holding said notes or certificates, and also to determine and dispose of any claim for interest on any of said notes or certificates, or for such further or other order in this respect, and with regard to the fund to be retained by the said Receiver or deposited in Court, or in some Bank, or in the New-York Life Insurance and Trust Company for that purpose, as the Court may deem proper to make; and also praying that the creditors of the said Bank is necessary or desirable, to direct the said Receiver to call the same on such notice and at such time and place as may be thought proper by the Court; and also praying that the accounts of the said Receiver may be examined and passed upon by some suitable person or persons to be appointed by this Court for that purpose, with such powers under such regulations, on such notice and in such manner as this Court may deem proper, and that the person or persons who may be appointed for that purpose, do also ascertain and determine the amount of debt due to the creditors of the said Bank, not being stockholders thereof, on such notice and in such manner as this Court shall see fit to direct; and also praying that the said Receiver may be authorized to sell at public auction at such time and place and on such notice, terms and conditions as this Court shall see fit to direct, such part of the assets of the said Canal Bank remaining in his hands as such Receiver, as this Court shall be of the opinion, can be properly and judiciously sold, and to do all acts and execute all assignments, releases and conveyances necessary to perfect any such sale or sales; and that this Court will make such further or other order, and give such directions in regard to the premises and to the said Receivership generally, and the estate and effects in the hands of the said Receiver as shall be thought necessary and proper for the benefit of all the parties in interest, and such as may in the judgment of the Court best expedite the final closing of the said trust, and the division and disposition of the trust fund and estate among the parties entitled thereto.

It is now ordered, on hearing John V. L. Pruyn, of counsel for the said petitioner, that the creditors of the said Canal Bank, and all others interested in the premises, show cause, if any they have, before this Court, at the Special Term thereof appointed to be held at the City Hall in the City of Albany on the last Tuesday of May next, at the opening of the Court on that day, why the prayer of the said petition should not be granted, and such order made in regard to the several matters therein mentioned, as to this Court may seem proper—And it is further ordered, that the said Receiver do within eight days from the date hereof, cause a copy of this order to be published in the Albany Argus, the paper in which legal notices are required by law to be published, and in one other newspaper published in the said City of Albany, and in a newspaper published in the City of New-York at least twice in each week until the day above mentioned for showing cause; and that he do also within eight days from the date hereof, cause a copy of the said petition and of this order, to be served either personally or by mail, (in the manner in which legal notices are directed by law to be served by mail) on the several persons and corporations (or on the principal business officer of any such corporation) who claim to be creditors of the said Canal Bank, as far as the said Receiver may be informed thereof, and of their respective places of residence, and whose several demands each exceed five hundred dollars in amount.
