CAPTIVE LADY AMONG THE CAMANCHES.—It is stated that a white lady among the Camanche Indians has discovered, in a camp of that nation, a white woman, fair and comely in appearance, who is intermarried among them, and says she is the sister of Lieut. Love or Lovett, who commanded a train which left Independence, about three years ago, for Santa Fé; that she was in company with the party when it was attacked by the Camanches, and that her brother was badly wounded, a large number of the men were killed, and she, with a number of men, were carried off prisoners by the Indians. She says she is well treated by her husband, but the women are cruel to her—that she is anxious to return to her friends, and that four or five good riding horses will procure her ransom.

☞ Protest—To the Members of the New-York African Society for Mutual Relief—Greeting—GENTLEMEN: In the month of September, 1847, it was your pleasure to elect the undersigned your Treasurer. By that token of your confidence, I entered upon my duties with cheerfulness and a due regard to the interests of this praiseworthy Institution. In examining the resources of the Society, I found there were ample means to sustain and maintain its constitutional liabilities, but in a very confused and questionable shape. With no journal or ledger to refer to, other than a quarter-sheet of foolscap, covered with items, I was puzzled in the outset what to do. I have, however, been enabled, with diligence and patience, to arrange the finances in a satisfactory manner.

And now, gentlemen, circumstances entirely beyond my control, constrain me to resign the office of Treasurer forthwith. Courtesy to the Society and justice to myself impel me to briefly state the reasons which compelled me to take this step: First, I refer to the record of monthly meeting, dated Feb. 19, 1850, founded on ex parte testimony. It has always been the custom and usage to invest the office of Treasurer with power to let, lease, collect rents, to keep in repairs the property of the Society, in all cases, and of course to endeavor to increase its revenue for the benefit of sick members, widows and orphans according to the best of its judgment. This, from motives of interest, and through misrepresentation during my absence, and by the vote of a slim meeting, has been denied me. Second, I refer to the records of the monthly meeting, dated June 10, 1850. In that act I consider a gross outrage was committed by six members out of the nine present, in the name of the Society (numbering over one hundred members), who voted to take, by force of arms, from the Treasurer, moneys belonging to the Society, to pay a draft unconstitutionally drawn. To these, as well as other acts of malfeasance which might be named, and against which, as a member as well as Treasurer, I do most solemnly enter my protest as violating the Constitution and the act of incorporation.

Gentlemen, in resigning the office of Treasurer, I am happy to say that the finances of the Society are now in a healthy condition. The tenements are all in good order, and occupied with good paying tenants. I have served you three years, less two months, and cannot consistently serve you even to the end of the year.

Respectfully your obedient servant, au21 1t* WILLIAM P. POWELL.

☞ A Mass Meeting of the Tin, Copper, and Sheet Iron Workers and Roofers of New-York, Brooklyn and vicinity. It is to be hoped that all those who feel any interest in the Trade will attend, as business of importance will be laid before the meeting. By order of Committee.

TO CAPITALISTS AND JOBBERS engaged in the trifling of Umbrellas and Parasols: We, the undersigned, Umbrella Frame Makers of the City of New-York, having formed ourselves into an Association for the purpose of manufacturing Umbrellas and Parasols, ask your aid in behalf of our Association, as we are well aware that a large profit may be made by any investment with no possible risk; and those engaged in the buying of our goods must reap largely the benefits of such an Association, as at the present time the manufacturers in our business are complete monopolists, ruling the price of goods as they please.
