NEW-YORK LAUNDRY, 15 SPRUCE-ST. NEAR NASSAU.—To New Shirt Dealers, Single Gentlemen, Families, &c.—This is one of the most perfect and extensive establishments of the kind in this or any other country. It has been erected at an expense of about four thousand dollars and combines the following advantages:

1st—Persons leaving the city in haste can have their clothes washed and ironed in a superior manner in from two to three hours time.

2nd—No material is used in the washing department but pure olive oil soap and filtered Croton water, hence clothes are not destroyed by patent soaps, or other humbugs so extensively advertised in the newspapers.

3rd—Gentlemen's shirts are done up equal to new shirts on sale; gentlemen's collars ironed in Troy style; light colored vests and pantaloons elegantly ironed and polished.

4th—Clothes lost or missed (which seldom or never happens) will be promptly paid for.

5th—Clothes washed at this establishment will wear much longer, simply because they are not only handled with great care, but no injurious drug, so generally used in washing, is permitted to come near them.

6th—Ladies dresses, and all fine articles, are done up by an experienced French Laundress.

Clothes taken and delivered free of extra charge. Ink spots and stains effectually removed.

All orders left at the Office, 15 Spruce-st. or sent through the Penny Post, will receive prompt attention.
MADAME RAYMOND, Superintendent.

P. S.—Experienced hands are employed to iron new shirts. au 3 3mis

THE IRON MASK!
OR,
THE FEATS AND ADVENTURES OF RAOUL DE BRAGELONNE
Being the final conclusion of "THE THREE GUARDSMEN," "TWENTY YEARS AFTER," and "BRAGELONNE."
BY ALEXANDRE DUMAS,
Author of "The Three Guardsmen," "Count of Monte Cristo," "Isabel of Bavaria," "Genevieve," "Diana of Meritor," &c., &c.

T. B. PETERSON, 98 CHESTNUT-St., Philadelphia, having purchased the advance sheets, in French, of the above great work, at a large expense, and having had it translated into English by the best French translator in the world, Thomas Williams, Esq., of the city of New-York, and late of Paris, he being an intimate friend of Alexandre Dumas, takes great pleasure in announcing to the people of this country that the above master-piece of Alexandre Dumas is this day published in two large octavo volumes, with beautifully illustrated covers and portraits, printed from fine engravings and new stereotype plates, on the best of paper. Price 50 cents a volume.

All persons will agree in pronouncing this work to be the chef-d'œuvre of Alexandre Dumas. It is a work possessing more interest than any other he has ever written. That mystery which has puzzled the world during nearly two centuries, "THE PRISONER IN THE IRON MASK," is completely solved, and in a manner so powerful, interesting and ingenious, that this episode of itself renders the work invaluable to all persons.

☞ All persons wishing the two volumes, will please remit One Dollar to the Publisher in a letter, and they will be sent at once by return of mail. Address all orders to ILLUSTRATIONS OF NATURAL PHILOSOPHY, in six large plates containing nearly 100 figures, arranged and edited by W. S. Mayo, M.D. The advantages of these plates is in the great size and clearness of the figures, rendering them far more preferable for illustration, to the little confused, and imperfect figures of the book. They are applicable to any book on Natural Philosophy, used in schools, and being separate from the text, the teacher can use them for illustrations, as he would figures drawn upon the blackboard. Agents wanted to sell these charts in this city and State, also to introduce several important Text Books. Inquire at 155 Broadway, between the hours of 10 and 12 A. M. INSURANCE.

MERCHANTS' AND MECHANICS' MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.
OFFICE, 56 Wall-st.

THIS COMPANY commences business with a Cash Capital of $100,000, actually paid in and invested in the Stocks of the United States and of the State of New-York.

Its business will be conducted upon principles to render certain the payment of the sums insured by the Company, whether the claims arise fifty years hence, or within a few years after its creation. To this the character of the Trustees is pledged. To enable them to redeem that pledge, they deem it necessary to require the payment of full premiums, according to the rates of insurance of the most approved offices both in England and here, in cash, and not in notes either in whole or in part.

Persons assured by this Company will participate in the profits of the Company to the extent of eighty per cent of the amount, for the present, with the prospect of dividing the whole of the profits among themselves within a short period.

Arrangements have been made to enable individuals, who now accumulate a fund for a future day in Savings' Banks, to avail themselves of the additional benefit of Life Assurance in this Company, without making larger deposits from their savings than are now made.

Premiums may be paid annually, or may be divided into semi-annual, quarterly, or monthly payments.

The prospectus of the Company, which more fully discloses its views upon the subject of Insurance, may be obtained at its office.
