FAMILY MEETING HYMN.

BY F. D. G.

Not in the dim aisles of old temples rare,
Neath whose high vaulted roof the incense floats,
While lowly 'neath the richly sculptured nave,
Lie the pale remnants of the fair and brave,
With their proud banners drooping o'er them there,
Come we to Thee, our God!

Not in the pride of numbers or of name,
Whose might had shaken kingdoms, or whose arm
Has borne the shock of the wild battle field,
And gathering thousands 'neath their blazoned shield,
Have borne them fearless on through War's alarm,
Come we, thy children, here.

But in all lowliness of soul and heart,
We bow to Thee, beneath these gray old trees,
On the same shadowy turf our fathers trod,
Whose hearts were humble in Thy sight, oh God!
And whose whole aim was well to do the part
Allotted unto them.

And as we here in happy union meet—
Children of those who have gone home to Heaven,
And are now gathered round Thy throne in prayer,
Wilt thou, O Father! shield us by Thy care,
And in our wanderings stay our careless feet
From straying from Thy way!

Oh! be Thou with us through the toiling day,
Guiding and guarding as we pass along
The dim lit path that leadeth to the grave—
Thou only, Father! Thou alone can'st save.
Our spirits, wandering in this weary way,
And onto Thee we pray.

And of the loved who here did bear a part,
When last we mingled here in friendly mood,
And who e'en now with spirit eyes are greeting
Each of the loved at this most joyous meeting—
Cherish them, Father! in Thy inner heart,
In hushed and holy peace.

And when at last Thou wak'st the slumbering dead
From their last sleep, and all the tribes of Earth
Around Thy Throne in silent awe shall stand,
Oh cast not from Thee one of all this band,
But to their spirits let the words be said,
Blest of my Father, come!

CITY ITEMS.

COMMAND OF OCEAN STEAMERS.—The Detroit Advertiser of Saturday expresses regret at the anticipated departure of Capt. Willoughby from the Lake service, to accept the command of one of Mr. Collins's new steamships, which has been offered him. It is noticeable that not a few of our first-class ocean steamers are commanded by those who are veterans in the rigorous service of the Northern Lakes.

ANOTHER MURDER—ARREST OF THE SUPPOSED MURDERERS.—About 11½ o'clock on Tuesday night a watchman on board the ship Western World observed a man named Andrew Peters Johnson a hand on board the Swedish brig Thomas, lying at pier No. 6 N. R. on that pier in company with two Swedish women and a small boy. Soon after two sailors made their appearance on the pier and made some insulting remarks to the women, which were resented by Johnson, who was then seized by the ruffians and hurled into the dock with great violence. The women, as soon as they saw this done, ran away, screaming with fright, and were followed by the sailors. Peter Pearson the watchman above referred to, immediately after the man was thrown overboard heard one of the sailors say to the other "That's the way to settle the business." One of the men then pulled off his coat and pretended that he was going to rescue the drowning man. Peterson called to them and said, "That's a nice way, to throw a man over board and not try to save him." A police officer then came up and was directed by Peterson to arrest the three men. He however captured but one, the others escaped, but two men were arrested in the morning, on suspicion of being those concerned in the affair. They were all brought before Justice Lothrop, and gave their names as William Hayat, John Roland and John McPage, and stated that they were attached to the English ship Charles Crocker, lying at pier No. 6. The evidence against these men is, however, thus far but slight, as neither the watchmen nor the two women can identify them as being the individuals who threw Johnson overboard. They were locked up by Justice Osborne for examination. The body of Johnson has not been found, and it is supposed that when thrown into the water he must have struck his head upon a projecting timber or stone, as he did not rise to the surface.

MYSTERIOUS DEATH OF AN INFANT.—Coroner Geer was called yesterday to hold an inquest at the house 265 Fifth st on the body of a female infant, which was found in a sink at that place. No marks of violence were found upon the body. Blood was however traced from the sink to a room in the second story of the house occupied by two women, apparently in perfect health. These women denied knowing anything about the matter, but said that a woman whose name and residence they did not know, but who came occasionally to see them, was at their room the night previous to the morning on which the body was found. The Jury rendered a verdict that the child came to its death from causes to them unknown.

MAD BULLS IN THE STREETS AGAIN.—We again unite with the press generally in urging upon—we might say, in behalf of the people demanding from—the Common Council some immediate and efficient provision against driving cattle through the streets of our populous and crowded city. On Monday, again, an infuriated bull was running a muck through the Bowery. A boy named Thomas Purdy was knocked down and very seriously injured. Several other persons had a trial of speed with the dangerous brute, to escape from his rage. It is atrocious that man nor woman nor child can enter the streets without risk of life. Will the Common Council continue to permit this state of affairs?

MAD OX.—The police of the Eleventh Ward report that another mad bull visited their locality Tuesday. He obtruded his unwelcome presence into several china shops and other stores, where his antics were peculiarly unpleasant. At a last resource he was killed by some of the policemen.

THE INDUSTRIAL REFORMER.—"Young America" of Saturday, Oct. 12, has been received at the City agency (Auld Slatery Standard and Chronicle offices,) 142 Nassau st, second story, front room. This sheet gives a faithful exhibit of the National Reform movement, throughout the country, by extracts from the press and notices of the action of public meetings. The next number will contain the full proceedings of the State Conventions of New-York, New-Jersey and Massachusetts, and the replies of several candidates for State offices and Congress.

☞ We have received from W. Hall & Son the following Musical publications: Song for the Union, the Prize National Melody, written by Freeman Scott, Esq. music by W. P. Cunnington; and American Liberty, a Song National and Patriotic, by Freeman Scott, for one or four voices, with an accompaniment for the piano-forte, by Mathias Keller.

CHARGE OF STABBING.—Officer Clapham of the Fourth Ward, yesterday arrested Dennis McCarty charged with stabbing Thomas Madden, residing in Water st, with a knife, inflicting several dangerous wounds. The parties, it appears, were quarreling about 11 o'clock on Tuesday night in the street, when McCarty committed the assault. Madden was taken to the City Hospital, and McCarty was locked up by Justice Osborne in the Tombs.

FIRES.—At 11½ A M. Tuesday a fire was kindled in the new building, No 327 Eighth st owned by Mr. Roberts. Extinguished with little damage.

—At 8½ P.M. No. 140 Hester st. was slightly damaged by fire.

—At 12½ o'clock, yesterday morning, Mr. Klink's grocery, 255 Monroe st. The contents and the interior of the store were mostly destroyed.

MILITARY.—The City Guard paraded yesterday in their usual faultless style. They are a corps that the Metropolis may well be proud of.

LIBERTY GUARD.—We noticed this company on the Harlem cars yesterday, bound for a target ground, all in fine train.

To the Editor of The Tribune:

SIR: Having often observed your promptitude in noticing whatever may occur to endanger public health or safety, I beg to inform you of a serious and continual cause for apprehension from present danger to the inhabitants of Sixth av and Broadway, between Twenty-eighth and Fourteenth sts.

Workmen are engaged blasting foundations for new houses at the corner of Sixth av. and Twenty-ninth st, and probably from using too large charges of gunpowder when doing so, large stones are hurled to great distances almost every hour in the day. Several have fallen against the back of my house in Broadway. On Friday last one buried itself close to my door weighing upward of ten pounds, which would literally have brained any one on whom it might have fallen.

Surely you will agree with me that the work of blasting for foundations is, generally speaking, very carelessly managed; indeed often left to laborers quite unaccustomed to such perilous work.

I am, yours, respectfully, M. K.

New-York, Oct. 14, 1850.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.—His Honor the Mayor in the Chair.—Monday.—The Committee reported adverse to petitions of the North River dank and the American Exchange Bank, to be relieved from tax. The application for relief is based principally on the ground that their respective capital is invested in U. S. Stocks. The Committee held that this does not exempt them from paying tax. The Committee also reported adverse to some other petitions for correction of tax. They reported favorably on the petitions of Messrs. Griswold and Taylor. Some petitions for relief from tax, and some small bills of Police Officers, for making arrests, were received and referred, and the Board adjourned.

SEIZURE OF SMUGGLED GOODS ON BOARD THE ATLANTIC.—During the last week, while the Atlantic steamship was laying at her dock foot of Canal st, a quantity of laces and embroideries, to the value of nearly $3,000, were seized on board by the Custom House officers, in consequence of information given by Mr. E. Collins, the excellent agent and part proprietor of the line. The party who smuggled the articles was in the employment of the company, and has, we learn, been dismissed. [Herald.

ACCIDENTS.—A woman named Margaret Kelly was very seriously injured, Monday afternoon, while passing the building in course of erection at the corner of Fulton and Greenwich sts, by a board falling upon her from the roof of the house. She was taken to the Hospital.

A boy named John Clark was run over in Greenwich st Monday evening, by a grocer's wagon, and had one of his legs broken. The driver continued his course as if nothing had happened, and no police were near to arrest him. The boy was carried to his home.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—The Coroner held an inquest at the foot of Twenty-first st North River, upon the body of Arthur Dines, a native of Ireland, 25 years of age, who was instantly killed at the foot of said street, by a pile of timber falling upon him. Verdict accordingly.

ACCIDENT.—A man named Henry Floyd, working at the Morgan Iron Works, was severely injured Tuesday afternoon by the breaking of the scaffold on which he was at work.

ARREST OF A HALL THIEF.—A fellow well known to the Police, named Alfred Easley, was yesterday caught by officer Colman, of the Ninth Ward, in the hall of his residence, 43 Perry st, which he had entered for the purpose of theft. On seeing the officer he fled, but was captured, and on his way to the station house drew a dirk and threatened to stab the officer if he did not let him go.—Locked up.

CHARGE OF GRAND LARCENY.—Officer Lynch of the First Ward, yesterday arrested a man named James Barber, charged with stealing a gold watch valued at $40, a revolver worth $8, and other property to the value of $32, belonging to Chas. Hall of No 51 Greenwich st. Barber, after stealing the watch, exchanged it with one S. W. Masters, residing at No 112 Chatham st. He was locked up by Justice Osborne for trial.

FOUNDLING.—An infant, apparently a month old, was found Tuesday in the area of the house 83 White st.

AN INHUMAN PARENT.—A female, about 25 years of age, having in charge a small infant, on Monday last took passage in the steamboat St. Nicholas, from South Amboy for this city, and upon the arrival of the boat she fled, leaving her infant in the cabin. Who and where she is has not been ascertained. The child was taken to the Alms House.

RECEIVING STOLEN GOODS.—A man named Patrick Baldwin, Keeper of a junk-shop in Reade st, was yesterday arrested by Capt. Silvey of the First Ward Police, on a charge of receiving 300 lbs of hair, valued at $60, which was stolen on the 12th inst from the store of Francis O. LuFain, No. 2 Broadway, by some person unknown. The accused stated that he bought the hair about two weeks since from a stranger. He was committed by Justice Osborne for trial.

BROOKLYN ITEMS.

MEETING OF THE GENERAL SYNOD, NEW SCHOOL.—About two hundred of the Ministers and elders of various Presbyteries in New-York and New-Jersey met Tuesday evening, in Dr. Cox's church, in Henry st. Rev. Dr. Ward, the former Moderator, delivered a doctrinal sermon upon the 5th chapter of Romans, 12th verse. The discourse was in elucidation of the 24th and 25th questions in the Assembly's Catechism, relating to original sin. At the close of the discourse, the meeting organized by the election of a Moderator for the ensuing year. Rev Dr. Stearns, Ford and Mr Lane were nominated, and Dr. Ford was elected.

The regular session of this body will probably continue until Friday, and will convene at 9 A.M. and hold 7 P.M each day, in the lecture room of Dr. Cox's church.

WHIG NOMINATIONS.—The following City nominations have been made:

1st Ward.—For Alderman, E. H. Smith.

OPPOSITION NOMINATIONS.—The following nominations for the Assembly were made on Tuesday:

IId. District.—Abram C. Verplanck, Brooklyn.

IIId. District.—Charles H. Hooper, Brooklyn.

EXCURSION.—The Stryker Guards, Capt. W. H. Peck, a new company, went to Fort Lee yesterday. They begin well. Granger's Band, we believe, furnished the music.

ANNEXATION.—A Special Committee from the Common Councils of New York and Brooklyn and the Trustees of Williamsburgh will meet at the Mayor's office to-day, to consult upon the expediency of annexing Brooklyn and Williamsburgh to New-York.

LONG ISLAND PROPERTY.—The following lots were sold in Wall st yesterday:

ASSAULTING AN OFFICER.—A man named Edmund Coyle, who was on Monday convicted and sentenced to the County Jail for indecently exposing his person in the streets, committed a violent assault upon officer John Friend, yesterday, while that functionary was gallanting him to his quarter, in Raymond st.

SOCIAL GATHERINGS OF CONGREGATIONS.—The above title sounds somewhat strangely, and the idea of such a thing seems at first impracticable. I know of but one Society where it succeeds—that of the Rev. H. W. Beecher, of Brooklyn. They were formerly held at private houses, but their extreme popularity soon rendered this impossible; so, when the new Church was erected, it was built double the usual size, and the spacious parlors, once in two weeks are filled to overflowing. These gatherings are without the common appliances of evening amusement, but the interest does not flag. There is no aristocracy known but that of intellect and social qualities—the only true standard. Every one has free access to the pastor, who, like a true republican, mingles among his people as a brother, with a kind word for all. Perfect freedom prevails, young and old participate with great relish in the enjoyment. The effect upon Society at large is admirable—all its members become acquainted, and harmony reigns supreme. Were this custom general throughout the churches, what a spirit of peace would pervade the whole! Doubtless, differences of opinion that now often cause secessions, would then be easily adjusted. W.

FIRES.—A fire broke out shortly after 12 o'clock on Tuesday morning, in a pile of wooden buildings at the corner of Henry and Fulton sts, which burned through to Poplar st, nearly destroying five or six tenements, mostly owned by the heirs of Art Middagh. John Bunce, who occupied most of the front on Fulton st for the sale of house-keeping articles and fancy hardware, was insured $2,000 which will nearly cover his loss. John Crisp, who kept a provision store on the corner, had no insurance. J. Edmonds, house and sign painter, and a barber who had an establishment adjoining, both on Henry st, were burned out, but we could not learn that they had any insurance. James W. Peck, who was the lessee of the property, had an insurance of $1,000 in the Manhattan Co. which will not cover his loss. The owners of the property also had some insurance upon the building. The tenement at the corner of Henry and Poplar sts, was owned and occupied by S. Quimby & Son, manufacturers of grates, ranges, &c. They had an insurance of $1,000 on the building and $1,500 on the stock, in the Augusta Banking and Insurance Co. and $2,500 on the stock in the North-Western Insurance Co.

Another.—Tuesday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, a fire broke out in a carpenter's shop, situated in Lawrence st, between Tillary and Johnson, owned by Francis Webb, which was entirely consumed. Lost, 400; no insurance. The flames then communicated to the house adjoining, which was a frame building, the sides of which were filled in with brick; and owned and occupied by Duke G. Ryder, Esq. The building was nearly destroyed; the furniture mostly saved. House insured for $1,200; no insurance on the furniture. A brick building on the other side, belonging to Mr. McMillan, merchant, in Maiden lane, and occupied by Elisha Bailey, Esq., was also considerably damaged on the side and rear. The flames were, however, by the application of a few buckets of water extinguished, and the building saved. The services of the bucket company would have been most efficient, but we did not see a man of them on the ground. Mr. Bailey's loss is inconsiderable beyond the breaking and scattering of his furniture. A small building in the rear of the carpenter's shop was also burnt. It belonged to Mr. Vanderbilt.

SAD ACCIDENT.—A young girl, named Alice Greenwood, residing at Brooklyn had her skull fractured on Thursday, by the falling of a beam of timber upon her head, as she was passing some buildings in course of erection in 10th avenue, New-York. She was conveyed to her home in a carriage.

WILLIAMSBURGH ITEMS.

Mr. Hoggett, the Foreman of No. 2 has resigned, and Mr. J. Gilbert McAvoy has been appointed in his place.

NEW HOSE COMPANY.—A new Hose Company to provide its own apparatus, is about being formed. It already numbers about 22 men.

L. A.) Vice President—Managers—W. L. Dickinson, J. S. Voorhees, Dudley S. Gregory, Jr. A. A. Hardenburgh, David Gould, and S. W. Davenport; which election was ratified by the citizen members; and tellers having been appointed, the election was held for the remaining officers of the Library Association, with the following result: For President—Hon. D. S. Gregory; Managers—Oliver S. Strong, S. Akerson, W. F. Clark, S. B. Grinnell, Peter Bentley and Henry Steele.

EXCURSION.—We noticed a train of thirteen open cars quite closely wending their way through Newark av this morning. Each cart was loaded with the "hains" for a shanties, a cradle for the baby, the wheelbarrow, pick ax and shovel forming the top dressing. We inquired their destination, and was informed by one of the sons of the Emerald Isle, who accompanied the train that they were going to work on a railroad somewhere in Jersey jist forninst Pirsylvany. They were a hale and hearty looking set. [Sentinel.

NEWARK ITEMS.

THE SWAYZE CASE—MORE MYSTERY.—Much excitement still prevailing in Elizabethtown concerning the mysterious disappearance of Swayze, the Mayor of the borough has offered a reward of $200 for the perpetrators of the outrage, and a vigorous search was to be made to-day for his body; but we learn this morning that he made his appearance in Hope, Warren Co. on Saturday evening last, in a state of derangement, and has again escaped! It appears that on Saturday evening, about 8 o'clock, he came to the house of Dr. James C. Fisch, from whom we derive this information, and whose wife is a cousin of Swayze. Mrs F. on his sudden appearance, did not at first know him, and asked him if "it was not Jas. Swayze?" He replied, "It was once, but was not now." Dr. F. came in and accosted him. Swayze sat in a corner of the room, with his head on his breast, rubbing his hands. Dr. F. took his hand, which was very cold, and inquired how he came there, &c. but he could give no coherent answer, and Dr. F. left him to go for another relative, to see if he could extract anything from him, being better acquainted. While he was absent, Swayze insisted upon going out, as he said to see Israel Swayze, refusing tea, but drinking freely of cold water. The Dr. returned, but Swayze had gone, and he immediately sent men in a wagon after him, who finally discovered him about 100 rods out of the village, standing by the fence. He got into the wagon willingly and was taken to Ribble's tavern, where he sat for an hour. He gave the same account of the robbery as he told in Elizabethtown, and said that they put two men over him, to watch him, but he was afraid and escaped from them. He would not tell how he got out, nor how he accomplished his journey, further than that some one in Newark gave him $3. Passengers however, in the stage stated subsequently, that Swayze came on with them, in the morning line of the Morris cars, to Dover, and thence by stage to Johnsonburg, from which point he must have walked six miles to Hope. During this conversation he walked the room, rubbing his hands, giving incoherent answers, and showing evident signs of derangement. He complained of a pain in his head, but nothing was thought of that, as it was attributed to the state of his mind. He was finally persuaded to go to bed, and people were placed in the next room to watch him, but during the night he forced the lock, got stealthily out of the house, and though every search has been made, nothing has yet been discovered of him. [Daily Adv. Tuesday.

HEM.—A man in so beastly a state of intoxication as not to be able to articulate, was found and brought to the watch house about one o'clock yesterday morning, and placed upon a bunk in one of the cells. At the usual hour, Justice Andruss came and proceeded to make out a commitment, when the man was brought out and found to be dead. It is supposed he had been dead 15 or 20 minutes. A pass-book was found with him, by which it appeared that B. Palmer and Simpson had paid him $7 the night before; $1 of which remained. He had been at several places, where he drank, the evening before.

FIRE.—A barn in Crane st. in the North Ward, with all its contents, including two horses, harness, hay and grain, in the occupancy of Mr. Peter Doremus, was burned down early Monday evening. Mr. Doremus's loss is about $200, on which there is no insurance. The barn is valued at $300 or $400. There is little doubt it is the work of an incendiary.

☞ The State receipts for transit duties from the Camden and Amboy Railroad Co. during the quarter ending Sept. 30, were $12,417 27, being $3,249 55 more than during the same period last year. The transit duties from the N. J. Railroad Co. during the same period were $3,201, being $786 29 more than last year.

The General Term of the Court and of Supreme Court continue their argument Calendars.

SUPERIOR COURT—Before Judge Oakley.—City of New York vs. James Price, Lyman Cardozo et al.—To recover balance of rent of wharves and piers in District No 3, leased to defendants from 1847 to 1849, already referred in. A verdict was taken for plaintiff for $3,854, with liberty to appeal to the general term without security.

Henry S. Henry vs. Thos. Shuder, Jr.—Plaintiff not appearing on motion to non plaint was discontinued with costs.

Squire H. Ross vs. Francis H. Granger—Suit to recover back $40, amount lost by plaintiff in playing backgammon at a New-York Tea Company, alleges that plaintiff was induced by defendant to lease money in playing as above stated and lost the same at times. To defend that was said that defendant had been drinking freely and did not know how much he had won, but that next morning he had received $80 in his pocket. A witness stated that defendant said he won $40 from Ross.

The Court charged that if a person loses money in nothing of gambling, he has a right to sue and recover back. The question is whether the sum, in this case, should be $40 or $80. The Jury found a verdict for plaintiff for $151—for plff. Mr. H. M. Debey. For defdt. Mr. Holmes and Mr. McKeon.

Thomas Bunker and Margaret his wife, vs John Bagan—Wager of mortgages for assault and battery by M. B. on the person of Mrs W. The parties, with their families, occupied different upper tenements in a house, we understand, in Bleecker street. Mrs. W. sent her son a lad about 13 years of age, to the yard to get some wood. This lad was placed upon the yard. He was ordered by my consort in defense of the new the nature of an oath. The lad said he did, that he was a liar on his word, go to the yard place. The counsel asked him who had told him that. He said he had been told it at the Sunday School. His testimony was admitted. He said he commenced chopping wood in the yard when Mr. Bagan came out and told him he should not do so, took the ax away from him, kicked the wood, and also kicked him in the leg—his sister then came down, with no better success. Mr. B. was turning witness out of the yard, when his mother came down—something was said about some person having broken Mr B's windows in splitting wood, but it was not Mrs. W's children. On going out of the yard, Mr. B threw the ax after Mrs W. she picked it up and, set it one side saying she would make him give it to her one he took it from. Mr. B. then struck Mrs. W. and caught her by the neck and threw her down, falling upon her with his knee. Some persons came and assisted her up, she being faint and her nose bleeding. U. S. COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE—Before Commissioner Metcalf.—Charge of Cruel and Unusual Punishment—Capt. Francis L. Stillman, of the brig Haidee, arrested on complaint of William Bell, cook and steward of the vessel (a colored man,) charged with cruel punishment, &c. was examined. Bell, in his testimony, stated that the captain on one occasion knocked him down, caught him by the throat and knocked his head against the mast, and threatened to throw him over board. On another occasion, without cause, put him in irons and placed him in the run and beat him—there were two or three other occasions when he struck and ill treated complainant. Witness on behalf of Bell stated that he was not in the habit of intoxication, was good cook, obliging to the seamen and funny to the mates—making a good deal but not any harm. The statement of Bell was corroborated by one or two witnesses. The mate, in his testimony, confirmed, in a measure, the statement of Bell, but said the punishment was caused by insolent answers, &c. The captain and mate are both very young men. It appeared that no trouble had occurred as regarded any of the other men, and a good character was given of Capt. S. A witness a friend of Capt. S. testified to having spoken to Capt. S. against Bell, just before they left the port, and told him he would have trouble with with him. Whether Captain S. was prejudiced against Bell by the mate, did not appear. The commissioner considered sufficient to have been shown to send the case to the Grand Jury. Captain S. was required to give bail for his appearance in the sum of $500. Mr. Sumner for the U. S. Mr. Beebee, Jr. for defendant.

TEN THOUSAND
CURES, AND NOT A SINGLE FAILURE!
DR. HASNINGS' COMPOUND SYRUP OF NAPTHA.

CELEBRATED throughout both continents for its wonderful cures of consumption, asthma, decline, spitting of blood, night sweats, difficult breathing, coughs, colds, and all diseases of the chest and lungs.

Its effect upon the system is mild and soothing, at the same time certain and efficacious—rarely failing to give relief upon the first application, and by repeating it a few times, a permanent cure is effected.

The proprietor, therefore, not only recommends his Naptha Syrup, but warrants it to cure. He warrants it to act upon the chyle, and purify it, he warrants it to remove all impediments which retard the free circulation of the blood, he warrants it to open the internal and external pores of the body, and eject all the obnoxious particles which have accumulated in the system; he warrants it as a never-failing remedy in hectic fever, night sweats, dyspepsia, liver complaints, pain in the chest and asthma, and he warrants it to arrest the formation of tubercles in the lungs and to heal those already formed, so that persons in consumption may take it with the most positive confidence of a cure, for its great seat of action is the Lungs, which it penetrates in all directions, purifying them of everything obnoxious in its progress, and which, if applied according to directions, cannot fail to leave in a perfect healthy condition.

Dr. Hastings' Compound Syrup of Naptha is highly recommended by the medical profession. That eminent physician, Dr. Mott, of New-York, says, "that as a pulmonic remedy it cannot be too highly praised." Dr. Arnold, of the Marine Hospital, Savannah; Dr. Ware, of Liverpool, England; Dr. Boyd, of Lancaster; Dr. Hamilton, of Bath; and those eminent English publications, the London Lancet, the Medical Journal, and Braithwaite's Retrospect, all accord to it the most convincing certificates of its virtues. In this country it has been used with distinguished success.

WHAT PLEASURABLE EMOTIONS does not a well executed portrait of a woman excite in the mind of any person whose taste for the fine arts may be even uncultivated; but how much greater is the admiration excited by the living and breathing reality, especially if the lady's face is free from spot or blemish. GOURAUD'S Italian Medicated Soap is the only article known to chemistry which will effectually remove every vestige of those odious disfigurements of the skin, which appear in the shape of tan, pimples, freckles, sunburn, eruptions, chaps, chafes, creeps, and all skin disfigurements.
