EVERYWHERE'S NEWS IN TABLOID FORM

El Paso, Tex.—News of battle believed to be raging between rebels and federals north of Torreon meager. One report says Villa's force was caught between two armies of federals, and is being decisively defeated.

Waxahachie, Tex.—D. B. Davis, 63, burned to death in fire which destroyed his home after he had twice been rescued.

Houghton, Mich.—Judge O'Brien Monday will hear arguments of miners' union attorneys on motion for change of venue in all strike cases and to quash indictments for conspiracy against union leaders.

Aberdeen, S. D.—Business section of Columbia, 20 miles north of here, wiped out. Fire. Started in dance hall.

New York.—Herald prints report that Col. Goethals may run for presidency in 1916, with backing of Roosevelt and Perkins.

New York.—Hans Schmidt will not be electrocuted during week beginning March 23. Appeal filed by his lawyers means sentence will be deferred for at least a year.

Washington.—Actual consideration in House of administration's anti-trust bills not to begin before middle of April.

Joliet, Ill.—Matt Seariak, gunman, escaped from penitentiary today. Had been appointed trusty few weeks ago. Was serving life term for slaying August Beltzner, wealthy merchant, and Arthur Jack, saloonkeeper.

Cologne.—Woman school principal, called suffragette, sued, alleging slander, and won verdict for damages.

Halifax, N. S.—Steamer City of Sydney, which went on rocks yesterday, being beaten to pieces by seas.

Berlin.—Kaiser Wilhelm presented with sixth grandson when son was born to Duchess of Brunswick, who was Victoria Louise ,only daughter of Kaiser.

St. Louis. — X-ray examination showed toe of Anna Pavlowo, famous Russian dancer, not broken. Dislocated. Will be all right in few days.

Keokuk, Ia.—Fire in Montrose destroyed all but two buildings in business block.

South Bend, Ind.—Charles Kelley, alias "Baltimore Red," alias Harry Young, allas George Thompson, will be taken to Sandusky, O., to face charges of killing Moses Price, Lake Shore detective, killed Jan. 16 in encounter with train robbers.

New York.—Nearly 50,000 Irishmen marched up Fifth avenue yesterday in honor of Ireland's patron saint.

Fayette, Mo.—Dallas Shield, negro barber, lynched by mob for murder of Constable Joseph Gaines, when latter tried to arrest him.

Washington.—No officvial action regarding deportation of "Mother" Jones by Coolrado militia from Trinidad coal strike field to Denver will be taken by House mines sub-committee investigating strike.

Springfield, Ill.—Petition of Chicago City Railways Co., asking approval of $2,000,000 negotiable coupon bond issue to take up mortgage bonds, received by public utilities commission.

Racine, Wis.—Frank Chumicek, 10, attacked by geese. Convulsions. Dead.

Fort Worth, Tex.—Fed. Judge E. R. Meek granted application for hearing on writ of habeas corpus to release 8,000 Mexicans at Fort Bliss.

Oskaloosa, Ia.—Carl C. Deweese, farmer, dead. Brother Isaac jailed. Charged with hitting him on head with club.

Indianapolis.—Petition presented to state board of pardons asking pardon of Silas Adams. Sentenced in 1912 to serve 2 to 14 years for white-capping.

New York.—"But I made $25," said C. E. Cashmore when Justice Ford