LEGAL NOTICES.

SUPREME COURT.—In the matter of the application of the Mayor Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of New-York, relative to the OPENING and laying out of a public place, known as STUYVESANT SQUARE, in the Seventeenth Ward of said City. The subscribers, Commissioners of Estimate and Assessment in the above entitled matter, duly appointed by a rule of the Supreme Court, give notice, pursuant to the requirements of an Act of the Legislature of the People of the State of New-York, entitled "An Act to amend an Act entitled an Act to reduce several laws relating particularly to the City of New-York, into one Act, passed April 20, 1839; that the abstract of the Estimate and Assessment of the Commissioners in the above matter, containing the names and owners of the lots assessed, the numbers of such lots as they appear on the maps of the Commissioners, together with such maps, and the amount of assessment, whether for damage or benefit; and also all the affidavits, estimates and other documents, which were used by the Commissioners, in making their report, have been deposited in the Street Commissioner's office, of the City and County of New-York, for the inspection of whomsoever it may concern; there to remain for at least sixty days before the said Commissioners make their report to the said Supreme Court, at the time and place hereinafter mentioned. And the said Commissioners further give notice, pursuant to the requirements of the Act, entitled "An Act to amend an Act entitled an Act in relation to the Collection of Assessments and Taxes in the City and County of New-York, and for other purposes, passed May 14, 1840," passed May 7, 1841, to the owner or owners, occupant or occupants of all houses, and improved or unimproved lands affected thereby, that they have completed their estimate and assessment; and that all persons whose interests are affected thereby, and who may be opposed to the same, are requested to present their objections in writing to E. Delafield Smith, one of the said Commissioners, at his place of business, No. 17 Wall-street, in the City of New-York, within thirty days from the date of this Notice. And that the limits embraced by the assessment are as follows, that is to say: All those lots, pieces, or parcels of land, (which will be required to be taken for the purpose of opening and laying out the said Square,) and bounded and described as follows, to wit: On the southerly side by Sixth-street, on the northerly side by Seventh-street, on the easterly side by Third-avenue, and on the westerly side by Fourth-avenue. And also, all the lots, pieces, or parcels of land fronting on the westerly side of Fourth-avenue, between the northerly line or side of Eighth street, and the southerly line or side of Tenth street; and also, lot No. 76 Fourth-avenue, at the north west corner of Tenth street. And also, all the lots, pieces, or parcels of land, fronting on the easterly side of Fourth avenue, between Astor-place and Ninth street; and also lot No. 67 Fourth-avenue. And also, all the lots, pieces, or parcels of land fronting on the westerly line or side of the Bowery, between Great Jones-street and Astor-place; and also, the lots known by the street numbers 340, 342, 344, 344½, 346, and 346½ Bowery. And also, all the lots, pieces, or parcels of lands, fronting on the westerly line or side of Third-avenue, between Astor place and Ninth-street. And also, all the lots, pieces, or parcels of land, fronting on the easterly line or side of Third-avenue, between Ninth street and Tenth-street. And the said Commissioners further give notice that their report in the above matter will be made and presented to the Supreme Court, a Special Term of the said Court, to be held at the City Hall of the City of New-York, on Monday, the 3d day of March, 1851, at the opening of the Court on that day, or as soon thereafter as counsel can be heard.—Dated New-York, December 7, 1850.

SUPREME COURT.—In the matter of the application of the Mayor Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of New York, relative to the opening of Lexington-avenue, from 43d st. to 66th st. in the Nineteenth Ward of said City. The subscribers, Commissioners of Estimate and Assessment in the above entitled matter, appointed by a rule of the Supreme Court, entered on the 23d day of March, 1860, give notice, pursuant to the requirements of an Act of the Legislature of the People of the State of New-York, entitled "An Act to amend an Act entitled an Act to reduce several laws relating particularly to the City of New-York, into one Act, passed April 9, 1813," passed April 20, 1839, that the abstract of the Estimate and Assessments of the said Commissioners in the above matter, containing the names of the owners of the lots assessed, the numbers of such lots as they appear on the maps of the Commissioners, together with such maps, the amount of the assessment, whether for damage or benefit; and also all the affidavits, estimates and other documents, which were used by the Commissioners, in making their report, have been deposited in the Street Commissioner's office, of the City and County of New-York, for the inspection of whomsoever it may concern; there to remain for at least sixty days before the said Commissioners make their report to the said Supreme Court, at the time and place hereinafter mentioned. And the said Commissioners further give notice, pursuant to the requirements of the Act, entitled "An Act to amend an Act entitled an Act in relation to the Collection of Assessments and Taxes in the City and County of New-York, and for other purposes, passed May 14, 1840," passed May 7, 1841, to the owner or owners, occupant or occupants of all houses, and improved or unimproved lands affected thereby, that they have completed their estimate and assessment; and that all persons whose interests are affected thereby, and who may be opposed to the same, are requested to present their objections in writing, to Nicholas C. Everett, the Chairman of said Commissioners, at his house, No. 119 White st. in the City of New-York, within thirty days from the date of this notice; and that the limits embraced by this assessment are as follows, that is to say: All those lots, pieces or parcels of land, between the northerly line or side of 43d st. and the southerly line or side of 44th st. and the easterly and westerly lines or sides of Lexington avenue—excepting therefrom, all those streets or parts of streets within said limits, which have already been opened. And also, all the lots, pieces or parcels of land, lying on both sides of said Lexington avenue, bounded on the north by the southerly line or side of 66th st. and on the south by the northerly line or side of 43d st. on the east by the center line between the Third avenue and the said Lexington avenue, and on the westby the center line between the Fourth avenue and the said Lexington avenue, and comprising all the lots or pieces of land within those limits, fronting on the said Lexington avenue, and the intersecting streets—excepting therefrom, those streets or parts of streets which have already been opened. And also, all the lots, pieces or parcels of land, situate on the easterly side of said Lexington avenue and the intersecting streets, between the northerly line or side of 43d st. and the southerly line or side of 44th st. and extending easterly about one hundred feet, be the same more or less from the easterly line or side of said Lexington avenue. And also, all the lots, pieces or parcels of land, situate on the westerly line or side of said Lexington avenue and the intersecting streets, between the northerly line or side of 43d st. and the southerly line or side of said 44th st. and extending westerly from said westerly line or side of said Lexington avenue, about one hundred feet, be the same more or less. And the said Commissioners further give notice, that their report in the above matter, will be made and presented to the Supreme Court of the State of New-York, at a Special Term of the said Court, to be held at the City Hall of the City of New-York, on Saturday, the 1st day of February, 1851, at the opening of the Court on that day, or as soon thereafter as counsel can be heard. Dated New-York, November 18, 1850. NICHOLAS C. EVERETT, WILLIAM DODGE, HENRY BEEKMAN, Commissioners. u18 tF1
