☞ At a Meeting of the Members of Class of 1847 (Yale College) resident in New-York City, the following action was taken in memory of a deceased classmate, Dr. HORATIO W. GRIDLEY, who died March 29, 1851, while Senior House Physician at Bellevue Hospital, New York City.

Whereas, It hath pleased an All-wise Providence to take from us by sudden death, Dr. Horatio W. Gridley,

Resolved, That a letter of condolence, together with a copy of the following resolutions, be transmitted to his bereaved parents.

Resolved, That in his death we deeply feel the loss of one whom, as a class-mate we respected—as a companion, esteemed—as a friend loved, and as a man we honored.

Resolved, That with his parents and relatives we sincerely sympathize. They have lost a son, kind and affectionate—a brother, generous and indulgent—a friend, frank, honorable and constant.

As a member of his adopted profession his early application and proficiency gave earnest of future eminence; while his amiable and considerate deportment endeared him to a large and increasing circle of friends.

As a member of our class he is remembered with pleasant thoughts, and the deep interest that he felt for the welfare of his class-mates, was only exceeded by the diligence with which he performed the duties devolving on him as Class-Secretary; which office now being vacant we feel it our duty at once to fill. Therefore,

Resolved, That in concurrence with the members of the class resident in New-Haven, EDWARD J. SANFORD of New-Haven, Conn., is hereby unanimously appointed Class-Secretary in the place of our deceased friend, Dr. Horatio W. Gridley, till the next general meeting of the class in 1857. L. S. SCOTT, Chairman.
