Arrival of the Lafayette—Markets.

PHILADELPHIA, Wednesday, April 23, 1851.

The Steamship Lafayette arrived at this port last evening from your city, and was received by assembled multitudes on the wharves, with loud and repeated hurrahs, in reply to which, she spoke repeatedly through her cannon. Great time.

Cotton is in rather better demand, and about 200 bales Upland and New Orleans sold at 11@12¼ cents ⅌ ℔ on time. About 400 bbls No. 1 Quarantine Rags, nearly all in market, sold at $12 ⅌ ton, which is a further slight decline. The Flour market is quiet. The demand for shipment continues limited but prices are steady. Sales of 1,200 bbls at 4 50 ⅌ bbl for standard and 4 62½ for choice brands. The sales for city consumption are moderate, with the range of yesterday's quotations. In Rye Flour and Corn Meal, no further sales have been reported. Prices of Wheat are steady, sales of 3,000 bush prime Pennsylvania white at 1 06@1 08 ⅌ bush, afloat, and a lot of red in store at 1 00 ⅌. Rye continues in demand at 70c. MOBILE.

A "Union Club"—Secession Movements and the Opinion entertained of them—Local Items, &c.

Correspondence of The Tribune.

MOBILE, Monday, April 14.

A meeting to form a Union Club, and create a Union party in the State of Alabama was held at the Alhambra Hall on the night of the 12th inst. The room was crowded, and hundreds went away unable to gain admittance, Whigs and Democrats united in the movement, and the officers were elected from both parties; Judge Hopkins delivered an able speech, denouncing the aggressions of the North, threatening resistance, revolution, and dissolution, if the "peculiar institution" was any further meddled with; but acquiescing in the Compromise measures, and confident that they would be carried out to the letter.

Other speakers ridiculed the idea of a dissolution of the Union, and placed the Secessionists in such a light that the audience were convulsed with laughter. They adopted the Georgia resolutions as a platform, and resolved to have a Union party and a Union ticket at the State election in August, and intend running Hon. Benj. G. Shields, late chargé to Venezuela, a Democrat, I believe, for Governor. The resolutions passed lately by the Virginia Legislature have put the secessionists in great agony and given life and hope and comfort to Union men.

The town was in a fever of excitement on Saturday as it became known that two of our merchants had gone over into Mississippi to settle an "affair of honor," but were much relieved in the morning to learn that the parties had all returned unharmed and without fighting—it was settled; it is useless to give names, they "will live to fight another day."

The young man, Donaldson, who was shot a few days since by Andrews, while walking with said Andrews's wife to some place, it is said, where he ought not to, cannot live; he has been told so by the Doctors, has repented, partook of the sacrament and prepared to die. Andrews and his wife as an accessary before the deed, and two children, are in jail waiting his death and the movement of the Court.

A large emigration from the Carolinas is going forward to Texas.

Cotton is very slow and business generally dull. Yours, E. C. J.

A resolution was adopted for paying Police Justices and Clerks for services on Sundays.

A petition was received from Assessors of Eleventh Ward for increase of pay. Adjourned to Wednesday next.

FALSE PRETENSES.—A female named Ann Farnham was yesterday arrested on complaint of Manning Freeman, grocer, of No. 701 Greenwich-st., who charges that the accused represented to him that she was the servant of one of his customers named Mary Burns, and on this representation obtained a quantity of groceries, which she directed to be charged to Mrs. Burns. It subsequently appeared that the statement was false. She was taken before Justice McGrath, and locked up for examination.

RUN OVER.—A female named Hannah Mahoney was run over by a horse and cart in South st near Peck-slip. She was taken to the City Hospital.

FIRES.—At 3 o'clock yesterday morning a fire broke out in the fourth story of the building 206 Front-st., occupied by Lewis Falman as a manufactory of cigars, matches, &c. The flames were extinguished before much damage was done.

COLLINS AND THE CUNARDERS.—As the late remarkable passage of the Pacific has been the towns' talk for some days, the following particulars may be worth reading in The Tribune, as feats of the same sort will be anxiously looked for during the ensuing summer. The Pacific sailed from New-York for Liverpool on the 23d March, and arrived on her return on the 19th April—The Asia sailed from New-York for Liverpool on the 26th March, and arrived back on the 23d April, each having completed the voyage in their twenty-eight days. The Asia made the shortest run Eastward, and the Pacific the shortest Westward; the former was 10 days 4 hours and some minutes; the latter, 10 days 2 hours and some minutes, mean time. CHRONICLES.

BROOKLYN ITEMS.

PROGRESS OF THE DRURY TRIAL.—This case continues to engage the attention of the City Court, with a doubtful prospect as to its continuance. The evidence of the prosecution is not yet concluded, and it is understood that several witnesses remain to be called. Almost the entire day (yesterday) was consumed in the examination of Capt A. M. C. Smith, who was recalled, the Court having held that sufficient evidence of the loss of the alleged counterfeit bills had been given by Mr. J. P. Phillips, examined on Tuesday, to let in secondary evidence of the contents. Mr. Smith was cross-examined as to the seizure of various property at Drury's house, immediately after his arrest on the torpedo charge in November, 1849, and admitted that he and seven others went without a search warrant, and, giving Mrs. Drury to understand that they had one, took away a printer's press and sundry valuable property, a portion of which had been replevied. Dominick Crassous, an assistant officer of the Sixth Ward police, New-York, followed. It would be unfair to sum up in a brief space the testimony given as to the facts of the arrest of Drury, to which both these witnesses and the previous one (Jenkins) had deposed. After Crassous had given his testimony the Court adjourned to 10 A. M. this morning.

ROBBING AN EMPLOYER.—Hugh Brady, an apprentice to Samuel Brower, cooper, corner of Pearl and Front sts., and three other boys, his associates, named Thomas Colegin, John Farrell and William Staingle, were taken into custody by the Second District police, during the past week, charged with robbing Mr. Brower, at various times, of tools, &c., valued at about $80. They were all brought before Justice King yesterday, and committed to jail for further examination.

THE RAPE CASES IN THE OYER AND TERMINER.—John Combs and William Hendrickson, indicted for rape, in connection with five other boys, upon Mrs. Ellen Rask, on the evening of the 15th of January last, were brought up for trial yesterday, but in consequence of the illness of complaining witness, (who has been detained in jail since that occurrence, to testify against the prisoners,) the trial was postponed until Wednesday next.

Its terminus will be North Third st. The road will also be continued from Newtown to Flushing, affording great facilities to farmers and others in reference to the New-York market.

A plan is being agitated for the purpose of connecting St. John, via Capes Ray and North, with Halifax and New-York. The plan, if carried out, will do much toward the advancement of that island, and we are glad to see that the Government, press and people are determined to push it through.

In the New-Brunswick Assembly on the 18th Mr. Ritchie's resolves, implying a want of confidence in the Government, were defeated by only two majority—19 Yeas to 21 Nays. The resolve in favor of reduction of salaries passed, 22 to 8. Mr. Howe, the Provincial Delegate to England, who arrived at Halifax on the 16th at night, was escorted by torchlight from the steamer; the horses were taken from his carriage, and he was drawn in triumph by hand.

NAVAL.—The U. S. sloop of war Dale sailed from Monrovia Feb. 14, for Port Praya, after a cruise of 4½ months on the coast. Left the U. S. brig Porpoise to sail in a few days for the same place, after a cruise on the coast.
