Batchelor's Liquid Hair Dye.—BATCHELOR'S Liquid is so celebrated and successful that it is exciting the cupidity of a host of imitators. The public must be careful to get the genuine at BATCHELOR'S Wig Manufactory, 4 Wall-st, where it is sold wholesale and retail, or applied. This Dye has been in successful operation for the last twelve years. a11 1m

NEW-YORK DAILY TRIBUNE.

A Wondrous Italian Invention.—For the Cure of Diseases of the Skin, Pimples, Freckles, Sunburn, Tan, Morphew, Blotches, Scurvy, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, &c., and for rendering Yellow, Dark, Swarthy, or Red Rough Skin, White, Clear, Fine, Smooth and Beautiful as a Young Child's. The educated reader is requested to test the marvelous qualities of this article ere he attempts to class it as one of the unprincipled humbugs of the day. The proprietor, some four years ago, gave Twenty Five Hundred Dollars for the recipe, after testing its power in several cases, (and it was well worth four times that sum.) "I conscientiously assure you that I have seen JONES's Italian Chemical Soap used in all of the above, in hundreds o' cases, and never knew it to fail. It is not only a cure but a preventive, and any one troubled with the above, or any similar disease, is honestly assured that it will cure him." Be sure you get the genuine only at 493 Broadway. my2

CHARLES SCRIBNER Publishes THIS DAY, Second Edition of Hurry-Graphs, or Sketches of Scenery, Celebrities and Society, taken from Life, by N. Parker Willis. 1 vol., 12mo.
No portion of this book has appeared in Mr. Willis's works previously published.
"Brilliantly written, and is a faithful reflection of the wit and vivacity of the author." (N. Y. Commercial Advertiser.
"The contents are Sketches of Scenery, Celebrities and Society, taken from life, by a shrewd observer and recorded by a pen that seldom fails to give point and pungency to its subject matter." (Albion.
"If any of our readers are suffering from the blues, we advise them to purchase it. It is worth all the medical prescriptions in the world. We never fail to read his books, and this one has captive last evening for hours and the time was short too upon the wing." (New Era, Auburn.
"Lively, darling and entertaining sketches, making a very readable book for a leisure hour." (N. Y. Observer.
"Some of the best specimens of Mr. Willis's prose, we think, are herein contained. The pages throughout are extremely interesting, every where indicative of genius, of real kindness of heart, and generous appreciation of every body else." (N. Y. Evangelist.
"Valuable records, as well as pleasing and poetical descriptions—in short it is one of the most acceptable works that the author has yet published." (N. B. Palladium.
