India Rubber Goods.

INDIA RUBBER SHOES.—FRAUD!—After all the fraudulent attempts to deceive the public, the "combination" evidently mean to allow the approaching Fall Term of Court to pass without a trial. I charge this now in advance, while there is plenty time to prepare—and I call upon the combination to produce witnesses—Adolphus Stone and John C. Rockford, persons in their employ, against whom I have attachments, to come forward and give their testimony. This they dare not do, and they dare not come to trial before a jury.

This I charge, and aver that the pretended patents are a fraud, and I can and will prove and establish it in Court, whenever the combination venture to a trial before a jury. If they are innocent of this charge, allow the witnesses to come upon the stand, and not keep them secreted. Bring the case to trial before a jury. For eight years I have charged the Goodyear Patent to be a fraud and swindle. If not, let them come before a jury, fairly. Until this is done, shame should keep you all from any more cowardly attacks in the newspapers. HORACE H. DAY.

Medical.

THE MYSTERY SOLVED.—SUFFOLK-ST., N. Y., Sept. 8.—DR. WATTS—Dear Sir: Have the kindness to send me another bottle of your Nervous Antidote, having found so much benefit and relief from the first. Never shall I forget my sensations on taking the second dose of your most wonderful Nervine. I sat in an arm-chair and fancied myself in the car of a balloon, exactly as one would feel traveling through the air; everything around me brightened up and serene.

GEO. F. GLESSING.

After these sensations are produced the patient may bid defiance to any disease; the whole nervous fluids from the brain are changed, and health must inevitably succeed, and I believe any person, no matter how low, to experience that sensation once would most assuredly get well. TALBOT WATTS, Electrical Nervist, No. 424 Greenwich-st., Depot, No. 102 Nassau-st. $1 per bottle, $9 doz. s10 1t*
