Special Notices.

☞ The remarkable success which has attended the labors of the East River Total Abstinence Society in effecting the reformation of inebriates and checking the indulgence of moderate drinkers, is known to a large portion of our citizens. The public dock meetings have resulted in the reclamation of hundreds of desponding men to whom the gate of hope had been apparently closed forever. The many hearts that have been warmed to life again, the many homes that have been reanimated, the many families that have been reunited through the labors of this Society, afford a grateful reward to its members for past exertions and cheer them on to redoubled efforts in future.

In humble appreciation of these facts, a number of Temperance ladies of this city have resolved to present to the Society a suitable Temperance Flag as a small token of grateful esteem. In order that all friends of Temperance may have an opportunity of aiding in the above object, a Committee of ladies has been appointed to collect such donations as a liberal public may choose to contribute.

The presentation of the flag will take place at a public meeting, the particulars of which will be published in due season. s17 1t*

☞ The Western Farm and Village Association will hold a Public meeting at Grand-st. Hall, No. 127 Grand-st., THIS EVENING, at 7½ o'clock. The object of the Association is the organization and settlement of a Township and Village on the Public Lands of the West.—Every member is especially requested to be present.

WM. HADDOCK, President.
THOS. K. ALLEN, Secretary. s17 1t*

☞ Industrial Home Association, No. 2.—Members are hereby notified that a proposition to amend the Constitution, so as to restrict members hereafter admitted to less than an acre each, will be taken up for consideration ON THURSDAY EVENING, Sept. 18th, at No. 127 Grand-st. Also, by a resolution of last meeting, those who intend to increase their claims are requested to notify the Financial Secretary to that effect at the same meeting.

K. A. BAILEY, President.

☞ Every Man his own Landlord.—UNION BUILDING AND MUTUAL LOAN ASSOCIATION.—This Association has been in successful operation 4 months, and has had a number of shares redeemed; but as it is desirous to fill up to a thousand shares (the maximum) as rapidly as possible, this Association will take new members on more advantageous terms and easier monthly payments than any other similar Association.
