WANAMAKER'S WANAMAKER'S

Men's Collars, 50c a Dozen

LINEN, four-ply, with hand-made buttonnoles; or cotton, three-ply—they need not have as many thicknesses of fabric as the linen.

This isn't a mixture, trusting to you to choose the cheap ones. It's a trade movement in which certain Troy operators join.

We took all the linen collars and all the cotton collars we could get at the reduced price—a price made possible by large general ordering and giving the makers time to make the goods as stop-gap orders.

Choose either linen or cotton — there are all the current shapes to pick from.

The collars are worth $1 and $1.50 a dozen. The price is 50c.

And Cuffs—imported ones—a thousand dozen pairs — at just half present value. 2 pairs for 25c.

Six hundred Suspenders, some with cantab ends, at 25c a pair—which is about half price.

Wanamaker's is very decidedly a men's store—a store appealing to the hurried business man who wants to buy quickly and safely, and appealing as strongly to the very careful dresser who knows that we, with nearly thirty men abroad each year style-studying, must easily lead in late capers. Will you class this as a "swell" store or as the carefulest of stores? It is both.

Closing Out Wall Papers
THE ANNUAL SALE

This is an important once-a-year event in this store. Important in that superior wall papers—unique, beautiful and exclusive—are offered in each recurring sale at prices half or less than half the regular values. It's a closing out of accumulations—single-room quantities and lines that are somewhat broken. The best productions of England, France and Germany, together with America's finer goods, enter into this sale. All desirable—all from our own stock.

150 styles at 5c to 10c a roll, that were 10c to 20c.
209 styles at 8c to 25c a roll, that were 15c to 50c.
166 styles of gold papers at 10c to 25c a roll, that were 20c to 75c.
85 styles of fine papers at 20c to 50c a roll, that were 35c to $1.
130 styles of English and French papers at 12½c to 50c a roll; were 25c to $1.25.
Some elegant relief papers, at 75c to $1.25 a roll; were $1.25 to $2.
And ingrains, silk fabrics and dyed burlaps, in newest shades.

Please bring measurements of rooms—height from base-board to ceiling, number of windows and doors and their width, length and width of room. Third floor, Fourth avenue.

Thank a Pleasant Yesterday for leaving any of the Kersey Overcoats for those who couldn't get here. Come today—or miss them!

Men's $15 to $20 Kersey Overcoats at $12 and $13.50

Blue or black; all full lined with all-wool fabric, and those at $13.50 have satin shoulder linings.

The garments are entirely new and the fabric they're made of is worth today a full third more than we had to pay for this. Second floor, Fourth avenue.

Women's Jackets, $10

They are the $15, $18 and $20 ones of our own stock and from one of the big commercial tailors. A mere handful, though. Kersey, cheviot and covert cloth—colors and black. Satin or silk-serge linings; a few garments of double-face cloth, widely faced with and with satin sleeve linings. Second floor, Broadway.

Shoes---A Clearance

Can't be a doubt of it—you have brought to the Wanamaker Stores the largest retail shoe business in America—we could honestly say largest in the world, but that wouldn't mean any more.

Well, there is dross when lead is worked; there are scraps when clothes are made, and there come to be all sorts of odds and ends in a shoe store. Once or twice a year we clear them out. Some of the shoes may show scuff or scratches, some of the pairs may really not be matches, but for all that, they are good quality, good wearing shoes.

Ready this morning—nearly twelve hundred pairs of

Men's, Women's and Children's Shoes
Prices 40c, 60c, 80c and $1 a Pair

Fifth floor.
